

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HERRIN, Correspondent.

On Thursday the ladies Aid of the Pentecostal church entertained the members of the Boardman Aid at an all-day meeting. This proved to be a most delightful occasion and the delicious hot dinner served at one of the tables was an important feature of the day. In the afternoon a program of instrumental and vocal music and readings was given with a clever little "Saggy Ahn and Abby" dance that was especially well done by two girls as a pleasing addition to the program. Some interesting games were played and the picture of 20 famous people to be named by the contestants gave some surprising results. The "Saggy Ahn and Abby" proved interesting. It was a day long to be remembered. The Messdames Johnson, Messenger, Beardman, Herelm, Beardley, King, C. S. Calkins and Miller were guests from Boardman.

Ed Salmen of North Dakota, who has been visiting at the John Koski home, left Friday for Portland, accompanied by Hugo Koski, for an indefinite stay.

Henry Klages and wife have returned from a several weeks absence spent at Kennewick, Wn., where they were employed during the apple season.

W. A. Price has a new Gold Medal radio set which the family is enjoying.

John Hango and Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Lingren of Hood River were guests at the Chas. Hango home for the week end. The former is a brother and Mrs. Lingren a sister of Chas. Hango.

The various Boardmanites who have been ill are nearly all on the road to recovery. Mrs. Clarence Berger, who is taking treatments at Pollard, is reported to be improving. Maurice Goodwin, who had an operation recently for hernia is convalescing. He has been at The Dalles hospital.

Jack Gorham, who went down to take some radium treatments at The Dalles hospital for a growth on his lower lip, had an operation performed and the growth removed. Mrs. Gorham and Mr. Mulkey went down Sunday to see Mr. Gorham and Mrs. Mulkey. The latter is still undergoing a course of treatments before having a major operation.

On Sunday Adolph Skoubo returned home after two weeks spent in St. Anthony's hospital at Pendleton. He is feeling fine and will have an artificial eye fitted as soon as practicable, having had the left eye removed after running a stick into the eyeball. W. A. Prices were hosts to a delicious dinner on Sunday, having A. T. Herelm and family as guests.

One of the pleasant social affairs of the week was the dinner given on Monday evening by the mothers of the football boys with the gridiron heroes and their dads, the members of the faculty and a few invited guests present. The dinner was served cafeteria style and such a dinner it was, with all training table rules forgotten for the evening—chicken, gravy, mashed potatoes, salads, pickles, etc. 37 guests were present and found their places by the clever place cards, the handiwork of Mrs. Clyde Carr, Supt. Beardley was a pleasant toastmaster and toasts were responded to by Howard Packard for the team, Clyde Carr, coach. Letters were presented to Eldon Willson, Vernon Van Noster, Russell Mefford, Carl and Alec Ayres, Howard Packard, Deibert Johnson, Hector Wicklander and Arthur and Norman Bailey.

Miss Flossie Officer has moved into the small house belonging to Frank Cramer, which was occupied last year by Mr. Griggs.

Wayne Duggan celebrated his sixth birthday on Armistice Day by entertaining a group of his little friends at his home. Games were played and a peanut hunt enjoyed, but best of all was the beautiful luncheon provided by Mrs. Duggan, with the birthday cake as the center of attraction. Wayne received a number of gifts from his little friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Beardley entertained at dinner on Sunday, having Miss Elsie Silver, Miss Ethel Beougher, Mrs. Olive Willson and Mr. Herbert McLean as guests.

Tuesday morning while driving his Ford coupe across the highway at the corner by Price's lumber yard, an Idaho car coming at terrific speed hit Mrs. H. H. Weston's car and overturned it. Mrs. Weston had her grandsons, Bobby and Billy Morgan with her but fortunately no one was injured at all. The occupants were helped out of the car unscathed. Mrs. Weston, who delivers milk to the town folks, had one milk bottle broken. It was one of those miraculous escapes which sometimes happen.

On Wednesday evening a Rebekah lodge was organized here with 19 members. The Hermitian degree team came down and exemplified the work. A delicious luncheon was served late in the evening.

Lloyd Brice of Wenatchee is visiting at the home of his uncle, John Brice.

Mrs. T. E. Broyles has been suffering from a very severe cold.

Mrs. H. H. Weston has been suffering with a carbuncle on the back of her neck.

Alec Warrens have been entertaining guests over the week end. Harold and Lawrence Jones and sister Thelma of Gondon, and Mr. Field, who is the baker at that place, motored down and on Saturday evening all attended the Legion dance at Umatilla.

IRRIGON

Vernon Jones, who has been in St. Anthony's hospital at Pendleton for nearly three months, is expected home this week. It will be remembered that Mr. Jones met with an accident on the highway toward Heppner, the result being a badly broken leg. Mrs. J. E. McCoy made a trip to

Pendleton on Thursday, Miss Snow driving the "Lizette."

W. R. Howard, now of Freewater, was a business visitor in our city recently.

Rev. G. W. Wilbur of Hood River was in town over the week end, making arrangements for the sale of the "Mane" or parsonage which belongs to the Presbyterian church here. He stated that his denomination is planning on disposing of the church building as well as the parsonage.

The social evening given by the grange last Friday night was a splendid success. The program was fine, the refreshments were delicious, and the "cometion" was grand and glorious. The regular monthly meeting was held Wednesday evening.

Mrs. N. Soaman and "Fritzie" are visiting with friends at La Grande this week.

Mrs. M. M. Makham of Pendleton spent several days this week with her parents, Pa and Ma McCoy.

Our football boys met their Waterloo at Umatilla last Sunday afternoon. Score 12-0. Two rather long forward passes by Umatilla resulted in two touchdowns. Features of Irigons' playing were several long end runs by Chaney and Strader and the defensive work of Jones.

Mrs. Genevieve Jones has returned from Wenatchee where she has been for several weeks. Next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the school building a short Thanksgiving program will be given by the school. Parents and patrons are invited to attend.

LEXINGTON

Miss Gladys Bengé and Miss Pauline Johnson, Whitman students, accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Barnett of Walla Walla, arrived by auto on Friday last for a week-end visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ephram Eskelson.

Married, near Lexington, Ore., Nov. 14, 1925, Rosa Olo Bengé to Ephram Eskelson. To celebrate this occasion on Saturday evening last a large number of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eskelson, thereby giving to them a delightful surprise. An evening's entertainment, charmingly directed by Miss Gladys Bengé, gave much pleasure to the honored ones, as well as to old and young among the guests. Just before final good wishes for all the future years were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Eskelson, dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Ralph Bengé, Miss Gladys Bengé and Mrs. Harvey Bauman. Those present at this enjoyable event were Mrs. Laura Reed, Perrell Bengé, Mrs. Ruth Barnett of Walla Walla, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Slocum, Mary Slocum, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Valentine, Helen and James Valentine, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bengé, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Parker, Miss Green, Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Meiske, Mrs. J. D. Bauman, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Shaw, Miss Gladys Bengé, Miss Pauline Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Strodtman.

Lexington is indeed glad to know that Mrs. P. W. Allison has so far regained her health as to be able to be brought from The Dalles to the home of her father, W. J. Davis.

The ladies of the Christian church will hold their annual Christmas sale on December 12th, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m. Dainty Christmas gifts and framed pictures and fancy articles will be exhibited at the W. F. Barnett store.

Lexington's town team proved that the "third time is charm" when it won from Athena Sunday at Pendleton. A fair crowd saw a spirited game in the first half when Lexington scored by a dropkick, 8-0. Last half of game was rather slow. Athena was unfortunate in that four of her men were disabled.

The Congregational ladies enjoyed a pleasant social hour at their regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon. A number of guests were present to partake of a dainty lunch served by the older ladies to the young members of their society.

Rev. Wallace Jones is conducting a series of meetings at Pine City.

W. F. Barnett shipped a car load of cattle the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Barnett and Miss Dona Barnett left for Portland at the same time on business connected with their shipment.

Oral and Clifford Henriksen are moving their household effects, farm implements and stock to La Grande near which place they expect to locate. These young ranchers have the best wishes of their friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Walker from Heppner were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Lewis on Tuesday.

might be besides that swamp." "I think I get your meaning, Uncle Horace," said Oliver, now cool and self-possessed. "If I agree to withdraw from the race and perjure myself in the matter of the Bannester tax scandal, you will drop the investigation and forget all about it—even though I may have killed my own father?"

"I'm not here to argue with you," snapped Mr. Gooch, his gaze sweeping the ever-increasing group of spectators. "Your candidacy has nothing to do with my determination to sift this business to the bottom."

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.

Whereas it has pleased our Heavenly Father to summon to his Eternal Home our beloved brother C. E. Woodson, who was a faithful member for many years and Past Patron of Ruth Chapter No. 32, Order of the Eastern Star.

Be it resolved, that we bow in humble submission to the will of the Omnipotent, and extend to the bereaved wife and daughters of the deceased our heartfelt sympathy. That we drap our Charter in mourning in memory of our departed brother; that a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the Chapter, a copy sent to the family, and one to the press for publication.
