Good rains are general again over the county and the wheat fields and ranges are receiving a good wetting. So far the grain fields never presented a finer appearance in most parts of the county, and with seasonable showers the yield should be abundant. Fruit trees are practically in full bloom, being about a month ahead of usual and we hope not soon that they may be nipped by the April frosts. However, as this has been a season when the expected has not happened so far, we may look for April to be a pleasant month and free from killing frosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodman of Portland, parents of D. T. Goodman of this city, are expected to arrive in Heppner the end of the week for a visit at the Goodman home. Mrs. D. T. Goodman is reported to be progressing nicely at the Morrow General hospital, after a serious illness.
