

Local Happenings

E. J. Evans of Lexington was here on Saturday. He is expecting his family home from Spokane, where they have been during the past few months so that the children could be in school, to spend the holidays. Mr. Evans also reports that his fall seeding never looked better than at present, and barring unfavorable weather conditions he should have a splendid stand when spring arrives.

Wm. Haylor arrived home Sunday evening from Portland where he has been spending some two weeks or more. Mr. Haylor is a sick man and received but little encouragement from Portland physicians, though he thinks the stay in the city was of some help to him. Suffering from anemia, Mr. Haylor will be compelled to seek a land of sunshine if he gets permanent relief.

The Joseph Burgoyne mill, warehouse and other property at Lexington, were sold by Sheriff McDuffee on Saturday, the purchasers being Dan Summers, Daniel Rice and Sadie Lewis, who held mortgage against the property. The sale was for the amount of the judgment, the plaintiffs had obtained, amounting in the aggregate to over $15,000.00.

Heppner Lodge No. 69 and Ruth Chapter No. 32 will hold their installation of officers on Monday evening next. It is to be a joint meeting of the two orders, and at 6:30 a big feed will be spread in the dining hall. All members of the two lodges are expected to bring wife or husband who are not members.

J. B. Huddleston was over from Lone Rock to be present at the meeting of other stockmen and forest reserve permittees on Saturday afternoon. J. B. is one of the strong backers of the movement to get the rules of the service modified and he has been doing some good campaigning along this line.

Earl Warner, extensive wheat raiser of Lexington, was doing business in the county seat on Saturday. Earl is wearing a pretty broad smile these days, for his big acreage of fall-sown grain is now putting forth in good shape, though it was not so promising for a time.

Dick Howard, who has been with the Wright brothers of Rhea creek during the summer, was in town a short time on Tuesday, on his way to the ranch of W. B. Barratt & Son, where he will look after a band of sheep during the balance of the winter months.

Herbert C. Bryson, attorney, and his brother, Elmer D. Bryson, who is secretary of the Wenaha Wood Growers association, both of Walla Walla were here on Saturday to attend the meeting of the national forest permittees gathered at Hotel Heppner.

L. E. Reaney was looking after business matters here on Saturday from his home near Lexington. He reports that the fall seeding in his neighborhood is all coming along good now, the Indian summer weather having been just what was needed.

Johan Troedson and son were visitors here on Friday, Mr. Troedson having matters of business to attend to in the city. He states that the wheat in his section of the county is coming along fine. Mr. Troedson farms north of lone.

Jimmy Johnson was over from his cattle ranch in the Range section of Grant county the first of the week. He reports the weather conditions there very fine, and stock all doing well.

Mrs. Geo. C. Alken arrived home the past week from Portland and other valley points, where she spent a very pleasant fortnight visiting members of her family and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ola Bergstrom were eight mile people in the city for a few hours Saturday afternoon.

Wanted—Woman for general housework. Phone 785, city.

Judge Fred W. Wilson of The Dalles was in Heppner on Monday and Tuesday of this week, opening the December term of circuit court. The docket was gone over, but as there were few matters ready to be heard, adjournment was taken. Judge Wilson is acting for Judge Phelps, who is still too ill to attend to his full official duties.

Harry Duvall and wife, Swaggart butte residents, were visitors in this city Saturday. With J. O. Turner, Mr. Duvall is interested in running the Burgoyne warehouse at Lexington and was here to attend the sale of the Burgoyne property Saturday forenoon.

Ione lodge of Oddfellows will be host to the various lodges of the county this evening, when a general good time will be had. Following the main program of the evening will be a big feed prepared and served under the auspices of the members of Ione lodge.

Grant Harrar, prominent stockman of Long Creek, was here Saturday to attend the meeting of forest permittees held at Hotel Heppner. Mr. Harrar does not come to Heppner as often as in former years, when he made this his shipping point.

Dillard French and sons were down from Gurdane on Saturday, bringing in a bunch of calves which were shipped on Sunday to the Portland market. While here Mr. French took time off to attend the stockmen's meeting Saturday afternoon.

Fred Nicholson and wife of Ione were shopping in this city Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Nicholson is still engaged in the business of making wells, an occupation that he has followed for many years in the north end of the county.

Mrs. Ed Duran of Lexington was a guest at the Van Winkle home on Thursday after a visit of several months with her daughter Mrs. R. G. McMurty at Salem. Mrs. McMurty, who has been ill is much improved.—Arlington Bulletin.

FOR SALE—53-horsepower Blawett Webber tractor and two three-bottom 16-inch plows. Will sell with or without plows and take in trade some good work horses. C. C. Hutchcroft, Morgan, Ore., on H. C. Witzel place.

Automobile, DeLo Light and Radio batteries charged with Lightning instantly, and stay charged; time trouble and money saved. Why not find out. Guaranteed. Will Bailey, Hotel Heppner, or Shively's shop.

Word received at this office this week announces the marriage at Portland on December 7th of Mrs. Tillie Duncan to Lou Zigler, former Heppner folks. They are now at home at 481 E. 17th street.

The regular meeting of the Legion Auxiliary for Monday evening, December 21, has been postponed. There will be no meeting until the first Monday in January, we are requested to announce.

Mrs. Elmer Slocum, Fred Lucas, S. S. Strodman and J. C. White were in attendance at the meeting of Ruth Chapter No. 32, O. E. S. Friday evening from Lexington.

E. J. Merrill was down from his ranch near Hardman on Tuesday. He states that there is little evidence of winter up that way but no complaint as to weather conditions.

Barney Doherty was up from Alpine Saturday, being an interested stockman attending the meeting of forest permittees in the afternoon.

Jason Biddle was here on Saturday, settling up affairs in connection with the estate of Ivy B. Nolan, of which he is the administrator.

WANTED—To rent ranch in Morrow county; prefer near Heppner. Laurence E. Reaney, Lexington, Oregon.

FOR SALE—Ford touring car, fair condition; $75. Inquire this office.

Break Rum Ring

Gigantic $25,000,000 rum ring has been broken up, with many arrests. Here is Major Walton Green, the man who directed the captures. Lower photo is Mr. John A. Foster, Prohibition Director of New York, whose active work is stepping booze smuggling.

THE FLASHLIGHT

Published weekly by the students of the Union high school at Hardman. Lee Merrill, editor, Teddy Burnside, assistant.

Present indications are that the Hardman grade school will disregard the long established custom this year of giving its pupils and teachers a Christmas vacation. This seems to be another case of applying economy in the wrong place since it is an accepted fact by men standing high in the educational profession, that a short vacation now and then is most essential to the efficiency of both pupils and teachers.

Basketball prospects this year are very poor. Due to the very small student body, basketball material is limited—almost a minus quantity. Captain Laurence Williams is the only regular of last year's team in school. The problem will be to build a team around him from the green, inexperienced boys turning out. The greatest need at present is a dependable lighting system so that training might be started in earnest.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ayers of Hardman returned home this past week from their extended trip to The Dalles.

Hardman was well represented at the program presented by the Rhea Creek Grange last Friday evening. Everyone interviewed reports having had a splendid time.

Two popular young Hardman couples, Miss Nellie Flynn and Esten Stevens, Miss Elizabeth Blekman and Nea Knighten motored to Boardman Saturday afternoon. They attended the big dance there in the evening and spent Sunday visiting friends, returning home Sunday night. They report having had a most enjoyable week end.

W. H. French, a prosperous rancher near Spray, was in our little city Monday.

"Bill" Mahrt spent the week end visiting his wife and daughter at Hardman hotel.

Monday, the English IV class read and reported on the President's message to Congress.

The editorial staff of the Flashlight has been changed. Luann Williams has been appointed editor.

A new microscope and a box of slides have been added to the physiology apparatus.

The L. O. O. F. of Hardman are planning two dances, one to be given Christmas Eve and the other on New Year's Eve.

DISAPPEARED.

The local Odd Fellows Lodge has been requested to locate if possible George (Bud) Crow, age 15; 5 feet, 8 inches tall; weight 115; fair complexion, dark brown hair, small round face; pleasing personality, small bunch or scar under left jaw near ear; very faint scar across neck in front.

He disappeared from his home in Gooding, Idaho, on August 18th and is believed to be in this vicinity. Mrs. Crow is prostrated and any information would be appreciated. If Bud sees this he should write home immediately and relieve his mother's anxiety.

K. P. TO HAVE DISTRICT MEETING

Arlington Lodge of Knights of Pythias will entertain the district convention of the order on Friday evening, Dec. 18. It is expected that some of the grand officers will be present and delegations representing the lodges of Heppner, Lone Rock, Condon, John Day and other points will gather there to enjoy the convention program. The Arlington Knights plan a reception and lunch for the visitors.

RHEA CREEK GRANGE.

Rhea Creek Grange meets the first Sunday of each month at 10 a. m., and the third Friday night of each month at 8 p. m. Visiting members welcome.

George Stephens, Earl Snell, Dave Lemon, Clyde Wristen and Pat Moonsey, fight fans of Arlington, attended the Elks' smoker here last Saturday evening.

Rebekah regular meeting Friday evening at 7:30. All Past Noble Grands requested to be present, as well as other members of the order.

LOST—Pair Kryptok double-vision spectacles, round lenses, small amber frames, maroon case. Reward. Leave at G. T. office.

Ed McDaid, pioneer resident of Juniper canyon, was in the city on Friday, looking after matters of business.

JAMES J. CROSSLEY of Portland, Oregon

hereby announces that he is a candidate for the Republican nomination for U. S. Senator at the May, 1926, Primaries.

Will work zealously for development of Oregon and support of measures for real benefit of farmers as suggested by their organizations. Favor World Court and Reform Senate Rules. Paid Advertisement.
