

Local Happenings

Harvey Launtz and family departed on Tuesday night for their new home at The Dalles. On Monday evening they were tendered a farewell reception at Masonic hall by the members of Heppner Lodge No. 69 and Ruth Chapter No. 32, O. E. S., who expressed their regrets at the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Launtz from our community and vouchsafed well wishes for their future. Before coming to Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Launtz lived at The Dalles, where they have a residence and with them it will not be like going into a strange community.

Mrs. Dan Barlow was in the city from the Barlow home on Rhea creek on Tuesday. She reports that her husband has been quite ill for the past month, suffering from a relapse of the flu but is now able to be about. Her son Frank is also recovering from the effects of an operation at the hospital in Hood River where he has been under the care of Dr. Chick for a number of weeks past.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Barnett were Lexington people in the city on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Barnett reports that the wheat on his place is filling fine and will make a very fair yield of good grain. He expects the Lexington section to have a much better crop than for a few years past, but is not so optimistic over the price outlook.

Mrs. G. C. Aiken returned from Salem on Saturday. She was called to the city some three weeks ago by the very serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Gragg, who was sufficiently recovered to be able to accompany her mother home. Mrs. Gragg will be here for two or three weeks, while convalescing.

Mrs. Levi Morgan and little daughter were visitors at the home of her mother, Mrs. Melissa Marlatt over Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Morgan, who lives in Portland, had not been in Heppner for a period of eight years, and she greatly enjoyed meeting her many old friends during the short stay in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Huston returned on Sunday evening from their trip to the Willamette Valley. Mr. Huston was a delegate from Willow Lodge, I. O. O. F. to the grand lodge in session at Albany, and they also visited at Albany, and with their daughter, Miss Elizabeth, a student at U. of O. at Eugene.

Mrs. J. L. Cochran of Monument, sister-in-law of Mrs. Frank Turner of this city, suffered a stroke of paralysis at her home on Saturday. Mrs. Cochran, who has been an invalid for many years, is very critically ill as a result of this latest attack.

Mrs. George Thomson and family arrived home on Saturday from Seaside, Oregon, where they have been living during the past winter. They report a fine winter season at the sea coast, but are glad to be established in their Heppner home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cannon of Athena, parents of Mrs. Tom Beymer of Hinton creek, visited at the Beymer home and with friends at Lexington during the week. They were accompanied by Miss Lucile Smith and three children of their family.

Dr. Eugene Vaughan and wife of Portland, who were on a short visit to Pendleton, drove over to Heppner on Sunday for Memorial Day and a short visit with old-time friends. It had been many years since they visited in Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McGinnis and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Linsinger drove to Goldendale Saturday evening, where they visited a sister of Mrs. McGinnis and Mr. Linsinger, returning home on Sunday evening.

The Christian Endeavorers will hold a cooked food sale at the store of Humphreys Drug Co. on next Saturday forenoon.

J. W. Morrow and son Jackson Morrow were here over Sunday, coming up from their Portland home.

Mrs. George McDuffee and Mrs. Frank Turner arrived home Sunday evening from Salem where they spent the past week attending the grand assembly of the Rebekahs of Oregon as delegates from the Heppner lodge. Mrs. Turner was accompanied on the trip by her daughter Annabel. While at Salem, Mrs. Turner and Miss Alma Devin were given the special degree in chivalry. Miss Devin coming over from Monmouth to take the degree. The ladies report a very delightful session of the grand assembly and enjoyed their trip very much.

Wilson E. Brock and wife of Pendleton were visitors here on Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Brock is engaged in the hardware business at Pendleton where he has lived for many years since leaving Heppner. He reports that Umatilla county is going to have an average wheat crop this season, and harvest will soon be on there.

Otto Rietmann was in town from his home near Lone yesterday. He thinks that harvest will start in his section about the 20th of June, depending somewhat upon the weather conditions from now on. Otto is farming his father's place near Lone and states they will have a good crop to harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert King of Portland, and Mrs. King's father, James Luper, of Hubbard, were visitors here on Decoration Day. Mr. Luper has his place on Heppner Flat rented out this season, while he is engaged in the farming game in the Willamette valley.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Morse, parents of Roger Morse, county agent, and Miss Marian Patch, an aunt, drove over from their home at Vancouver, Wash., the end of the week and are enjoying a visit of several days at the Morse home in this city.

Tom Word, ex-sheriff of Multnomah county, was in Heppner a day or so the first of the week. For the past two years Mr. Word has been with the United States department of justice as a special officer.

Mrs. P. A. Anderson was a visitor here from Portland over the week end. Returning home the first of the week, she was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. E. L. Campbell, who has been ill for some time past.

Pete Curran reports a good season thus far with the sheep, and he expects to leave Heppner shortly for the high mountains, where he will range his flocks for the summer months.

The regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held at their quarters on next Monday evening, June 7th. Mrs. Arthur McAttee and Mrs. Walter Moore will be hostesses.

Mrs. Ida Dutton, who drove up from Portland to attend the funeral of her brother, the late F. J. Hallock, on Thursday last, remained over for Decoration Day, returning home Monday.

Louis Campbell, saddler with Hamley & Co., of Pendleton, came over on Saturday for a visit with the home folks and to remain until after Decoration Day.

J. H. Bush and family of Vernonia, Oregon, were visitors here the past week, being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Kirk, parents of Mrs. Bush.

The family of Fred Tash have moved to Arlington, where Mr. Tash is engaged in business. They will make their permanent home in that city.

Miss Velma Fell has gone to Arlington where she will reside for the summer. She will be employed in the bakery in that city.

Frank Turner returned home from Grant county the first of the week, having completed the shearing season.

Mrs. John Cochran and Mrs. Jim Grabbill of Lone, were visitors in Heppner over Decoration Day.

Gives Away Millions

S. S. Kresge, chain store owner is giving away $23,000,000 of his great fortune, to be used for charitable purposes. The gift will be made to the Kresge Foundation which was established by the merchant in 1924.

W. C. Lacy came up from Portland the middle of last week and spent several days at Lexington and Heppner, looking after his business interests in Morrow county.

R. M. Hart and son were visitors in the city over the week end, coming up for the Decoration Day services and a short visit with his relatives here.

Clive Huston came up from Portland the end of the week, remaining over until Monday and enjoying a short visit with relatives here.

Anderson Hayes departed for Portland on Tuesday. He had been spending a few weeks here visiting with his relatives.

Judge Robinson and Walt Smith, prominent citizens of Lone, were business visitors in this city Tuesday.

Claud Huston, Eight Mile wheat raiser, was attending to business affairs in this city on Saturday.

Frank Smith, wife and two little children were visitors at the home of Mr. Smith's mother, Mrs. Oscar Davis, in this city over Saturday and Sunday, taking advantage of the holidays over the week end to get back to the old home town. It has been better than seven years since Frank was here last, as after leaving the service he secured work in Portland and has been on the job ever since.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Akers spent Saturday and Sunday in Heppner, coming up from their home at Portland. Returning home Monday, they were accompanied by Mrs. Carrie Vaughn, mother of Mrs. Akers, who will visit in the city for a short time.

J. L. Carter of Portland was a visitor in the city over Tuesday night, coming up to see his brother-in-law, J. W. Rector. Before returning home Mr. Carter expects to visit some other points in Eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bauman drove to Pendleton and Walla Walla Friday to spend the week end with relatives and friends.

FOR SALE—Or trade: 40 acres raw land, 1 1/2 miles west of Irrigon; under ditch; $400, cash. Is near highway under West Extension Umatilla project. A. T. Hereim, Boardman, Or.

Ed Rugg, Rhea creek stockman and rancher, was a business visitor in Heppner Saturday.

Percy Hughes was down from his home at Umatine, Oregon, over the week end.

BUTTER CREEK COUPLE MARRIED Edward T. Canfield and Miss Millie Pearson, both of Lena, were joined in wedlock on Sunday morning, May 30, at the Methodist parsonage, the pastor, Rev. E. C. Alford, officiating.

The service took place at seven o'clock in the morning so that the couple might return to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Pearson of Lena, that being the day of the fortieth anniversary of their marriage. Friends and relatives were to greet them at their home in celebration of the occasion. The parents of the bride were witnesses of the ceremony.

Advance-Rumley Combine Harvester

I have the agency for this popular and efficient machine, and would like prospective buyers of harvesting machinery to look this combine over before making a decision.

Frank Shively

Devil's Lake

Oregon's newest playground—
Willamette Valley's nearest beach!

Typical Offerings

2 1/2 acres, 100 feet of lake frontage, $550.

1 1/2 acres, 281 feet of lake frontage, $750.

40 acres, 3/4 mile from lake, $15 per acre.

House and lots, $650 to $750; terms. Sanitary plumbing. Choicest lots overlooking Devil's Lake, $100 to $550.

ON THE beautiful Roosevelt Highway, less than three-quarters of a mile from the whispering surf itself, this gem-like fresh-water lake stretches its fingers into the wooded mountains.

Work on the Salmon River Cut-off is already under way. It brings this unusual combination of lake and beach property within 81 miles of Portland, nearer than any other beach on the Coast!

The most beautiful and desirable properties on Devil's Lake make up this offer. Sheltered from cold ocean breezes, yet within easy access of the surf. Select your site here. Get the natural advantages of fresh water bathing, hunting and fishing at their best.

No more lands will be platted by us. Less than 200 home sites left.

NOTICE: This property is very much underpriced. Prices are to be definitely advanced 50% on July 10th. Write for illustrated literature for further details.

Lake-Ocean Land Co. Owners

1112 Porter Building, Portland, Oregon
Phone Broadway 7927

TO OUR CREAM CUSTOMERS :

We can only make the grade of buttre from the grade of cream we receive. Now, if we are going ahead and be on the map like other surviving creameries, we must have A-grade cream. We are not churning any B-grade cream. We will pay market price for A-grade cream.

Morrow County Creamery Co.
W. C. COX, Manager.

BUTTER

Watermelons Are Now Coming In

CHERRIES — CANTALOUPE
BANANAS

California Fruits of All Kinds

The BEST of FRESH VEGETABLES
New Potatoes, Cauli^oflower, Asparagus, Lettuce, Carrots, Turnips, String Beans—
All kinds of vegetables

SAM HUGHES COMPANY

Phone 962 Heppner, Ore.

SUGAR

HEPPNER GAZETTE TIMES, Only $2.00 the Year

Strawberries

Arriving Daily

Fresh Fruits and Vegetables in Season

NOTICE TO FARMERS

Owing to the recent change in train schedule, our farmer customers will have to change their way of getting fresh fruits and vegetables.

By waiting till later in the day to secure your needs you must either take the leftovers or none.

Why not phone ahead to have us save your needs for you.

Phelps Grocery Company

PHONE 53

The PURDYS
by Paul Robinson
PUBLISHERS - AUTOCASTER SERVICE REG. U.S. PAT. OFFICE

WAR-REN-N!

WAR-R-E-N-N!

I WANT SOME THINGS FROM THE GROCERY - WILL YOU RUN DOWN FOR ME?

HERE'S THE MONEY! NOW GET ME A BAG OF FLOUR AND TWO QUARTS OF STRAW-BERRIES - WHEN I GET IT BAKED I'LL GIVE YOU EACH A BIG PIECE OF STRAW-BERRY SHORT CAKE!

WEREN'T YOU CALLING ME MA MA?

Rasmussen Automobile enamel

—Will renew your car with surprising ease and small cost.

You can do the work yourself, and now while weather is warm is the best time to do it.

Get color cards and suggestions from your dealer.

Sold by: GILLIAM & BISBEE Heppner, Or.
RASMUSSEN & COMPANY Portland - Seattle