

COUNTY COURT HAS SESSION FOR APRIL

Court met on April 7 and 8, 1926, in regular session at the Court House in Heppner, Oregon with all officers present, when were had the following proceedings, to-wit:

Court read the viewers' report and referred the same to the District Attorney in the following petitions for roads, viz: H. Smith, Oscar Otto, N. A. Clark and Arthur Yergens.

The resolution of the Court to vacate a part of a county road near the C. H. Bartholomew ranch was approved and said vacation granted.

The Court agreed to subscribe the sum of $250.00 towards the building of the Juvenile Hospital for Girls which is being sponsored by the Louise Home.

A resolution was entered into to use $75,000 in the building of the Heppner-Spray road, and agreed to cooperate with the Federal government in the completion of the work through the Forest Reserve.

The sum of $5000 was transferred from the General Fund to the Interest Fund in order to meet the interest coming due on the bonds which have been sold.

Court ordered a block of road bonds in the sum of $120,000 to be sold and a date for the sale will be made later.

Court approved and ordered the following bills to be paid, viz:

LEXINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Cox are the proud grandparents of a daughter, Barbara Joan, born recently to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Schriver at Kings Valley, Ore.

When Karl Beach made his usual fortnightly drive to Walla Walla on Saturday he was accompanied by Mrs. Florence Beach. They returned Monday from a pleasant stay with Mrs. Karl Beach and the boys.

Geo. Peck had the misfortune last week to lose by fire sixty small chicks, also his chicken house. Mr. Peck plans to rebuild the house at once.

Mrs. James Cox of Walla Walla who makes and sells hair-goods was calling on Lexington customers during the fore part of the week. Mrs. Cox visits Lexington, Heppner, and Ione once in two years.

Mrs. M. D. Tucker arrived by rail on Monday from Portland for a stay with her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Eph Geiger and children from Ione who attended services at Congregational church on Sunday morning were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Lewis. Mr. Geiger is in charge of blasting being done on Morrow county roads.

Mrs. Della Matlock with her small children returned last week to Bend. Mrs. Matlock spent several weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Wright.

Mrs. Florence Beach arrived on Thursday of last week to reside in Lexington during our spring and summer. Mrs. Beach spent the winter with her sister, Mrs. V. Raymond, in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Del Walke and son, Warren, have gone to the Heppner mountains where they expect to try camp life. Mrs. Walker hopes that the change will benefit her health.

Reub. Valley drove down by truck Monday to assist Mr. Walker in the transfer of a camping outfit.

When Mrs. Maude Pointer returned to Salem last week she was accompanied by her father, T. W. Cutsforth, who expects that a change will benefit his health. Mr. Cutsforth was recovering from an attack of flu.

Mrs. W. O. Hill and daughter, Lucille, are at home after a visit among Portland relatives. During Mrs. Hill's stay in Portland her young nephew, Dean Littlell, suffered a severe attack of pneumonia. Friends here are glad to know that Mrs. Hill left Dean well on the way to recovery.

Mrs. Ed Burchell was called to Spokane by the death of her grandmother, Mrs. Reaney. Mrs. Reaney had previously visited Mrs. Burchell at Lexington and while here made many friends.

Mrs. Geo. Allyn's Sabbath school class of the Congregational church is rehearsing for a play to be presented on the evening of April 23 in the Lexington school auditorium. Proceeds from the play will be added to a fund which goes to Near East Relief.

Cast of characters for "All A Mistake":

Captain Obadiah Skinner, retired sea captain James Keller
 Lieut. George Richmond, his nephew Marion Palmer
 Richard Hamilton, a country gentleman Elmer Palmer
 Ferdinand Lighthouse, a neighbor Raymond Miller
 Nellie Richmond, George's wife, Dorris Wilcox
 Nellie Huntington, a friend,
 Mary Slocum
 Cornelia (Nellie) Skinner, Obadiah's sister Erma Duvall
 Nellie McIntyre, a servant
 Eva Padberg
 Helen Valentine and Mae Gentry will assist with music during the play and also between acts.

Mrs. Breshears, our local postmistress, was called to Walla Walla on Friday by the death of her mother, Mrs. Anna Wright. Mrs. Wright was a former resident of Lexington. The funeral services were held from the Catholic church in Walla Walla on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Wright was an aunt of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Burchell.

APRIL

Scent of blossoms in the air;
 Birds a-singing everywhere;
 Gardens greening in long straight rows;
 Showers falling—
 And bright rainbows.

Breath of Springtime, sweet and rare;
 Flowers a-peeping, here and there.
 Wheat fields growing in broad expanse;
 Sunshine dancing—
 Warm days advance.

Distant hill-tops, wondrous fair;
 Winds a-breathing, from some hidden lair.
 Clouds threatening, in deep blue mass;
 April smiling—
 Clouds all pass. —S. S. S.

VACATION TALKS FEATURE.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, April 12.—A series of radio vacation talks designed to acquaint the people of Oregon with the beauties and wonders of their own state will be broadcast weekly on Wednesday nights from station KOAC from now until June 15.

Cooperating with the college departments of botany, zoology, and geology and the school of forestry in the preparation of these talks will be the United States Forest service, the state game commission, and the United States Biological survey. The talks will be on such subjects as "The Trees of Oregon," "Birds as Neighbors," "Oregon Mammals," "Oregon's Mountain Peaks," "The Game Fish of Oregon," and "Oregon Waterfalls."

Notice to Horse Owners—I will take up any horses running at large on the Parkers Mill range this spring and summer, and hold for damages. FRANK WILKINSON, 2tp.

Western Harvester Co. has been formed by Caterpillar Tractor Co. to continue the manufacture of world-famous "Holt" Combined Harvesters and parts.

Take Your Harvesting Problems to the Dealer Who Sells the

"HOLT" COMBINED HARVESTER

Correct design, highest manufacturing standards and dealer organization combine to insure satisfaction and success.

Ask about new reduced prices of Harvesters and parts, new catalog, and name of your dealer.

NO MATTER what your grain harvesting problems, your Western Harvester Co. dealer will gladly help you solve them.

He knows harvesters—that is why he sells the "Holt." He knows it is a finely-engineered piece of machinery, built to last... to do good work at lowest cost per acre, per bushel or per day.

A Combined Harvester such as the "Holt" naturally attracts dealers of the same high grade as the machine itself. This means much to the buyer. It means responsibility. It means intelligent advice. It means good service. It means a real interest in the purchaser's success and satisfaction.

The "Holt" saves grain, time and labor. One trip over the field and the grain grower's harvesting is done. There is a "Holt" of the right size and type for your work—anticipate the harvest season by seeing your "Holt" dealer at the first opportunity!

how does your friend see your home?

Little beginnings of dilapidation come gradually—they are soon a part of familiar surroundings—not noticed.

But the friends coming in—they see everything. And what do you want them to see?

Cracks, scratches, stains, gapping and rotting woodwork—Or fresh smooth surfaces—trim repair?

Examine your home now.

Then drop into a Rasmussen Paint store for help in choosing colors, and deciding costs.

You make no mistake in selecting Rasmussen Paints and Varnishes. Ready mixed paints of pure white lead and zinc and other tested ingredients, in carefully proved proportions, doubly-ground in pure linseed oil, make smooth, opaque, weather-tight, beautiful surfaces.

Varnishes, clear or stained, made of the best materials in the Northwest's foremost varnish plant.

Whatever your needs, there is a Rasmussen Paint or Varnish for every purpose.
