

Local Happenings

Mrs. Lenore B. Devine writes this paper that she is spending a few weeks at the home of G. W. Turner at Glendale, Oregon. She motored up from Los Angeles, which city she left on the 16th of May, and sort of loitered along the way back to Oregon, enjoying camping in the timber and at the beaches. The trip north over the Roosevelt highway, through the redwood forests and along the beach, is very wonderful, states Mrs. Devine, and she thinks the beauties of this route have never yet been adequately described. However, she is glad to be back in Oregon once more and is never going to stray far from the fir and pine trees again; it is a delightful change from southern California.

"The feeling was general in Iowa that Brookhart didn't get a square deal when he was unseated by the senate in Steck's favor," remarked Edward A. Notson, who is returning to Oregon after three years with the highway department of Illinois, yesterday. "Sympathy for Brookhart and dissatisfaction because of the failure of congress to enact farm relief legislation accomplished Cummins' defeat. Had he been pitted against anyone but Brookhart he would very likely have won with ease." Mr. Notson spent several weeks in Iowa before the recent primaries.—From "Those Who Come and Go" column, Oregonian.

Albert L. Smith, contractor on the Heppner-Spray road, now has his camp established. Mr. Smith has sub-let the grading and clearing to Foote Bros. who have also got their camps established, and the work will be moving from now on. Mr. Smith, by the way, is a native of Morrow County and was born on Butter creek. However, he removed from here when about two and a half years of age and it was many long years before he returned here, having come back to the county a few years ago to bid on a portion of the Oregon-Washington highway work.

Walter LaDusire received a painful accident while attending the fire truck at the fire on Tuesday evening. In attempting to make an adjustment on the machine his foot slipped and he was thrown in such a manner over the frame that two ribs were broken. He went on with the work, however, and when the job was finished called on Dr. McMurdo and had the injuries attended to.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wolf of Portland were guests a couple of days the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Huston in this city. Mrs. Wolf and Mrs. Huston are sisters. This was the first visit of Mr. Wolf to Morrow county, and he was well pleased with Heppner and the surrounding country. They returned home on Friday.

Dr. A. H. Johnston has installed an artificial sunlight machine which experience has demonstrated is a fine aid in the treatment of many ailments to which human flesh is heir. The doctor will be glad to give you demonstration when you happen to be in his office.

Mrs. Perry Bartlemay of Ione, who was ill for some time at the Heppner Surgical hospital, departed on Saturday for California. Mrs. Bartlemay is suffering from heart and kidney disease, and it is hoped that her removal to a lower altitude may prove beneficial.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Ward were guests over Sunday at the home of Mrs. Mattie Huston. Mr. Ward is a nephew of Mrs. Huston and resides in Wasco county in the vicinity of Dufur.

Master Patrick Healey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Healey, had his tonsils and adenoids removed on Monday by Dr. McMurdo.

Earl Gordon has been spending several days in Portland this week, looking after matters of business.

Betty Marie, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Adkins, aged 4 years, is ill with diabetes and is being cared for by Dr. Johnston at the Morrow General hospital, where she is taking the insulin treatment. With the discovery of insulin about two years ago, diabetes is now controllable in children, in most cases, according to Dr. Johnston.

Benjamin Cox, young farmer of Hinton creek, and Miss Lela Patton were joined in wedlock Tuesday morning at 11:30. The ceremony was performed under the shade of the trees at the home of Milton W. Bower, pastor of the Christian church, with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beymer and daughter, Hinton creek neighbors, as witnesses.

Dr. John Huston and wife of Port Townsend, Wash., arrived at Heppner on Friday evening last, remaining over until Sunday for a visit with the parents of Dr. Huston, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Huston.

Jake Young came in from the farm on Saturday to have Dr. McMurdo remove a growth from his nose. Mr. Young has suffered from this trouble for a number of years.
