And Now, the Aftermath

ALL told, the primary election just finished was clean, quiet and dignified, it being almost entirely free of factional difficulties. The candidates up for nomination | Joe Trotti, stood largely on their own merits. and whether nominated or defeated, took their medicine like men. be, except for the lack of interest taken by the public generally.

There may be some question as to whether or not the best men were chosen. But in view of the fact that good men were a major-ity among the candidates there by publication in the Heppner Gazette could have been little complaint very good judgment in its selection of candidates to go into the fall election. If good men are picked by both parties in the primary there need be little misgiving as to the outcome of the general election. Such, we believe, is the case in this instance.

The way the republicans swung to the old party candidates in the primary would indicate a republican landslide in November. It judgment, decree and order of sale should be and will be barring accidents. Accidents, that is, such as that of the Ku Klux Klan split four years ago. So far there is against Harve G. Coxen and Delin nothing of the sort on the horizon, Coxen, his wife; and Stanfield Nanothing of the sort on the horizon, and it is not probable that there will be. But just what turn the $104.00 with interest at 8% from Nodemocratic attack will now take will no doubt prove interesting. Governor Pierce has proved himself to be a resourceful fellow in the past, and his department of the interest at 8% from March 25, 1926; scrap may cause the grand old 87.96 with interest at 8% from March 6, 1926; less $160.00 stock subscription; $300.00 attorneys' fee, and the be ship-subsidy vs. Americanism.

Just what reasons may be given for the light vote is hard to say. One thing we do believe, though, is that the people of Oregon are A. M. of said day at the front door of pretty generally satisfied with conthe County Court House in Heppner, filed against you in the above entitled suit within six weeks from the date a whole lot how the election went. Returns have shown that only in localities where a hot local issue was up was there a heavy vote.

The twilight ball series just completed in Heppner proved popular among fans. It helped in filling in on a few otherwise uneventful evenings, besides giving some of the boys some good practice, and creating interest generally in the national sport. More games of this nature are still in demand this season and there is no doubt but what this line of ball will have its place in seasons to come.
