

GOVERNOR SUPPORTS JUVENILE HOSPITAL

(By Gertrude P. Corbett, Publicity Chairman.)

Members of the State Board of Control—Governor Pierce, State Secretary Koser, State Treasurer Kay and Secretary of the Board, Carl Abrams, visited the Juvenile Hospital for Girls Thursday and expressed delight and satisfaction at the work so far accomplished. Mrs. R. E. Bondurant, campaign manager and chairman of the building committee, escorted the officials through the building, and explained where the $60,000 for which a state-wide drive is being waged, will be expended.

The governor said he had vetoed many bills in the last legislature but "I'm glad I did not veto this one for $17,500. The money has been wisely spent and instead of the amount appropriated by the legislature, it looks as though $50,000 were in the hospital."

The board expressed the hope that every county would get in line immediately and help complete the state-wide drive for $60,000 necessary to complete the hospital, as its need is imperative.

The hospital is an expansion of the Louise Home, which is inadequate to combat the disease prevalent among young girls and children who come from every part of the state.

Many pathetic cases are related by officials of the home, and the gratitude of those girls restored to a place in the social system is touching. A recent case, cured, is that of a 5-year-old victim of men in a rooming house. Her mother was away at work. The child is now in the care of foster parents. Another case of recent date is that of a 17-year-old girl, whose baby was born feeble-minded; the little mother was treated and cured, but the tragedy was to see her leaving the hospital with her wee bundle of humanity bound for the state hospital.

These are convincing evidences of the need of a modern hospital where unfortunate girls may receive proper care and education to prevent a spread of the disease.

In the year just ended, reports show that the hospital cured 442 girls and 430 babies. Outside of Multnomah county, the greatest number of babies belong to Lane, Polk, Marion and Clackamas counties. Wasco and Clatsop sent the greatest number of diseased girls.

The new hospital will be properly equipped with surgery, obstetrical ward, beds for 50 patients, classrooms for school and commercial work so that girls may be taught to be self-supporting while building up their health.

Field workers in the counties through the state send encouraging reports of their efforts, and the Pacific Protective Society hopes every county will raise its quota prior to April 15 when Multnomah county drive will open in Portland for $25,000. A number of counties already have gone over the top, others will be visited soon.

Campaign headquarters, 708 Dekum Building, Portland, Mrs. R. E. Bondurant, manager, will also receive contributions for the hospital.

Star Theater

THURSDAY and FRIDAY, April 15 and 16

"THE RAINBOW TRAIL"

The sequel to "Riders of the Purple Sage." When Zane Gray writes pulse-quickening tales of the west, readers lose themselves in the swift events that leap from the page to burn in their imaginations. The vivid quality of his writings is even more striking in this screen presentation of "The Rainbow Trail," starring Tom Mix. Tony, the horse you have admired so often, is in the picture with Tom.

Also Josie Sedgwick in "DYNAMITE'S DAUGHTER" and the 9th episode of "THE FAST EXPRESS."

SATURDAY, APRIL 17:

WILLIAM DESMOND in "THE BURNING TRAIL"

A whirlwind of thrills, a tempest of rapid-fire action. Wm. Desmond in an invigorating out-door picture.

Also "TONS OF TROUBLE," two reel comedy.

SUNDAY and MONDAY, APRIL 18 & 19:

PAULINE STARKE and CONRAD NAGLE in "SUN UP"

Here is a great love story in pictures, staged in the wild Carolina hills. As stirring a tale of mountain feuds, primitive passions and glorious romance as ever touched your heart.

IT'S REAL! IT'S HUMAN! IT'S GREAT! A picture with a thrilling human message.

Also "EDUCATING BUSTER," a two reel comedy, adapted from the Buster Brown cartoons. You'll probably like it as well as "The Gang."

TUES. and WEDS., APRIL 20 and 21:

DOROTHY DEVORE and CULLEN LANDIS in "THE BROADWAY BUTTERFLY"

The successes and failures behind the realm of the foot-lights. The story of a timid little girl who stormed Broadway's theatrical forces.

Also comedy, "THE PARTY."

NEXT WEEK:
Clair Windsor and Lloyd Hughes in "The Dixie Handicap."
Hoet Gibson in "HIT AND RUN."
Lillian Gish in "ROMOLA."
Merle Prevost and Monte Blue in "The Love of Camille."
