

Local Happenings

Dr. A. D. McMurdo returned on Sunday morning from Spokane, where during the past week he attended the fifth annual meeting of the Pacific Northwest Medical Association, held in that city July 1, 2, 3. He was accompanied on the trip by Mrs. McMurdo and the sessions of the convention were greatly enjoyed, a separate program of entertainment being furnished by the convention city for the ladies while the doctors were attending and gathering in the good thing on the program. Prominent medical men from different parts of the country delivered the lectures, and Dr. McMurdo feels that the time spent in attendance upon the meeting was well worth while.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnson and son Dale, accompanied by Mr. Johnson's aunt, Mrs. Kate Heron, arrived here from Salem and spent a few days visiting at the home of Mrs. Josephine Johnson, mother of Ralph. Mr. Johnson is engaged in running a market at Salem, where he has lived most of the time since leaving Heppner a number of years ago. They went on to Walla Walla Tuesday for a visit with the parents of Mrs. Johnson.

Surveyor Joe Kirschner represented Heppner again this Fourth by joining the Hood River American Legion party making the ascent of Mt. Hood. He returned home the first of the week and states that the climb was a complete success, a fine party of people going to the summit and making the trip without any mishap. He secured some good pictures while on the mountain, and will soon have these on display.

Roland Humphreys of this city has been elected to a fellowship at the University of Oregon in the school of education. He will teach part time while working for his master's degree the coming year. During the past year Mr. Humphreys taught in the high school at Hillsboro and was elected there another year but preferred to take the university position and secure his degree.

Mrs. Belle Edwards of Forest Grove spent a short time in Heppner the end of the week while on her way to Athena where she will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Thompson. Mrs. Thompson has been with her mother at Forest Grove for a few weeks, during the sickness of her brother, the late Oscar Edwards, and was accompanying her mother to Athena.

Rev. W. W. Head of Ione was a caller at this office Tuesday. Mr. Head looks after the destinies of the Ione Independent and also fills the pulpit of the Congregational church in his city. He states that Ione was practically deserted on Sunday and Monday, the folks going to the mountains and other points where they spent the holiday.

John Spencer and family of lower Butte creek came up to Heppner to spend the Fourth, being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Crawford. Mr. Spencer and his son Sloan drove back to Heppner again Monday to take in the game between Hermiston and the local ball team.

The youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Schriver of Lexington, who has been very ill with pneumonia, following whooping cough, is reported much improved by the attending physician, Dr. McMurdo. Mrs. Schriver is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Cox of Lexington.

Elwyn Shipley and wife of White Salmon, Wash., were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smead. Mrs. Guy Boyd, mother of Mr. Shipley, from Nampa, Idaho, and children arrived in Heppner Friday and have also been visiting at the Smead home.

Mrs. Frank Turner and Mrs. Dena Copenhaver arrived in Heppner Friday from summer school at Pendleton. Mrs. Copenhaver returned to Pendleton the first of the week, and Mrs. Turner will go back Sunday, after looking after home fires for a week.

Frank Harwood journeyed to the seashore to receive new energy from the invigorating breezes during the days of the holiday the end of the week, returning home on Tuesday morning. He reports the weather very fine at the coast on the Fourth.

Mrs. Walter Jepson of lower Rhea creek underwent an operation at the hands of Dr. A. H. Johnston at the Morrow General hospital in this city on Sunday for appendicitis. The operation was very successful and the patient is reported doing well.

Toots Montague and family of Arlington were visitors in Heppner during the days of our celebration. Mr. Montague was in the box for Heppner during part of the game on Monday.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Adkins, Betty Marie, ill at the Morrow General hospital with diabetes, is reported to be rapidly improving under the insulin treatment.

Wm. Lunford and family, formerly residents of this city, were here over the Fourth from their home at Kelso, Wash., being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shelly Baldwin.

Mrs. Fred Ritchie of Ione was operated on Sunday at the Morrow General hospital in this city by Dr. Johnston. The operation was done under general anesthesia.

Lee Reaney and family were up from Salem over the Fourth, visiting with relatives at Lexington and enjoying a part of the celebration at Heppner.

Paul Doherty is quite ill at his home in Heppner, suffering with scarlet fever. The case has been placed under quarantine by the city health officer.

Mary Moore, baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore, was quite ill the first of the week. Walter reported her being much better yesterday.

LOST—Monday evening, bill fold containing driver's license and lodge receipts; valued by owner. Ample reward for return to this office.

E. H. Wattenburger of Butte creek who has been on the sick list for a couple of months, is now in Heppner receiving medical treatment.

Cecil Hale and family were here from their Walla Walla home to remain over the Fourth and enjoy meeting with old-time friends.

Mrs. Sam Warfield of Ione who was operated on last week by Dr. Johnston at the Morrow General hospital, left for her home Sunday.

Andy Hayes came over from Pendleton to spend the Fourth and enjoyed a visit among relatives and friends at Heppner.

Roy Her and family were up from Portland to spend the Fourth with the home folks and enjoy a visit with old time friends.

Phill Cohn and family were up from Portland over the week end, remaining until after the close of our celebration here.

J. B. Huddleston and sister, Miss Beas, came over from the Lone Rock ranch to spend the Fourth in Heppner.

Miss Edna Vaughn was here from her Portland home to remain over the Fourth, returning to the city Tuesday.

Wapinitia Cut-Off Will Be Popular

"The heavy tourist travel that is developing in Oregon is making this one of the busiest seasons ever experienced by the Oregon State Motor association," said George O. Brandenburg, general manager of the State Motor branch of the A. A. A., upon his return from Central Oregon points. While in Central Oregon, Mr. Brandenburg, in company with Otto M. Jones, educational director of the motor association, made a set of motion pictures of the Century Drive, one of the scenic drives out of Bend. The trip was made into the Deschutes valley by way of the McKenzie River Highway which is one of the scenic highways of the Pacific Northwest. The return to Portland was made by way of the Wapinitia cutoff which leaves the Dalles-California Highway at Maupin and strikes the Mount Hood Loop highway about five miles south of Government Camp.

This cutoff is in good gravelled macadam with the exception of 31 miles. This stretch of dirt road is in good condition with the exception of approximately 4 miles that are rutted and cut up as a result of construction work that is being carried on about five miles out of Wapinitia. With the completion of the road that is now under construction, this cutoff will become extremely popular as it gives the tourist an opportunity to motor over the greater part of the Mount Hood Loop and strike the Columbia Highway at Hood River and then enter Portland by way of the Columbia River Highway. This routing gives one the opportunity of seeing the Mount Hood Loop and the Columbia River Highway, two of the great scenic highways of the Pacific Northwest in entering Portland from the south. If a tourist is in a hurry he may motor directly into Portland from Government Camp making the entire distance from Bend to Portland 208 miles which cuts off a material distance from the route of the Dalles-California Highway.

Messrs. Brandenburg and Jones left immediately upon their return from Central Oregon districts to cover the John Day Highway. This highway will be located and photographed at its interesting points by the two motor officials, and tourist travel stimulated over it as much as possible.

LOST—On the streets of Heppner, a ladies' gold fountain pen, initials D. S. C. Valued as a keepsake. Finder leave at this office.

The "Ace" Wins

The new lightweight boxing sensation is "Ace" Hudkins, Nebraska Wildcat, who recently knocked out "Rubby" Goldstein in four rounds. "Ace" now is in line for the title held by "Rocky" Kansas.

IN MEMORY OF OUR MOTHER.

Hardman, Ore. One more in our community has passed on to the heavenly home. Will there ever be one who has been called home that will be more missed than Mrs. L. M. Hadley, or best known as Aunt Lena. Her mission on this earth surely was filled, such an active life she always led, so utterly unselfish, so thoughtful of others, always ready to help some one. In her younger days she was always attending the sick; it was nothing for her to drive 25 miles in a buggy in the bitter cold to help some sufferer. Having raised a family of her own she was still a mother to all the children in the community and how much all the little folks loved to go to Aunt Lena's to sew doll dresses and then visit the cozy jar.

Why should we miss the one whom we know has fulfilled her mission in life. She has been a mother to all.

JANE WINTON wears it

A sport costume that is smart in the accepted boyish manner--yet femininely graceful in every line and detail. The Ensign Navy jacket is of blue broadcloth, and is worn with a French yellow or white skirt. The yellow blazer felt sport hat, swaggar stick, and patent leather sport pumps, with blonde calf trimming, completes this natty outfit.
