

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HERRIM, Correspondent.

Henry C. Harrison, one of the early pioneers of the Boardman project, passed away on New Year's day at his old home in Astoria where he has been the past year. Mr. Harrison has been ill with arterio sclerosis and other complications for the past three years. He leaves a wife and one daughter, Mrs. Bates of Salem to mourn his loss, besides numerous friends. He was well known at his old home in Astoria where he had lived for a great many years. Mr. Harrison owned the largest ranch unit on the project, having 160 acres a mile south of Boardman. Boardman friends extend their sympathy to Mrs. Harrison and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lee returned Friday to their home in Pilot Rock after a pleasant week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Warner and other Boardman friends.

Nate Macomber and family returned Sunday from a pleasant vacation trip to Pilot Rock. A family reunion of the McReynolds clan was held with 18 members of the family gathered around the festal board.

A jolly party was given at the E. T. Messenger home on Saturday evening as a farewell for Uran Messenger who left that night for Corvallis to reenter school. The college group was in attendance and all had a gay time and at one a. m. all went to Messner to bid the boys bon voyage. Guests included Rachel and Deibert Johnson, Miss Dorothy Johnson of Wasco, Helen Chaffee, Leib, Ray and Edward Barlow, James Howell, Earl Olson, Alton Klits, Doyle Hubbel, Helen, Kenneth and Dorothy Boardman, and the Messengers.

F. C. Dillingham returned Thursday from Lebanon where he spent Christmas with his family. He went on to Walla Walla to consult Mr. Cobb before returning here. Plans are still indefinite as to the resumption of the Boardman Trading Co. store which was burned in December.

Rev. A. D. Swogger and family were dinner guests at the J. R. Johnson home on Thursday evening.

Mrs. O. H. Warner and Mrs. C. S. Calkins have birthdays on the same day so the occasion was celebrated by both families who partook of a delicious dinner at the C. S. Calkins home on Sunday.

Miss Tena Mellin spent a few days at the Olson home last week. She is employed in Pendleton. Miss Mellin is the daughter of Arthur Mellin who lived on the Healey place this summer.

Rachel and Deibert Johnson motored to Wasco last week and visited a few days, returning on Saturday. Their cousin, Miss Dorothy Johnson returned with them for a visit at the J. R. Johnson home.

Mrs. R. S. Smith and daughter returned Sunday from a few days visit in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Carr returned Sunday from a pleasant vacation trip to Spokane, Pullman, Colville and other points. Mr. Carr had his tonsils removed while away.

B. B. Lewis has purchased a new radio set.

Robert Rayburn returned home on Sunday from a ten days visit in Portland where his two brothers live. The weather was ideal during his sojourn in the valley.

Paul Mead, who remained in The Dalles for a longer visit than that made by his parents, returned home Sunday.

Ralph Humphrey has moved into his ranch home on the East End. An addition has been built on the house. The place which has been rented out the past several years will be farmed this year by Mr. Humphrey himself. Ray Brown motored to The Dalles on Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Lauren Blayden returned Sunday to their home in New Plymouth, Idaho, after a pleasant visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Blayden and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Olson departed Monday for their home in Clatskanie after spending the holidays with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Blayden.

The Community Sunday school and church is making great strides the past few months and the minister is preaching to full pews now instead of a straggling handful as in the past. On Sunday there was an attendance of 65 (and its after Christmas, too).

Mabel Brown, who has been so seriously ill the past month, is improving slowly. Catherine is recovering finely. This is good news to their many friends.

Mrs. Cason is getting along very well but is not able to do much since her serious injury some time ago when she had a rib broken as she fell from a wagon while alighting.

Friends are glad to know that Mrs. Clarence Berger is improving and hopes are entertained for her complete recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davis entertained at a lovely dinner Friday evening: the Misses Edna, Ethel and Erma Broyles, Marie Messenger and Mr. Fortier.

Friends will be interested to hear of the marriage of Miss Clara Marcus and Frank De Boe of Monument which occurred December 24th. Both are known here, Mrs. De Boe having been a student at Boardman high school three years ago.

H. H. Crawford of Dunsmuir, Calif., was an early caller at the H. H. Weston home one day this week, arriving in time for breakfast. Mr. Crawford owns 120 acres of land on the West End and was formerly the manual training teacher here, but has been teaching at Dunsmuir for the past three years. He departed that same night for Portland after completing his business affairs.

A sumptuous New Year's dinner was that presided over by Mr. and Mrs. John Jenkins Friday having Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cummins, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Packard, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Spagle and Howard Packard as guests. The Misses Edna and Ethel Broyles left Sunday, the former going back to O. A. C. and the latter to Monmouth. Eugene Cummins has sold his herd of twelve fine Holsteins to a relative at Nolin. Eight of them were taken up December 31st and the remaining ones January 2. Mr. and Mrs. Cummins expect to spend the balance of the winter near Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McDaniel and Miss Maude Howell of Hardman were holiday visitors at the Jenkins ranch. Mrs. Claude Myers and granddaughter Wilma spent Christmas week in Portland. Mr. Myers and Margaret kept the home fires burning.

Tom Brew is quite ill at his home in the West End. If he does not improve shortly he will be taken to the hospital at Pendleton. Mr. Brew lives on a ranch near the Nizers.

M. Mulligan spent Christmas with friends in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Alec Warren and Miss Jessie Gamble returned home after spending the holidays at Monument. Miss Gamble is a student at College Place, near Walla Walla.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brice were overnight visitors at The Dalles on Thursday.

Mrs. Fowler of The Dalles, who has been spending the holidays with a daughter near Pendleton, stopped Monday on her way home for a short visit with her old friends, Mr. and Mrs. John Brice.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Warner and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lee motored to Heppner last Monday.

Clifford Olson of Boardman and Mrs. Clifford Olson and daughter Vivian returned Sunday to Prescott, Ore. after a 10-days sojourn at the O. B. Olson home. The former is a son and the latter a niece of the Olsons.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lee a merry "Watch Party" was given at the O. H. Warner home Thursday evening. Numerous games were enjoyed, delicious refreshments served, and all saw the departure of the old year and the ushering in of the new.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson, Deibert, Rachel and Miss Dorothy Johnson of Wasco were dinner guests Sunday at the A. T. Herrim home.

Announcements have been received of the marriage of Miss Gwendolyn Evelyn MacKenzie, daughter of Mrs. Sue MacKenzie of Santa Ana, Calif., to Lyle George Blayden on December 26. Lyle is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Blayden of Boardman and has lived here since childhood. The past two years he has been in California and while there he met Miss MacKenzie, whom he made his wife. Friends extend congratulations to the young couple.

J. C. Ballenger and wife and Maxine left on Thursday for a business trip to Portland. They and G. G. McPherson have been at home the past 10 days where Mr. Ballenger has been looking after his hay interests.

Mrs. Fowler of The Dalles was a recent visitor at the John Brice home on her way home after visiting a daughter near Bend.

John Brice and son Warren motored to Pendleton Wednesday. Mr. Brice has a new Dodge car.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brice were overnight visitors at The Dalles Thursday.

Mike Mulligan spent Christmas with friends in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Olson departed Monday for their home in Clatskanie after spending the holidays with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Blayden.

The Community Sunday school and church is making great strides the past few months and the minister is preaching to full pews now instead of a straggling handful as in the past. On Sunday there was an attendance of 65 (and its after Christmas, too).

Mabel Brown, who has been so seriously ill the past month, is improving slowly. Catherine is recovering finely. This is good news to their many friends.

Mrs. Cason is getting along very well but is not able to do much since her serious injury some time ago when she had a rib broken as she fell from a wagon while alighting.

Friends are glad to know that Mrs. Clarence Berger is improving and hopes are entertained for her complete recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davis entertained at a lovely dinner Friday evening: the Misses Edna, Ethel and Erma Broyles, Marie Messenger and Mr. Fortier.

Friends will be interested to hear of the marriage of Miss Clara Marcus and Frank De Boe of Monument which occurred December 24th. Both are known here, Mrs. De Boe having been a student at Boardman high school three years ago.

H. H. Crawford of Dunsmuir, Calif., was an early caller at the H. H. Weston home one day this week, arriving in time for breakfast. Mr. Crawford owns 120 acres of land on the West End and was formerly the manual training teacher here, but has been teaching at Dunsmuir for the past three years. He departed that same night for Portland after completing his business affairs.

A sumptuous New Year's dinner was that presided over by Mr. and Mrs. John Jenkins Friday having Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cummins, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Packard, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Spagle and Howard Packard as guests. The Misses Edna and Ethel Broyles left Sunday, the former going back to O. A. C. and the latter to Monmouth. Eugene Cummins has sold his herd of twelve fine Holsteins to a relative at Nolin. Eight of them were taken

LEXINGTON

Grandma Booher enjoyed a few days visit with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Parkins. The Parkins' returned to their home in the Palouse country Tuesday morning.

Relatives and friends of Mrs. P. W. Allison were called to her bedside at Hood River Thursday last and on Saturday Lexington received word that she had passed away early Friday evening. Though not unprepared to learn the sad news, it came as a shock to our townspeople who have known and appreciated her many virtues exemplified throughout Mrs. Allison's long residence in Lexington. To the sorrowing family and relatives Lexington extends deep sympathy.

Freeman Hill arrived home Saturday evening from a holiday visit at the home of his grandmother in Portland.

Evangelist Ware at the Christian church is holding the interest of his hearers at every evening meeting. It is an inspiration to hear him.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wilcox was the scene of a delightful party on Thursday evening when twenty young Sunday school students gathered to watch our old year out and usher in the new. In a game of "Comic Shadows" prizes were awarded to Eva Padberg and Harold Sherer as having exhibited the best while Helen Valentine and James Keller came off winners in a "Candy Guessing Contest." Following an enjoyable feast the young people decked in fancy head dress and armed with many loud instruments went forth to proclaim the new year's arrival. Those enjoying this occasion were Harold Sherer, Harold Beach, James Keller, Charles Wilcox, Raymond Miller, Ed Keller, Claud Wilcox, Water Rowell, Bernice Miller, Oscar Eskelson, Doris Wilcox, Eva Wilcox, Mary Slocum, Mae Geniry, Eva Padberg, Freda McMillan, Elsie Tucker, Ula McMillan, Helen Valentine.

Miss La Velle Leathers, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Goldie Leathers, left Saturday over the O.-W. R. & N. for Monmouth where they will make arrangements for Miss La Velle to enter the Normal school.

On Sunday Elmo McMillan, sophomore vocational education at Corvallis, brought to an end his vacation of a fortnight spent in Lexington. He returned to Corvallis by auto, accompanied by Dallas Ward and Glenn Shears.

J. E. Gentry and daughter Miss Maxine, assisted by Mrs. Sarah White, entertained a small number of friends Thursday evening in honor of the coming new year. While waiting for his arrival the time was passed with pleasant games and following a dainty lunch he was appropriately greeted by the guests who mingled Happy New Years with their goodnights.

Dan Rice is about again after being laid up at his home in this city for several days, suffering from an attack of la grippe.

Evangelist Ware at the Christian church is holding the interest of his hearers at every evening meeting. It is an inspiration to hear him.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wilcox was the scene of a delightful party on Thursday evening when twenty young Sunday school students gathered to watch our old year out and usher in the new. In a game of "Comic Shadows" prizes were awarded to Eva Padberg and Harold Sherer as having exhibited the best while Helen Valentine and James Keller came off winners in a "Candy Guessing Contest." Following an enjoyable feast the young people decked in fancy head dress and armed with many loud instruments went forth to proclaim the new year's arrival. Those enjoying this occasion were Harold Sherer, Harold Beach, James Keller, Charles Wilcox, Raymond Miller, Ed Keller, Claud Wilcox, Water Rowell, Bernice Miller, Oscar Eskelson, Doris Wilcox, Eva Wilcox, Mary Slocum, Mae Geniry, Eva Padberg, Freda McMillan, Elsie Tucker, Ula McMillan, Helen Valentine.

Miss La Velle Leathers, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Goldie Leathers, left Saturday over the O.-W. R. & N. for Monmouth where they will make arrangements for Miss La Velle to enter the Normal school.

On Sunday Elmo McMillan, sophomore vocational education at Corvallis, brought to an end his vacation of a fortnight spent in Lexington. He returned to Corvallis by auto, accompanied by Dallas Ward and Glenn Shears.

J. E. Gentry and daughter Miss Maxine, assisted by Mrs. Sarah White, entertained a small number of friends Thursday evening in honor of the coming new year. While waiting for his arrival the time was passed with pleasant games and following a dainty lunch he was appropriately greeted by the guests who mingled Happy New Years with their goodnights.

Dan Rice is about again after being laid up at his home in this city for several days, suffering from an attack of la grippe.

Evangelist Ware at the Christian church is holding the interest of his hearers at every evening meeting. It is an inspiration to hear him.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wilcox was the scene of a delightful party on Thursday evening when twenty young Sunday school students gathered to watch our old year out and usher in the new. In a game of "Comic Shadows" prizes were awarded to Eva Padberg and Harold Sherer as having exhibited the best while Helen Valentine and James Keller came off winners in a "Candy Guessing Contest." Following an enjoyable feast the young people decked in fancy head dress and armed with many loud instruments went forth to proclaim the new year's arrival. Those enjoying this occasion were Harold Sherer, Harold Beach, James Keller, Charles Wilcox, Raymond Miller, Ed Keller, Claud Wilcox, Water Rowell, Bernice Miller, Oscar Eskelson, Doris Wilcox, Eva Wilcox, Mary Slocum, Mae Geniry, Eva Padberg, Freda McMillan, Elsie Tucker, Ula McMillan, Helen Valentine.

Miss La Velle Leathers, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Goldie Leathers, left Saturday over the O.-W. R. & N. for Monmouth where they will make arrangements for Miss La Velle to enter the Normal school.

On Sunday Elmo McMillan, sophomore vocational education at Corvallis, brought to an end his vacation of a fortnight spent in Lexington. He returned to Corvallis by auto, accompanied by Dallas Ward and Glenn Shears.

J. E. Gentry and daughter Miss Maxine, assisted by Mrs. Sarah White, entertained a small number of friends Thursday evening in honor of the coming new year. While waiting for his arrival the time was passed with pleasant games and following a dainty lunch he was appropriately greeted by the guests who mingled Happy New Years with their goodnights.

Dan Rice is about again after being laid up at his home in this city for several days, suffering from an attack of la grippe.

Evangelist Ware at the Christian church is holding the interest of his hearers at every evening meeting. It is an inspiration to hear him.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wilcox was the scene of a delightful party on Thursday evening when twenty young Sunday school students gathered to watch our old year out and usher in the new. In a game of "Comic Shadows" prizes were awarded to Eva Padberg and Harold Sherer as having exhibited the best while Helen Valentine and James Keller came off winners in a "Candy Guessing Contest." Following an enjoyable feast the young people decked in fancy head dress and armed with many loud instruments went forth to proclaim the new year's arrival. Those enjoying this occasion were Harold Sherer, Harold Beach, James Keller, Charles Wilcox, Raymond Miller, Ed Keller, Claud Wilcox, Water Rowell, Bernice Miller, Oscar Eskelson, Doris Wilcox, Eva Wilcox, Mary Slocum, Mae Geniry, Eva Padberg, Freda McMillan, Elsie Tucker, Ula McMillan, Helen Valentine.

Miss La Velle Leathers, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Goldie Leathers, left Saturday over the O.-W. R. & N. for Monmouth where they will make arrangements for Miss La Velle to enter the Normal school.

On Sunday Elmo McMillan, sophomore vocational education at Corvallis, brought to an end his vacation of a fortnight spent in Lexington. He returned to Corvallis by auto, accompanied by Dallas Ward and Glenn Shears.

J. E. Gentry and daughter Miss Maxine, assisted by Mrs. Sarah White, entertained a small number of friends Thursday evening in honor of the coming new year. While waiting for his arrival the time was passed with pleasant games and following a dainty lunch he was appropriately greeted by the guests who mingled Happy New Years with their goodnights.

Dan Rice is about again after being laid up at his home in this city for several days, suffering from an attack of la grippe.

Evangelist Ware at the Christian church is holding the interest of his hearers at every evening meeting. It is an inspiration to hear him.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wilcox was the scene of a delightful party on Thursday evening when twenty young Sunday school students gathered to watch our old year out and usher in the new. In a game of "Comic Shadows" prizes were awarded to Eva Padberg and Harold Sherer as having exhibited the best while Helen Valentine and James Keller came off winners in a "Candy Guessing Contest." Following an enjoyable feast the young people decked in fancy head dress and armed with many loud instruments went forth to proclaim the new year's arrival. Those enjoying this occasion were Harold Sherer, Harold Beach, James Keller, Charles Wilcox, Raymond Miller, Ed Keller, Claud Wilcox, Water Rowell, Bernice Miller, Oscar Eskelson, Doris Wilcox, Eva Wilcox, Mary Slocum, Mae Geniry, Eva Padberg, Freda McMillan, Elsie Tucker, Ula McMillan, Helen Valentine.

Miss La Velle Leathers, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Goldie Leathers, left Saturday over the O.-W. R. & N. for Monmouth where they will make arrangements for Miss La Velle to enter the Normal school.

On Sunday Elmo McMillan, sophomore vocational education at Corvallis, brought to an end his vacation of a fortnight spent in Lexington. He returned to Corvallis by auto, accompanied by Dallas Ward and Glenn Shears.

J. E. Gentry and daughter Miss Maxine, assisted by Mrs. Sarah White, entertained a small number of friends Thursday evening in honor of the coming new year. While waiting for his arrival the time was passed with pleasant games and following a dainty lunch he was appropriately greeted by the guests who mingled Happy New Years with their goodnights.

Dan Rice is about again after being laid up at his home in this city for several days, suffering from an attack of la grippe.

Evangelist Ware at the Christian church is holding the interest of his hearers at every evening meeting. It is an inspiration to hear him.

TO HOLD JOINT INSTALLATION. The Oddfellows of Willow lodge No. 66 and the Rebekahs will hold joint installation of their newly elected officers at 1. O. O. F. hall on Wednesday evening, January 13, beginning promptly at 7:30. All Oddfellows and Rebekahs will be welcome. A banquet will also be served.

Mrs. Johnnie Kenny of Sand Hollow has been sick for several days this week at the Heppner surgical hospital, suffering from an attack of flu. She is reported to be better at this writing.

KNOWLEDGE

that the young and old alike need vitamins to assure growth and health emphasizes the usefulness and need of

Scott's Emulsion

of invigorating cod-liver oil. It is a rich, vitamin-activated food-tonic that promotes growth and builds strength to refresh the rundown system. Ask for Scott's Emulsion! Scott & Bowman, Bloomfield, N. J. 0-5

I WANT YOUR CATTLE & HOGS

I buy anything from one head to a carload, or more if you have 'em. Prices right, delivered at Heppner stock yards.

R. D. ALLSTOTT

Phone Main 753, Heppner, Ore.

It Pays To Feed

"O. K." feeds are made to produce results. That is what pays. Our feed gives as good results as others and costs less. It pays you to save. New prices effective January 1.

CORN—Whole, Cracked, Ground

Brown Warehouse Co.

WE DELIVER WITHIN CITY LIMITS.

Phones: Warehouse 643, Residence 644

OUR BOTTLED MILK IS A BIG HELP

in making delicious cakes, puddings, sauces, etc. It is rich in cream, and is whole milk thruout. It comes from the choicest of cows, maintained under sanitary conditions. It is always quality milk.

Alfalfa Lawn Dairy

WIGHTMAN BROS., Props.

When Dining Alone

one sometimes wants something just a little "different." Our menu is replete with choice foods, and we know how to prepare them.

We pride ourselves on our service and the cleanliness of our dining room and kitchen.

We invite inspection at any time.

ELKHORN RESTAURANT

ED CHINN, Prop.

EAT MORE HEALTH FOODS CEREALS LEAD

YOUR CHOICE FOR BREAKFAST

- KELLOGG'S: Puffed Wheat, Puffed Rice, Krumbles, Corn Flakes, All Bran, POSTS: Toasties, Bran, RALSTON'S: Health Bran, SPERRY'S: Corn Meal, Wheat Flakes, Pancake Flour, ALBERS': Flapjack Flour, Buckwheat Flour, Hominy Grit, H. O.: Quick Cooker, Steam Cooked Oats, Mother's Oats, Roman Meal, Shredded Wheat Biscuits, Swansdowne Cake Flour, Kerr's Oats, Quaker Oats

IF IT'S ANYTHING IN CEREALS— WE HAVE IT

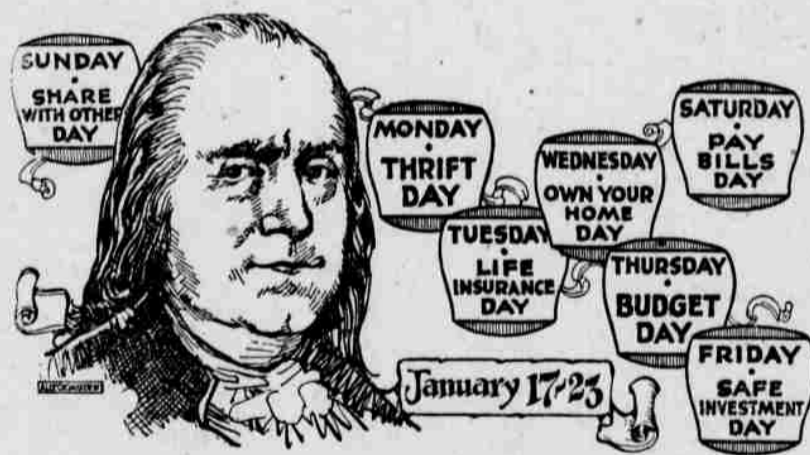

Malcolm D. Clark

January Sale

- Men's Overcoats, Men's Suits, Boys' Overcoats, Boys' Suits, Men's and Boys' Mackinaws, Ladies' Coats, Children's Coats

10 Per Cent Off

Thomson Brothers

Week After Next Thrift Week!

The strength of nations or individuals depends entirely upon the way they are organized to achieve things. Perhaps you do not yet know the full details of the "Thrift Week" movement which has developed into a national activity? Benjamin Franklin first taught it—so what is more fitting than the week of his birthday each year should be set aside for the furthering of the great principles of Thrift. Come in. Let us explain how you can benefit by joining in.

Ask us for Thrift Week information. We will tell you how others have achieved.

To make 1926 your Very best year get organized so the present will take care of the future.

First National Bank