Beautiful and Appropriate Program at Elks Temple; Graves of Soldiers Decorated.

Memorial Day was very fittingly observed in Heppner on Monday. The services were held at 10:00 a. m. in Elks temple under the auspices of Heppner Post No. 87, American Legion. Participating in the services were members of Rawlins Post, G. A. R., Rawlins Releif Corps and the American Legion Auxiliary, Heppner Unit, and the Girl Reserves, to the rumber of fifteen were also present. An appropriate program had been arranged, which was carried out to long, yet they were very impressive. This was especially true of that part of the exercises wherein Commander J. C. Ball of Rawlins Post paid a parting tribute to the official flag that had been with the post since its in-stitution. Mr. Ball reviewed a little of the history of the Post, and regretted that the time had come when gretted that the time had come when it was necessary to give up their charter and pass out. This had been done some little while ago, as but four members now remain, and they are unable to carry on. The flag was rescued from the Heppner flood of 1903 and has been carefully kept all these years. Each Memorial Day it has headed the procession to the grave yard, and had a prominent place slways in any memorial service held by the veterans of the Civil war. Mr. Ball on behalf of the surviving members of Rawlins post, delivered the flag into the keeping of the Re-lief Corps and the American Legion Auxiliary, and it was received by them in neat speeches of acceptance made by Mrs. D. E. Gilman and Mrs Arthur McAtee, each giving the prom-ise that this sacred emblem that had meant so much to the old veterans, ould be carefully kept and guarded, to be used only on proper occasions, such as was at this time being ob-served. This little ceremony was very impressive, and the assembly could not but be impressed with the fact that it meant more than words could express for Mr. Ball to pass the flag over to other hands. The re-maining members of Rawlina Post are John C. Ball and Silas Harris of Heppner, A. G. Devore of Hardman and C. A. Low of Ione. C. L. The cup is a large, beautiful silver one and will remain in Heppner until next year's shootoff. There is a chance that this event will take place in Heppner next year, and may enhance Heppner's chance of retaining the trophy another year. The banquet concourse voted unanimously to extend an invitation to the Oregonian to have the shoot-off come ere in 1927.

Harold Cohn was the poet of the occasion, responding to a toast with a selection from Pobert W. Service, "Twenty Years in the Yukon," that he applied to Mr. Van Marter. Others responding to toasts besides the members of the team were S. E. Notson, Frank Gilliam and Jas. M. Burgess. Each speaker received generous applause. The piece d' resistance con-sisted mainly of fried spring chicken and strawberry shortcake with plenty of side dishes to fill in the gaps.

Man Wanted in Butte Arrested on Rock Creek

Sheriff McDuffee and Tom Word, special agent of the department of justice, U. S. government, located a fugitive out of Butte, Montana, on a ranch over on Rock creek in Gilliam county Tuesday. They were assisted in the search by Sheriff Logan of Gilliam county.

The man takes the name of Jack Walker and has been wanted at Butte since last July for the theft of an automobile. He was taken in charge and brought to Heppner where he was held in the county jail awaiting the arrival of a deputy United States mar-shall to take him to Portland. From that city he will be taken by officers to Butte to answer for his crime. The department of justice compliments Sheriff McDuffee in locating and arresting this man who has evaded the cuths of the law for the past neary 12 months.
