

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HEREIM, Correspondent.

Mrs. Merle Mulkey returned home Sunday from Portland and on Monday resumed her school work as 7th and 8th grades teacher. Mrs. Mulkey was one of the unfortunates who suffered what was apparently an infection from her vaccination. She was quite ill for a time. She did not have mumps as was rumored.

April 3 is the date set for the benefit dance which Smith & Duggan are giving for Earl Olson who was seriously injured in a hay press some time ago. Earl's arm is healing nicely but he still makes frequent trips to the doctor at Pendleton.

Mrs. Andrew Koski was much pleased to have her former pastor, Rev. J. Wananen and wife, now of Portland but formerly of Jersey City, make a short visit. It has been 17 years since Mrs. Koski had seen them. Rev. Wananen was Congregational minister at Jersey City but is now located at Portland. Mr. Taalus accompanied Rev. and Mrs. Wananen. They were on their way to Portland after spending a few days in Pendleton where they held meetings for the Finnish people.

Boardman is rejoicing, and it is hoped that the rejoicing is not premature, because the smallest epidemic is ended. Nearly all of the quarantines were lifted Sunday. The Wicklanders, Messengers and Hoffmans were released from smallpox quarantine and the Davises and Boardmans from the mumps. The siege has lasted for two months with first one and then another new case appearing and it has been a long and expensive affair. Five weeks of school were lost and it will be a difficult matter for the pupils to make up the lost time, and it is to be hoped that where pupils fail to make their grades parents will understand that it was due to unusual conditions and not criticize the teachers.

Ralph Davis has resumed his position at the telegraph key after an unexpected and unwelcome vacation. Mumps!

J. C. Ballenger and family were Portland visitors this week.

One of M. K. Flickinger's cows was sick last week so he called the veterinarian from Hermiston. Paul Smith lost one of his horses and Myers & Kunzie have both had sick horses.

Boardman is to have electric lights at last. The poles have been placed, the wires strung and a representative from the Feenaughty Machinery Co. from whom the plant was purchased, was to come and turn on the "juice." A number of the houses have been wired and it is thought that eventually nearly all will connect.

Mrs. Lillian Cochran was in Boardman Sunday and Monday in the interests of the Juvenile Hospital for Girls in Portland. This is a home for unfortunate girls and Mrs. Cochran was here soliciting funds for the institution.

Frank Cramer was called to Portland Friday because of the serious illness of Mrs. Earl Cramer who suffered a nervous breakdown. He returned Sunday and brought his grandson Basil with him. Basil entered school here. Mrs. Earl Cramer is reported to be greatly improved. Bob Nickerson who has been working on the island, moved to Pendleton with his family on Monday.

Shirley Hendricks is spending a few days with Kathleen Marshall.

Chas. Knowlton and family of Portland motored up Saturday and visited at the W. H. Mefford home, returning on Sunday.

Elder Watkins of Hermiston held services in the Adventist church. He was an overnight guest at the Ves Attebury home.

One of Adolph Skoubo's ewes gave birth to a lamb weighing 15 pounds, recently. Can any sheep man beat that for size?

At Mefford, who has had charge of the Latourell garage for the past several months, has quit his post. This garage is a fine hollow tile building but Mr. Latourell seems to have difficulty keeping it in operation. There should be almost enough business for two garages here, it would seem.

Helen Mead returned to The Dalles Monday where she is staying with her grandmother and attending school. She spent the week end with her parents.

Mrs. Geo. Mefford and children of Portland are spending the week at the W. H. Mefford home.

Ray Brown and family spent the week end at Walla Walla visiting relatives.

Mrs. S. H. Boardman, who was elected as a delegate from the local church to the Women's Presbyterial which meets this year at Parkdale, left on Monday to attend the sessions. Mrs. Boardman was selected a member of the nominating committee for this year at the Presbyterial meeting last year at Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hayse and Eleanor and Mrs. Olive M. Wilson motored to Pendleton on Saturday.

Sam Shell, a well known resident of Boardman, passed away on Friday, March 19, at Hermiston, Ore., after a serious illness with pneumonia. He was taken to Hermiston about the middle of February that he might have better medical attention and every care was given him but because of his advanced age he could not overcome the ravages of the disease. Funeral services were held Sunday at the community church at Umatilla and the building was filled to capacity.

Mr. Shell was an ardent member of the Grange and this organization had charge of the funeral services. The pall bearers were officers of Greenfield Grange, Messrs. Walter Knauff, L. V. Root, Chas. Nizer, D. Ransier Lee Mead and W. A. Goodwin. Chas. Wicklander, master of the grange, was in charge of the services and C. H. Beardsley acted as chaplain. The grange members wore their badges and marched to the cemetery in a body. Dorothy Boardman, Gladys Hoffman, Mrs. Chas. Goodwin and Caroline Hunt sang several selections with Mrs. Wicklander at the piano. A widow is left to mourn Mr. Shell's passing besides a number of distant relatives. Mrs. Shell will remain at the McFarland home in Umatilla for the present. Her brother, M. J. Short of Yakima attended the funeral.

THE FLASHLIGHT

Published Weekly by Hardman Union High School.

The Irish spirited program given by the Hardman schools in the high school auditorium last Saturday evening was attended by a large crowd. Because of sickness a great many changes had to be made practically the last minute. However, the pupils were willing, and with the untiring efforts of the teachers, helped make the program a success. The grade and high schools wish to take this opportunity to express their appreciation of the support given them by the community.

W. W. Head of Ione will preach in Hardman Friday evening. Everybody is invited.

Rev. Edwards of Walla Walla came to Hardman Saturday. Preaching services were held Sunday morning and evening.

Alvin McCarty, who was reported last week to have accepted a job with the road crew, is now working for Floyd Adams. The report was a mistake.

The Hardman teachers will visit the classes of Heppner, Ione or Lexington schools Monday, the 29th, as requested by the county school superintendent.

The dance following the program Saturday night was well attended. Many of the surveyors from the road camp on the Steers place attended the entertainment and dance Saturday.

Harlan Adams expects to go to work soon for Fred Ashbaugh.
