

LEXINGTON

Early Monday morning the news came to Lexington that Mrs. M. D. Tucker, well known former resident of this city, had been called by death about eleven o'clock Sunday evening at her home, Gladstone, Ore. The word came in a phone message to Mrs. Tucker's daughter, Mrs. Arthur Hunt, who left immediately by auto for Arlington and from thence by rail to Gladstone.

But a short time ago, Mrs. Tucker had spent some two weeks in Lexington at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hunt and had mingled pleasantly among her many friends and acquaintances who received with a shock the word of her passing. The message to Mrs. Hunt stated that Mrs. Tucker had been in her usual health and so quickly did the end come that members of the family scarcely realized her illness. She leaves to mourn less her husband, two sons, George and Sherman Tucker, who live at Gladstone, Oregon City and near Portland, two daughters, Mrs. Arthur Hunt of Lexington and Mrs. Elsie Connor of Grandview, Wash. Lexington extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

A. M. Edwards and Cletus Nichols are at home for a time after doing some strenuous work at well drilling in the wilds of Idaho. Mr. Edwards relates that they were engaged at a distance so far above sea level that at times they found it very difficult to breathe. They are glad to be again in the home atmosphere.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Peiper are the proud parents of an eight pound son born to them at the Wilcox Memorial Home, Portland, on Wednesday, May 19th.

Gerald White was a business visitor in Pendleton Tuesday.

Miss Kathleen Slocum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Slocum, is a member of the class which will graduate in June from The Dalles hospital. Upon graduation Miss Slocum will accept a position at the hospital. Miss Mary Slocum is spending some days with Miss Kathleen at The Dalles.

Lawrence Beach who has finished his second year at Whitman returned with his father Karl Beach on Monday from Walla Walla. Lawrence will assist in his father's business during the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Warner and children, Grandma McMillan and Mrs. Geo. Broadley left by auto on Thursday of last week for Elk River, Idaho, where they will spend some time among relatives.

Albert Adkins was a business visitor in town from Heppner on Thursday last.

Mrs. Ray Young and children are enjoying a stay with Mrs. Young's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Cox. Mr. Young drove with his family down from Pendleton on Friday and returned Saturday of last week.

Oral Henriksen who has been in the vicinity of Lexington from La Grande for the haying season was a business caller on our townspeople during several days of the week past.

A recent issue of the Oregon Journal showed the likeness of Dallas Ward in a group of O. A. C. prize winners. Young Ward holds the junior Johnson scholarship, and also in the same issue of the Journal appears the likeness of Miss Wilma Leach, as a pledge to Phi Kappa Phi scholastic fraternity.

Rev. Wallace Jones, former pastor of Lexington Church of Christ, conducted baccalaureate services for the Alpine graduating class on Sunday afternoon, May 23, at Alpine school. A number of people from Lexington enjoyed the service.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wilcox and family have gone to the mountains above Heppner where they will have an outing and also look to the care of some of their stock in the high pastures.

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HERREIM, Correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick of Seattle were here last week. Mrs. Dick is a sister of the late John Marshall.

Jack Gorham and Royal Rands returned the latter part of the week from Portland after several days visit. Mrs. Gorham will return after attending the Rebekah convention at Salem. She visited her sister, Mrs. Walter Olson at Clatskanie before returning. Mrs. Rands returned Sunday from Portland.

At the primaries Friday the following were nominated for city officials for the ensuing year: mayor, J. C. Ballenger; recorder, Mrs. F. F. Klitz; councilmen, Robt. Rayburn, W. A. Goodwin, Leo Root, J. F. Gorham, Nate Macomber and Frank Cramer. A. B. Chaffee was elected constable.

At the state primaries the republican votes predominated. Steiner carried with 27 votes and Shumway came second with 15 votes. Howard for state superintendent of schools carried easily. For governor our genial Pierce received the majority of the votes in his party.

W. H. Lee and son Albert of Chico, Calif., arrived Monday for a visit at the Ralph Humphrey home.

Mrs. Humphrey is a daughter of Mr. Lee. After a visit here he will go on to Penawawa, Wn.

A most delightful dinner was given on Friday night, May 21, by Mrs. Richard Dingman to celebrate the birthdays of Mrs. Chas. Goodwin, Mrs. Dingman and Mrs. J. C. Ballenger, all coming on the same day. Chicken dinner was served and a most delightful evening was enjoyed. The invited guests were Messrs. and Messdames Chas. Goodwin, J. C. Ballenger and O. H. Warner.

Mrs. Harry Theris and two children left Wednesday for their home at Waterville near Eugene, after an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Chaffee. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Mayne, accompanied her. They have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Chaffee, coming recently from Colorado. They will visit at Albany before returning to Colorado. Helen Chaffee went with her sister and will spend the summer there.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Gorgor and baby, Leo and Joe Gorgor were guests Sunday at the L. C. Cooney home. The Gorgors live out near Wells Springs and said that although the weather had been favorable for a good wheat crop the extremely warm April days had crowded the wheat so the heads were almost matured before it was any height and prospects were not so good as they had looked for at first.

Thomson Brothers

Specially Built for Hillside Harvesting!

- 1. Can be used with equal success on hillside or level fields.
2. A real 2-man machine. Bagging platform, centrally located, well balanced. Men work close together.
3. Header platform is parallel to ground at all times. No grain skipped.
4. Operates equally well up hill or down.
5. Cylinder, 24" long, runs on self-aligning, enclosed ball bearings.
6. Five square feet of grate surface beneath cylinder and main beater provides for immediate separation of 80 to 90% of grain at the cylinder.
7. Wide separator (44") permits straw to spread thinly over straw racks for thorough separation.
8. Air blast of shoe fan is distributed evenly over entire area of shoe screen, whether machine is going up or down hill.
9. Recleaning device in addition to shoe—similar in action to fanning mill. Cleans grain thoroughly.
10. Power-operated leveling device. The operator merely moves a clutch lever—the power does the rest.
11. Screens are automatically leveled.
12. All bearings supported on brackets attached solidly to the frame, not to sheet metal siding.
13. Auxiliary engine same as used in Harvester trucks and tractors. Ball-bearing crankshaft.
14. All drive chains are short. Double roller chain and cut steel sprockets on cylinder drive.
