Grand Jury Met Monday; Will Finish Tomorrow

The grand jury has been busy this week preparing the criminal docket for the May term of circuit court. Convening Monday they have had a hectic time disposing of the large number of cases presented before them, from rumors leaking out of their chambers, but it is expected they will make their report tomor-row morning. Hon. Gilbert W. Phelps, circuit judge, will arrive in Heppner today and will immediately call circuit court into session, to dispose of essary before handling the grand jury

Members of the gand jury are J. O. Turner, Arthur Parker, Frank Monahan, Jeff Jones, E. C. Helliker, E. H. Turner and Arthur Yergen.

"North of Nome" to be Shown Here May 11th

On Tuesday, May 11th, a novel and intensely interesting program will be given at the Star Theater, when Geo. Edward Lewis, producer of Alaskan feature pictures, and his driector, Raymond K. Johnston, will be in Heppner with his greatest production, "North of Nome," stopping over one night and exhibiting his picture. He will have with him his two famous Wolf Dogs, Nome and Kobuck, who were actors in his picture. Mr. Lewis is an Alaskan pioneer, but has made Oregon his home for a number of years, is a lecturer and writer of note and an authority on Alaskan affairs. He was a personal friend of the late Jack London, an associate of Rex Beach, Robert Service and Tex Rickard. With Scotty Allen he organized the Nome Kennel club, which gave birth to the "All Alaskan Sweepstakes Race," which has been pronounced the greatest sporting event ever staged North of 53. The few minutes that he addresses the audience preceding his production will be relished by every-body.
