

LEXINGTON

J. F. Lucas accompanied our high school baseball team on Saturday to Condon where our boys met defeat by a score of 14 to 4.

Friday evening in Lexington auditorium "All A Mistake" will be presented by Mrs. Geo. Allyn's class of the Congregational church. These young people have put forth their best efforts in behalf of a worthy cause (Near East Relief) and deserve hearty support.

On Monday evening Lexington grades and high school will hold a try-out to determine those students who will represent Lexington in the oratorical contest to be held by the schools of Morrow county at Heppner early in May.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Munkers and son Riley enjoyed Sunday afternoon in Heppner.

A representative from Webbers, tailors and cleaners of The Dalles was doing business in Lexington on Monday. Carl Allyn is their local agent. Mr. and Mrs. W. Blakely and children, S. P. Blakely from Twisp, Wn., and Mrs. Sadie Lewis enjoyed Monday afternoon seeing some fine wheat on ranches to the west of Lexington. They made a pleasant stop at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Cox.

Principal Fred Kelly, accompanied by his corps of teachers, spent an entire day on Thursday visiting the schools of Heppner. Each teacher observed work being done in the particular grade or class to which he is assigned. Lexington teachers expressed themselves as having spent a pleasant and profitable day.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Blakely had as their guests last week J. B. Blaes, Mrs. Blakely's father, from Paterson, Wash., and S. P. Blakely, a brother from Twisp, Wash. On Thursday they composed a family party by auto to Plymouth, Wash., where Mr. Blaes remained. S. P. Blakely returned with his brother and family to Lexington for a continued visit.

C. M. Shinn, district manager of the Allan B. Kirk company, was a visitor in Lexington last week. He enjoyed a visit with his old time friends, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Slocum.

W. A. Wirtz, Tum-A-Lum auditor, Walla Walla, inspected the local yard on Friday. Vernon Lorenzen, who was employed last summer at the Venturi garage, writes to his friends here from Helix that during a recent influenza epidemic his home was saddened by the loss of a sister, a high school girl. Vernon made a number of friends here, in particular among Lexington's young people, who sympathize with him in his loss.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hendrix motored up from Astoria Monday. They are stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Galey Johnson. Mr. Hendrix is a brother of Mrs. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Miller drove to Heppner Monday, where Mrs. Miller is being treated for rheumatism. Mrs. E. G. Slocum entertained last week her brother, Marcus Morgan, from Arlington. Together they visited their old home place in the mountains and spent some happy hours recalling days gone by.

Miss Wilma Leach, Corvallis student, is spending a few days at home in Lexington.

Mrs. Louis Frederickson, who with Mr. Frederickson and small son left during August of last year to reside in Irrigon, is finishing a term of school in the Llewellyn district near Ione.

Mrs. Ola Ward has returned from a visit with her daughter, Miss Velle, at Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Munkers with their three children, Vernon, Archie and Leonard, arrived by auto from Salem on Monday afternoon. They will return to Salem after a short stay at the Munkers ranch near town.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Beymer and daughters Audrey and Wilma drove down from Hinton creek on Saturday for an all day visit at the home of Mrs. Beymer's mother, Grandma Rooper.

Neva, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Warner, is quite ill at her ranch home with influenza.

The members of Mrs. W. O. Hill's Bible school class enjoyed a social afternoon in the Christian church guild rooms on Saturday. These students, who are Neva Warner, Irma Lane, Delpha Merritt, Ora Anderson, Naomi McMillan, Annabel Stroutman and Lorna Patton, under the direction of Mrs. Hill plan and carry out at various times a number of affairs delightful to young girls. Also, they make an effort to be prompt and regular in attendance at Bible school.

THE FLASHLIGHT

Published Weekly by Hardman Union High School.

The senior English class is studying McCaulay's Essay on Lord Clive. Rehearsals of the first and third acts of "Her Honor, the Mayor" are taking place this week. The play is interesting and the cast enjoys the work.

Scott Furlong who is working near Heppner for Baratt's visited his family the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Chapel moved to their mountain ranch last Sunday. The young people of Hardman gave a party last Saturday evening. All present reported an enjoyable evening.

Sheep raising in the mountains is proving very successful, according to Mr. French whose ranch is located near Burton valley. Lambing season started there last week. He has 230 ewes and reports having 243 lambs by the middle of last week. There are ten ewes yet to have lambs. This indicates that by the time the season is over the percentage will be very high.

Several Indians from the Columbia came to Hardman last week end. "Young Hardman" was so interested in watching these visitors Sunday morning that it forgot Sunday school.

Mr. W. L. Lowen of Fossil was a visitor in Hardman Monday. Excitement ran high in Hardman this week for Pomona Grange. The Jones children have returned to school after a long siege of whooping cough.

While school was closed last week, Lily Yergen visited her aunt at Meacham.

The high school play has been postponed to Saturday, May 1. Mrs. Chas. Steward and Mrs. Retta Allen drove to Condon Sunday in Mrs. Allen's Hippmobile.

More improvements—Yergen and Glasgow, local landscape gardeners, set out a number of trees on the school grounds. A thing of beauty is a joy forever.

A new ailment was discovered here recently. It has been called "Exaggeritis." Quite contagious they say.

NOTICE OF FINAL ACCOUNT. Notice is hereby given that W. P. Mahoney, administrator of the estate of John Sheridan, deceased, has filed his final account with the Clerk of the County Court of Morrow County, State of Oregon, and that the said Court has set as the time and place for the hearing of objections to said account and the settlement thereof, Tuesday, May 11, 1926, at the hour of ten o'clock A. M. of said day, at the Court room of the said Court in Morrow County, Oregon. Anyone having objections to said account must file them on or before said date.

W. P. MAHONEY, Administrator.

IRRIGON

The return game of baseball between Irrigon and Umattilla will be played there Friday afternoon.

For the school band to make three public appearances in five days is quite a record. The boys played at Pomona Grange meeting at Stanfield on Thursday; for Hermiston baseball game Sunday; and for movies at Boardman Tuesday of this week.

The regular monthly meeting of the Grange took place on Wednesday evening.

The H. E. C. will give a social on Saturday night this week.

The young people of our city attended a party at the Manse on Saturday evening. Refreshments were served and everybody had a splendid time.

Ralph Benefiel made a trip to Walla Walla recently.

Miss Rachel Barker, who has been visiting her uncle Cy, has returned to her home at Meacham.

Melon planting is all the fashion here at present. Perhaps as much as sixty acres will be planted.

Miss Anna Schachermeyer of Umattilla called on friends here Monday.

The school girls are giving a play on Saturday, May 1st. There will be special music and a general good time, all for the small sum of two-bits.

(Too late for last week).

Mrs. A. Lamoreaux left for Vernonia Sunday where she will visit with one of her sons for several weeks.

Chas. Benefiel spent last week on business at Walla Walla.

Cy Barker's father and sister of Meacham are visiting him this week. Mr. Riels returned from La Grande where for some time he has been having his eyes treated.

Tom Jones has returned from a trip to Kentucky and he reports a fine time.

The school band played several selections at Stanfield on Thursday of this week for Pomona Grange.

The Jones children have returned to school after a long siege of whooping cough.

While school was closed last week, Lily Yergen visited her aunt at Meacham.

The high school play has been postponed to Saturday, May 1. Mrs. Chas. Steward and Mrs. Retta Allen drove to Condon Sunday in Mrs. Allen's Hippmobile.
