

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HERREM, Correspondent.

Mrs. E. K. Mulkey is recovering from a serious operation at The Dalles hospital and is expected home shortly.

Mabel and Catherine Brown, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown, who have been very ill, are both improving gradually. Mabel has been running a temperature of 104 and 105 degrees, but the fever has lowered and she is improving very slowly. They both are students at Boardman High.

Richard Dingman who was unable to work for several weeks because of a badly injured hand has returned to his work on the railroad. Mr. Dingman had the middle finger of his left hand broken and badly cut just before Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Sam Shell returned Sunday from The Cliffs, Wash., where she was called by the death of her brother, Aris Short, who passed away last Wednesday. Funeral services were held on Saturday and interment was at Goldendale, Wash.

Gene Minges of Goldendale, Wash., came last week to make his home with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mitchell, who went to Goldendale Wednesday and brought the boy home with them. The lad, who is 12 years of age, lost his mother recently. He is a nephew of Robt. and Geo. Mitchell.

Mrs. Leslie Packard gave a dance Saturday night for the benefit of the basketball team. A good crowd attended and all enjoyed the occasion and the good music. W. A. Goodwin served the lunch.

Mrs. H. H. Weston returned Sunday from a pleasant trip to Pendleton, motoring up on Saturday. At Echo she met her daughter, Mrs. Neal Bleakney, and children who went to Pendleton with her where they visited Mrs. M. L. Morgan and family.

A double-header was played Friday evening at the Marchie building with Irrigon high and Boardman high and the Irrigon and Boardman town teams. Boardman high was defeated but the local town team won over the Irrigon towners.

C. S. Calkins has been on the sick list the past several days.

Mr. Mosier, one of the line men with the telephone crew at Boardman, has gone to Athena to accept a position as head lineman.

W. H. Woodward and Jess Lower motored to Pendleton Thursday.

Chas. Barnes came last week from Portland and will remain for several weeks.

S. L. Beck loaded his well drilling outfit and shipped it to Portland for repairs and will then ship it to Canby where the Becks will move shortly, having rented a small ranch there and where Mr. Beck has engaged to drill a number of wells. He has drilled a great many wells here, 10 of them fine artesian wells.

Perl Howell, who has been in charge of the Latourell garage here, has gone to Heppner and the garage has been rented to Albert McFord.

Mrs. Ensign perpetrated a pleasant surprise party honoring her husband's 55th birthday, last Friday at the Highway Inn. The telephone crew were guests and an elaborate dinner was served. A cake filled with cotton provided much amusement for the guests when it was cut by the honor guest. Mrs. Ensign was ably assisted by Mrs. Woodward and Mrs. Stevens. Mr. Ensign is the head lineman of the telephone crew.

Miss Grace Rasmussen arrived Saturday for a visit with her friend, Miss Dorothy Boardman.

Mrs. W. H. Woodward is the newest recruit to the bobbed hair fad.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ransier and family motored to Pendleton Sunday to visit the latter's sister.

C. M. Wade, representative of the State Humane Society, was a Boardman visitor at the O. H. Warner home Saturday. Mr. Wade was on his way to Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Swigger entertained charmingly on Sunday at her home in Umatilla, having her former Sunday school class as guests. All had a merry time and enjoyed the games and the light repast. Those who attended were Rachel and Delbert Johnson, Caroline Hunt, Helen and Kenneth Boardman and Mildred Messenger.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davis and family were guests at the W. A. Price home at a most delightful dinner on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. King extended their hospitality on Wednesday evening at a charming 6 o'clock dinner when they entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Calkins and daughter Alice.

An event of importance occurred last Wednesday when Stanton Vance-Hadley came to make his home with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hadley. He was a lusty young lad and weighed 10 pounds. Mother and baby are doing nicely and everybody pleased over the new arrival.

Frances and Donald Gaglia are improving slowly after a very serious illness, pronounced intestinal flu by the doctor at The Dalles, where they were taken.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new project at Blalock Island. Houses are being repaired, lumber hauled over, and much work being done. A crew of 13 or 15 men are employed and it is planned to level and seed approximately 500 acres before spring. About 25 years ago an effort was made by Dr. Blalock of Walla Walla to develop this island which is a large one in the Columbia river, extending from Boardman to Irrigon. Some nice homes were erected, fruit trees planted and alfalfa raised, but the project was abandoned. A Seattle concern is sponsoring this effort and it is hoped it will not prove to be an illusion and disappointed hopes and dreams to the purchasers of parcels of land there.

Ed Salmen and Hugo Koski returned Friday evening from Portland after several weeks' absence. John Koski is in Spokane at the present time.

(Too late for last week)

Mrs. T. E. Broyles had as week-end visitors her uncle, Louis Bridges, of California, and her aunt, Mrs. Calbreath, and cousin Tom Calbreath, of The Dalles, who motored up for the week end. Mr. Bridges visited a sister at Corvallis on his way from California.

Ralph Humphrey and wife plan to live on their ranch next season. The Humphreys have a fine new son about four weeks of age. Ralph has been here making some preparations, hauling lumber, etc., as he plans to build a small addition to his house in the East End.

Leo Root is building an addition, to be used as bedrooms, on the north side of the postoffice building.

IRRIGON

The bazaar given last Saturday evening was a success socially and financially. The gross receipts were about seventy dollars.

Irrigon high school boys came out on the short end of the score in a basketball game with Boardman high at Boardman skating rink. Our town team won from Boardman town team 18-6.

Mrs. Earl Rand, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R.

LEXINGTON

Mrs. Ed Duran has returned from an extended visit at Salem.

Karl Beach returned Monday from an over-Sunday visit with his family at Walla Walla. He was accompanied to the city by Mrs. Ola Ward and James Keller. Mr. Beach brought home a new Studebaker which he is demonstrating to his friends.

T. W. Cutsforth suffered the loss by fire of his Morgan property last week. The house contained furniture but had been unoccupied for a number of weeks. We understand that the loss is partly covered by insurance.

Jolly Jack Tars, Cowboys, City Dudes, accompanied by Red Cross nurses, Round-Up Queens and Chorus Girls, appeared at the home of Mrs. Fred Kelly about two o'clock Saturday afternoon and enjoyed with her a number of pleasant hours. Upon close observation the guests proved to be Lexington high school girls who

FOR ALL AGES

The idea that milk is only for children is a mistaken one. Every one should drink plenty of milk. There's nothing more nourishing and beneficial to good health.

MONEY TALKS!

Listen To Its STORY

"I'm a new dollar,—crisp and spotless. The cashier lays me out—I'm all ready for service.

A man just borrowed me so I'm going out to settle a debt. It's a good thing I was where he could get me so quickly. I'm ready cash.

I'm in a purse now. It is dark and cramped. Ah! Light! I'm exchanged for a Christmas gift, and a bargain too! I'm thrifty.

Well, I'm in the bank again. The merchant brought me. This is a fine bank, busy, yet so friendly and willing to serve. I feel at home here.

Wow! Some fellow cashed his salary check and is tossing us around. Let's go! So long fellows! Just me left. The poor fool, he gave me away. Serves him right, he's broke, now!

Things are happening fast. I'm gambling now! There! I got away. Oh, I'm slippery, I am. Not many can hold me!

Now I'm hiding under a pillow. Some one put me here, but I don't feel safe! Just what I thought—I'm stolen.

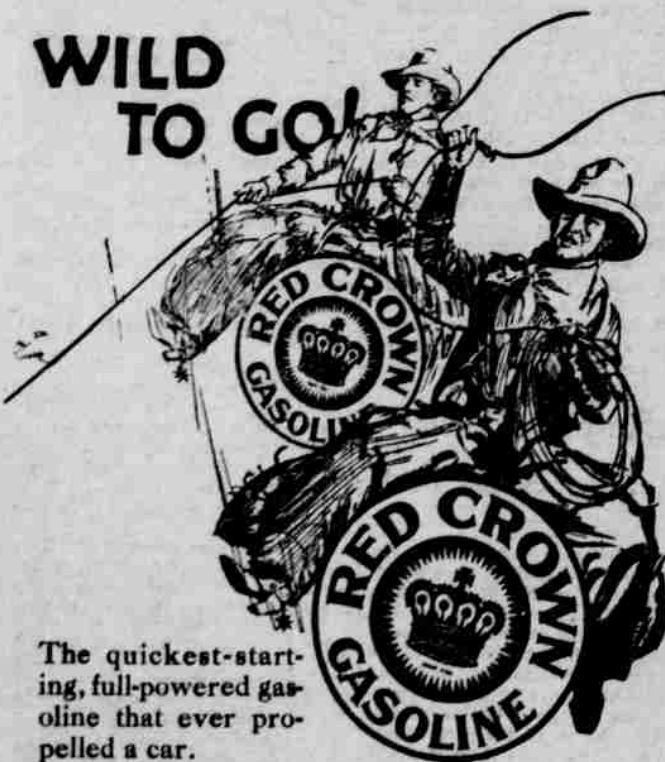

I'll get away from this guy quick. Ah, a hole! I'll wiggle thru and out upon the street!

Here comes a man I like—he looks like he knows how to treat us! There he spies me!

Back in the bank! I'm happy and safe now! I'll work hard and when that thrifty man comes back I'll surprise him with the interest I've earned.
