

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HERBIM, Correspondent.

A group of the East End women entertained at a pleasant party on Wednesday afternoon of last week at the Mrs. Lee Mead home. About 30 ladies were in attendance. Mrs. L. C. Cooney was the inspiration of the party, having recently joined the ranks of motherhood via the adoption route. Since Miss Mary Maxine arrived fully clothed and with all the accoutrements of babyhood the usual stork showers was omitted and instead a beautiful Emerald blanket was presented to Mrs. Cooney by the ladies present. A clever rhyme written by Mrs. Mead was read as Mrs. Cooney who was much surprised, having had no idea that the party was given for her. The time was spent in making newspaper articles and some amazing results were obtained. Mrs. Humphrey received first prize for the best free hand cutting of a baby and Mrs. Lahmendorf and Mrs. Frank Cramer had the best looking newspaper dress made within a stated length of time. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, who were Mesdames Mead, King, C. S. Calkins, Ray Brown and A. T. Herxim.

When the epidemic had apparently subsided and it was thought there were no new cases of smallpox, three more fell victims to the scourge and school was closed and a ban placed on all public gatherings last Friday, by the health officer. One of the Root boys, Albert Boardman and Irma Broyles are the unfortunates. Most of the teachers returned to their homes, Mrs. Wilson going to Walla Walla, Miss Silver to Astoria and Miss Beougher to Albany. It is hoped that no more cases will develop.

Warner's motored to Pendleton twice last week, going up to see a physician about Mr. Warner who has been ill with Bright's disease. On Wednesday evening an interesting meeting was held at the church when about 25 men of the project were seated around the table and partook of a delicious dinner of which chicken and noodles was the piece d' resistance with salads, pie and coffee to help fill in. Rev. D. A. Thompson of Portland was the speaker of the evening and he based his talk on the home, school, church and obedience to the laws as the four pillars of life. Rev. Swogger was the toastmaster and toasts were responded to by several of Boardman's prominent men. Such occasions make for better harmony in the community and the men present rather enjoyed the novelty of a stray dinner as there are few of such affairs given here. Only enough women were present to serve the dinner. These were Mesdames Messenger, Johnson, Flickinger, Faler, Smith, Blayden and Klitz.

The Ladies Aid play, "Her Son's Sweetheart," which was scheduled for Saturday night had to be indefinitely postponed because of smallpox. John Hango of Hood River is visiting at the Chas. Hango home. Dewey Smith is convalescing after a serious operation for appendicitis in Portland. He and Mrs. Smith have been down there since about the first of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davis and R. S. Smith and wife attended the Masonic reception at Hermiston last Wednesday.

Mrs. A. A. Agce who has been suffering for some time with ulcerated teeth and also a gathering in the head, went to Hermiston Monday for treatment. Mrs. Agce came in from the wheat ranch Sunday.

Wilma Myers suffered a sprained ankle recently. It is painful but not serious.

Ivy Olson threw her ankle out of joint last week when her foot turned as she stepped off the bus as she reached home from school. It was extremely painful but she is recovering nicely.

The radius rod of Clarence Berger's car broke last Monday as he was returning from town. The car was broken, but fortunately Mr. Berger was not injured.

The Daugherty Bros. of Wells Springs who took the contract of clearing 400 acres for Chas. Marshall have given it up. Mr. Imas will finish the work, it is reported.

The Smith-Dugan baling outfit is working on Rock creek at present. Mr. Ballenger has a good many tons of hay there.

Mrs. A. B. Chaffee returned Thursday from Walthamville near Eugene, where she went to attend the funeral of her son-in-law, Harry Theneis who was killed in such a tragic manner recently.

The Wood family were released from quarantine Sunday. All four members of the family had the smallpox.

We do not know what the doctors of the present day think of cream of tartar as a means of prevention of smallpox, but a number of people here have been using it. According to the directions one should dissolve 1 oz. of cream of tartar in boiling water and drink it at frequent intervals when cold. At least it would do no harm to try. Vaccination is of course the safest and surest method of preventing and eventually eliminating the disease.

Of interest to local people was the meeting held last week at Pendleton of the Pendleton Presbytery. Steps toward the incorporation of the Presbytery were taken at this time. Dr. Bruce of Pendleton, Rev. Van Winkle of Pilot Rock, Rev. Swogger of Umatilla and Elder Fletcher of Pilot Rock were appointed to see about the incorporation. The pulpit at Stanfield was declared vacant. Rev. Schnable having been transferred to Illinois. Rev. Cornelison who has visited Boardman and is known to a great many here was granted permission to go elsewhere. He has been elected clerk of the Presbytery and Rev. Wilbur was chosen to succeed him. The Irrigan church no longer belongs to this Presbytery and the manse was ordered sold and the money derived will be used for the building of a parsonage at Umatilla.

The basketball paraphernalia has been moved from the Murchie building as the student body felt they could no longer afford to pay the rent since by the time the three weeks quarantine was over the basketball season would be closed.

N. L. Shaw, Clarks canyon wheat raiser, was doing business in the city on Saturday. Reporting for his section of the country, Mr. Shaw says that wheat is now coming along well and will be a normal stand. The ground is well wet and he expresses no fear for plenty of moisture to properly mature the crop.
