

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HERREIM, Correspondent.

A number of Boardman people attended the dedication ceremony on Sunday afternoon at Well Springs, honoring the memory of the pioneers who are buried at that place. The baseball game coming that afternoon kept the majority home.

Dorothy and Kenneth Boardman have gone to Turner, Ore., near Salem, for an extended visit, having left this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Warren were up from Portland to attend the ceremony at Well Springs.

Sunday is Children's Day at the church. It is hoped that a good crowd will attend.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Koski and Ed Salmen returned last week from Astoria where they have been for some time. Mr. Koski recently sold his ranch here to G. A. Harju of Weston and went down Astoria way to look around. He liked that section and purchased a ranch of 25 acres. They will pack and ship their household goods this week. On Saturday they went to Pendleton where they visited their sons John and Hugo, both of whom are employed near Pendleton. Koskis are visiting at the Hango and Olson homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wicklander were hosts at a delicious chicken dinner Sunday evening at 6, having Mr. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lewis and son Clayton of Portland as guests. Mrs. H. A. Lewis assisted in the placing of the wreath at the Well Springs ceremony and Mr. Lee acted as chaplain. They all returned to their homes in Portland Sunday night.

Thursday night the coal shutes at Messner were burned to the ground. The origin of the fire is unknown but it is thought it was caused from spontaneous combustion. Only a few nights previously it caught fire from the sparks of an engine. Geo. Johnston and wife who have been at Messner for 2 years where the former had charge of the chutes, are moving to La Grande where Mr. Johnston will have a similar position as foreman. Wm. Buckley, superintendent, Mr. Kelly and L. V. Woodard of the water service, and Tom Collins, representative of Addison Miller, were all here immediately after the fire. The coal chutes have been a place where many men have come to grief, one death a number of years ago, and other men have received injuries, some serious, some minor. Future plans are unknown. It is hoped that if the O.-W. plans to rebuild they will erect the chutes at Boardman, but rumor has it that they will be placed at Biggs.

Marie and Nellie Messenger have gone to The Dalles where they are employed at Libby, McNeill & Libby. Mrs. Myrtle Bailey and family have moved to Arlington where Mr. Bailey is running the ferry. Mrs. Bailey has lived at Boardman the past four years and has conducted a confectionary and lunch counter on the highway.

Boardman defeated Ione Sunday by a 9 to 7 score. The game was full of interest.

Some of the little girls in Boardman had a very pleasant surprise party Friday afternoon on Janet Gorham, who celebrated her 5th birthday on that day. Ten were present and had a merry time and enjoyed the birthday cake which Mrs. Gorham had baked and the other refreshments which the guests brought with them.

Chas. Wicklander returned Saturday afternoon from Baker where he attended the session of the State Grange. He reported both a busy and instructive meeting.

Boardman boys are laying the foundation for a school orchestra. Elden Wilson has just received a fine new E-flat alto saxophone Buescher Grand with gold bell and keys. It has an excellent tone. We should like to see or rather hear a boys' orchestra. We have the talent.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dickson of Newberg stopped off for a short visit with Jack Gorham one day last week. They were enroute home from a trip to Nampa, Idaho.

The next regular meeting of the Grange will be held Thursday, June 17, at Pomona meets on the 19th, the regular meeting time.

Mr. and Mrs. Rae and Mrs. Van Dyne attended the social meeting of the Grange Saturday night. They were on their way home to Goldendale, Wash., after attending the state Grange in Washington, which met at Kennewick. Mrs. Rae is a niece of Mrs. Sam Shell and they were overnight guests of Mrs. Shell.

Mrs. Mary Hiatt, mother of Mrs. Royal Rands, is visiting with her daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Rands, Buster and Mrs. Hiatt were all dinner guests Sunday night at the Henney Kluges home.

The men furnished the program at the Grange social Saturday night and the evening was a decided success. The program given by the men follows: Reading, "Selfishness," W. A. Goodwin; violin solo, Victor Hang; reading, Geo. Mitchell; saxophone trio, Elden Wilson, Francis Sharrard and Hector Wicklander; reading Robert Mitchell; steel guitar solo, Ross Spaulding; reading, Carl Wicklander. An interesting doughnut eating contest was held and won by the women. Ice cream and cake was served and expenses were cleared and a small profit left for the Grange. Cards were played by some after the program.

Mrs. W. O. King is pleased to have her mother, Mrs. Tagg of Gearhart visiting her.

The dramatic committee of the Grange composed of Mrs. Lee Mead, Mrs. Nick Faler, and Mrs. Chas. Wicklander, with the assistance of Mr. Mead and Mr. Wicklander, are at work selecting a play and making plans for one to be given in the fall.

On June 20 a private car containing railroad officials and members of the Chamber of Commerce of Portland will be set aside and the occupants will be guests of Boardman for the day. They will be taken over the project so they can see the results of irrigation and will be enabled to get a first hand knowledge of the farms, the dairy cattle, the gardens, in contrast to the sagebrush where water is not available. It is planned to have a basket dinner at the Porter and Conley ranch that day and the women are asked to bring lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messenger are now located in La Grande where

Truman is employed by the state highway department.

Maxene Ballenger is the latest victim of the whooping cough.

A pleasant party was given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Howard B. Calkins at her home in the West End, honoring Mrs. Helms, a new resident of Boardman. All had a pleasant time and the afternoon passed very rapidly. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

The social committee of the Grange will sponsor a community picnic on July 3rd. The Irrigon Grange will be invited to attend. Irrigon was host to Boardman last year. Funds for the ice cream will be solicited as usual. Remember this will be a community picnic and everyone is invited to attend.

Koskis motored to Condon Monday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Pat Pattee.

LEXINGTON

Miss Alta Pettijohn returned Sunday from a two weeks stay in Walla Walla. She made the trip by auto with her uncle, Paul Webb, who drove on to Heppner.

Lexington sent many of her citizens on Sunday at Wells Springs, the scene of the placing of the Gilliam memorial but on account of the heat as the large crowd a number could gather but little of the day's program.

Edward Keller, Jr., and Charles Wilcox drove up into the mountains Tuesday for an outing at the Wilcox home.

Mrs. J. F. Lucas is at home after ten days in Portland and at Seaside. Ruth Dinges is spending some days in the mountains at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wilcox.

Helen Brevsars will attend summer school conducted for two weeks in Heppner by Catholic Sisters from Pendleton.

Karl Beach expects to make a drive to Walla Walla today to be present at Walla Walla high school commencement exercises. Laurel Beach is a member of the graduating class.

Robert, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. McMillan, who is a marine guard on the battleship Arizona, writes to his parents in Lexington that they expect to sail for San Francisco about the fourteenth and by June thirtieth they will probably be in Tacoma, at which time he hopes to have a furlough and visit here. Headquarters for his ship is at San Pedro but they have had a good bit of cruising in Panama waters.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Palmer drove to Forest Grove Thursday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Laura Scott and Mrs. Sadie Lewis who expect to enjoy a number of days in Salem and Drain, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, with their daughter, Miss Alice Palmer, returned to Lexington on Saturday. Miss Alice has completed her first year at Pacific university.

E. S. Miller is making attractive improvements at his home near the depot. Mr. Miller and his sons are doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller and Mrs. A. Reaney left overland Wednesday for Boise, Idaho, where they will enjoy a while at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Budden.

Alfred Spencer left Lexington Wednesday for a trip down into California.

Raymond Miller left Saturday morning for Hubbard, Ore., where he expects to remain during the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Pieper and Rufus Pieper motored to Walla Walla Saturday and are having a pleasant visit in the inland city.

Mrs. Emeline Patterson from Athena is a guest at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kuhns.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Burchell and small niece who recently spent some days with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Burchell, left by auto Saturday morning for their home in Corvallis.

Grandma Thompson is in Portland for an extended stay at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alva Leach. Mr. and Mrs. Leach were recent Lexington visitors and Grandma, who is past eighty years of age, made the trip by auto to Portland with them.

SEVEN THINGS GOD HATES.

It may cause a moment of surprise to some to hear that God is able to hate, though it ought not as it is very evident that some things can inspire nothing else but hate.

The subject at the Church of Christ on Sunday evening will be, "Seven Things God Hates."

The morning subject will be, "The Purpose of Incarnation."

Be present if possible at all the services.

"Be not weary in well doing, for in due season we shall reap if we faint not."

MILTON W. BOWER, Minister.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.

Once again, death has visited our order and summoned our beloved brother, Sanford E. Clark, and the golden gateway to the Eternal City has opened to welcome him to his home, and as his reward has received the plaudit, "Well done" from the Supreme Ruler, and

STAR THEATER

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, JUNE 10-11:

WM. DESMOND in "BIG TIMBER"

A tremendous story of life in the Giant Pine country. A superb outdoor picture, filmed in the redwood district of California, showing the big timber cuttings, the crash of the falling giants ending in a terrible forest fire. A thrill you'll not soon forget.

Also "THE RUSTLIN' KID," two reel western, and the third episode of the "FIGHTING RANGER."

SATURDAY, JUNE 12:

LAURA LA PLANTE in "YOUNG IDEAS"

From the story by Sophie Kerr. A captivating screen star in a farce-comedy, which will capture you and hold you for a solid hour of unceasing laughter. It's all youth—the intrigue of your hearts in league.

LOADED WITH LAUGHTER. PACKED WITH PEP. CROWDED WITH COMEDY.

Also "REMBRANDT," one of the Hysterical History comedies.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY, JUNE 13-14:

ELEANOR BOARDMAN, LEW CODY and RENEE ADORE in "EXCHANGE OF WIVES"

He borrowed his neighbor's wife! She was so sympathetic he thought an exchange of wives would solve his matrimonial trouble. BUT, OH, BOY! HE SOON LEARNED HIS MISTAKE. The play that kept Broadway shrieking with laughter has now been made into a most hilarious picture.

LAUGHS, ROARS, SCREAMS, HOWLS. The funniest film of marriage mix-ups you ever saw.

Also "OH, BUSTER," two reel Buster Brown comedy.

TUES. AND WEDS., JUNE 15 AND 16:

ELAINE HAMMERSTEIN, DOROTHY PHILLIPS and HERBERT RAWLINSON in "EVERYMAN'S WIFE"

The story of a woman who tried to win back her husband from a supposed rival by the old method of counter attack.

Also "EAST SIDE WEST SIDE," a romance of Irish potatoes and Jewish enterprise; a two reel comedy.

HEPPNER GARAGE

(VAUGHN & GOODMAN)

HEPPNER MAN TAKES BRIDE.

The account of the marriage on Saturday evening last, of Robert C. Notson, Heppner man now with the Oregonian in Portland, is taken from Sunday's Oregonian.

The marriage of Miss Adella White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Russell White, and Robert C. Notson was solemnized last night in Rose City Park Methodist church, Rev. William Wallace Youngson officiating.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents in Rose City Park. Those who assisted during the evening included Misses Honor Nelson, Jeanette White, Mildred White, Lois Chapin, Kathleen Pumphrey and Father Bauman.

After a short wedding trip at the beach, Mr. and Mrs. Notson will return to make their home in Portland.

Attending from Heppner were Samuel E. Notson, father, and Miss Margaret Notson, sister, of the bridegroom.

Children's Day exercises will be held in the Sunday school of the Methodist church next Sunday. This is the one day for the children. They always take great delight in the part they are permitted to take in preparing others for Christian service. The program will be by the children. Parents and friends come with them.
