

Local Happenings

A. G. Devore, who was in the city for a short time Monday from his Rhea creek farm, states that there was a slight fall of snow out that way Sunday night, covering the ground to a depth of not more than a half inch. Jack states that so far this winter there has never been any more snow on the ground at any one time than this, yet plenty of moisture has come in the way of rain.

From the Condon Globe-Times we note that William Andrew Neel of Lone Rock and Mrs. Martha Jane Robison of Condon were married in that city on February 11, by Justice of the Peace W. A. Darling. Mrs. Robison was a former well known resident of the Eight Mile section in this county, and Mr. Neel is a pioneer stockman of Gilliam county and well known in this city.

Mrs. Anna Keithley of Pendleton spent several days in Heppner, visiting with friends and also making an official visit to the C. W. B. M. of the Christian church, which held a special meeting on Tuesday afternoon to hear what Mrs. Keithley had to say regarding the missionary work of the women in the district of Oregon, who which she is the secretary.

Riley Juday came up from Portland on Sunday for a short visit here. Mrs. Juday has been a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hughes, for a week, and Mr. Juday came up after her. They were accompanied to Portland Monday by Sam Hughes who will spend this week in the city looking after business matters.

Shelly Baldwin, who has been in the employ of the Peoples Hardware company of this city for the past two years, has resigned his position and will enter other lines of business. His place at the hardware company store is taken by Ed Bennett, who until the first of the year had been employed in the store of Pete Propheet.

Supreme in popularity among southeastern Washington showgoers and dancers for more than three years, Dorr and his cohorts are now on a triumphant Pacific coast tour under the personal direction of Edwin B. Rivers, owner of the Strand theater whose name they bear.

Harley Anderson returned Saturday from Portland where he has been spending a few weeks enjoying a visit with relatives. He also had a trip up the Willamette valley where he found everything pretty much covered with water.

Harold Cohn, Roger Morse, Paul Gemmill and Alva Jones were members of Heppner American Legion Post No. 87, who went to Arlington Saturday to take in the district conference of the Legion held there.

Ruth Chapter No. 32, Order Eastern Star will hold their regular meeting tomorrow, Friday, evening at Masonic hall. There will be degree work and a good attendance of the members is desired.

Mrs. Laura F. Adkins came down from Milton on Tuesday to look after her farm interests here. She returned home Wednesday afternoon, being well pleased with the condition of crops here.

Miss Alma Devin, student at the Monmouth normal, arrived at Heppner early Saturday morning for a short visit with the home folks. She returned to Monmouth on Monday.

Ruth Chapter No. 32, O. E. S., of this city, recently received a communication from the Worthy Grand Matron asking that the Chapter hold a benefit entertainment for the children's cottage now being built at the Masonic and Eastern Star home at Forest Grove. Plans to that end are now being formed and announcement of them will be made soon.

Striking new colors in Duco finish lend a new beauty to all enclosed models of the new improved Chevrolet: the coach in Bloomfield Gray, the coupe in Arizona gray, the sedan in a rich Algerian blue. The new Chevrolet model, a modish, aristocratic, smartly appointed landau sedan, is finished in Arizona gray Duco.

Burton H. Peck, of Sagenhurst Farm, Rhea creek, was doing business in the city Monday. He regrets that it was not possible for him to take in the recent wheatgrowers conference at Moro, but will make up for this by absorbing the material to be presented later when the printed reports of the meeting are distributed.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McDaniel of Hardman passed through the city on Thursday afternoon last on their way down to Boardman. They will find employment on the ranch of John Jenkins there during the lambing season, Mr. McDaniel helping with the sheep and Mrs. McDaniel assisting with the housework.

Spencer and Jasper Crawford returned home Sunday afternoon from their trip to Eugene where they took in the newspaper conference. Miss Mary Crawford, who accompanied them to Eugene, remained over at Portland for a visit of a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Clark are now the proud parents of twins, a boy and a girl, born to them at The Dalles on February 21st. Mother and babies are reported to be doing well, but Ed's recovery is somewhat doubtful.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shively have leased the N. Lawson place just west of Heppner and are moving there this week. Frank thinks he will enjoy farming on a small scale as an adjunct to the blacksmithing business.

Claiming to double on a larger number of instruments than any organization of its size in the Pacific northwest, Roy Dorr's Strand Band will be seen on the stage of the Star theater here Wednesday, March 3.

The American Legion auxiliary will hold their regular meeting on Monday evening at Hotel Heppner dining room. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Harold Cohn and Mrs. Spencer Crawford.

WANTED—Bids for plowing and harrowing 225 acres, 17 miles south of Ione. Or would hire teams and plows. Address Chas. M. Wagner, 485 1/2 Jefferson St., Portland, Ore.

Mrs. John Durham is visiting with her sons, Frank and Orval Rasmus and will spend a couple of weeks in the city. She arrived from her home at Salem on Sunday.

Dr. A. D. McMurdo has been spending several days in Portland this week, going down to the metropolis on Saturday. He took part in the big shoot there.

The improved Chevrolet is now being displayed in Heppner by the Ferguson Chevrolet Co., who ask you to visit their place of business and ask for a ride.

BABY CHICKS—1926 baby chicks, from 2-year-old hens, free from disease, that averaged 210 eggs apiece in their pullet year; mated to cockerels direct from Tanager Farm, sired by 360-egg cockerels. H. E. Colby, O. A. C. poultry specialist, recommends flock and farm. $15 per 100 or $135 per 1000. 500 order takes 1900 rate. Write for May and June prices. Moira Poultry Farm, Gerald A. White, manager, Lexington, Ore. Seed eggs for sale. Brown Warehouse Company.

The American Legion announces that they will give a ball on the night of St. Patrick's day, March 17, and the people of the community may look forward to one of the best events of the season.

Strayed from forks of Willow creek 1 bay and 1 brown mule, each with the brand of wineglass and C on right shoulder; coming three-year-olds; left pasture about Christmas. H. E. COOL, Ione, Ore.

LISTEN—As I am leaving, I am offering my boarding house for sale. This is a good place for man and wife, or two parties. Price reasonable. MRS. T. W. RIPPEE.

WANTED—10-gal. cream cans in good condition. Will pay $2 apiece for such cans delivered at my farm at Lexington. Moira Poultry Farm, Gerald White, manager.

FOR RENT—Sheep range that will be good by April 15th. Good place to shear, 2 miles from R. R. station. Address S. C. Goff, Minam, Oregon.

W. P. Mahoney was in Pendleton on Saturday to attend a meeting of the executive committee of the Oregon Wool Growers' association.

C. H. Latourell was in Portland for a couple of days the first of the week. He was a contender in the scatter gun shoot there.

Their engagement at the Star theater on Wednesday promises to be one of the musical treats of the season in this city.

Mrs. L. E. Bisbee departed for Portland Monday and will spend a fortnight in the city enjoying a visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ayers motored to Portland the end of the week to spend a few days in the city.

NOTICE.
The Willing Workers are prepared to do plain sewing, tack comforts, sew carpet rags, etc., at reasonable prices. See Mrs. Jeff Jones for further information.

NOTICE.
All persons holding notes or accounts against Matt T. Hughes, please mail statement of their claim to J. B. Perry, Box 498, Pendleton, Oregon.

LOST—A black ring necked dog. Reward. Notify Ralph Thompson, Heppner.

A second-hand cream separator at Case Furniture Co. exchange department.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.
Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed as administratrix of the Estate of Andrew Rood, Jr., deceased, by the County Court of the State of Oregon for Morrow County, and that she has qualified as such by filing her bond and oath of office. All persons having claims against said estate must present them to me, duly verified as required by law, at the office of C. L. Sweek, attorney at law, in Heppner, Oregon, on or before six months from the date of first publication of this notice.
Date of first publication February 18, 1926.
FRANCES W. ROOD, Administratrix.

Holeproof

Late Arrivals in Latest Shades for Women.
Shadow, Daybreak, Blush, Mauve, Taupe, Atmosphere, Gun Metal, $1.00, $1.50, $1.65
Famous for beauty, famous for durability. The most economical hosiery you can buy.

FOR WOMEN
French Nude, Sunburn, Champagne, Satin Blonde, Air-dale, Sandalwood, Grain, Nouveau Beige, as well as standard colors in silk, lisle and mixtures.
$1 — $1.50 — $1.65
Special bargain on $2.50 hose at $1 a pair.

FOR MEN
MEN'S DRESS SOX—Fine worsted over lisle, drop stitch, fancy. Colors of camel blue and blue-patterned. New Style 75c a pair.

PURE CANE SUGAR $6.95 THE SACK

Sam Hughes Co.
Phone 962 Heppner, Ore.

Albers stands for Better Breakfasts!
FLAPJACKS and syrup! What a sunny start for the day! And there's one thing sure about Flapjacks—they're always tender, never soggy; always light and easy-to-eat! At your grocer's—in the handy round carton with the replaceable lid!

Another Car Just Arrived

Olympic Flour

49, 24 1-2 and 10 lb. sacks

White Down Flour

in 49-lb. sacks

Also: Graham, Whole Wheat and Rye Flour, Corn Meal, Farina, Rolled Oats and Pan Cake Flour.

Phelps Grocery Company
PHONE 53

Here's a Message

that means money to every user of stock and poultry feeds.

"O.K." COWFEED and "O.K." POULTRY FEED have the quality. One trial will convince you.
CORN — RYE — BARLEY
Brown Warehouse Co.
WE DELIVER WITHIN CITY LIMITS.
Phones: Warehouse 643, Residence 644

Central Market

C. W. McNAMER, Proprietor
FRESH AND CURED MEATS, FISH AND POULTRY
Call us when you have anything in our line to sell.
Phone Main 652

Heppner Gazette Times, Only $2.00 Per Year

Fresh FLOWERS all summer!

WHY not enjoy the beauty and fragrance of annual garden flowers every month of summer and right up to frost? Some grow high for backgrounds, others of medium height for beds, others dwarf for borders—many with long stems suitable for cutting—and such a wide range of delightful colorings! In the Northrup, King & Co.'s packet seed collection there are 40 varieties selling at 5c—22 varieties at 10c. No better flower seeds are sold at any price.

At Local Dealers

NORTHROP, KING & Co's SEEDS
MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

Your Order

Send it Here and SAVE!

- Specials
Fancy Raspberry Preserves, Reg. 40c, Now 25c
Solid Pack Tomatoes20c
12-oz. Jar Orange Marmalade30c
Strained Honey $1.60 gallon
Onion Sets 12c lb.

Every Article Is Pure and Fresh

EXTRA SPECIAL! I have contracted for a limited amount of No. 1, Inspected, Netted Gem Seed Potatoes. I will be able to sell these at 4c per pound f. o. b. the store. Phone or write your order as they are going fast at this low price.

Fresh Vegetables at All Times
Cash & Carry Grocery
JOHNNY HIATT, Prop. Phone Main 1074