

Local Happenings

The combines are running on the Jeff Jones and Harry Rood farms and good grain is being harvested. The Rood place will not yield quite so well as in former seasons owing to lack of moisture, while the Jones grain is turning out a yield about up to the average of good seasons. That section was favored with a heavy shower of rain early in the season, and it is noted that wherever that struck the yield is the best. The Jones grain is now coming to the warehouse at Heppner, as is also the grain from the Ferguson place in Sand Hollow, the trucks picking up the bags and rushing them in almost as fast as they are dumped by the combines.

District Attorney S. E. Notson went to Portland Sunday to attend the meeting of the republican state central committee, and incidentally get where the heat was more intense than in his old home town—though it was not so cool here on Sunday. The government weather bureau here reported 105 for Heppner, and Frank Gilliam says this is the hottest ever recorded in the city since the records have been kept. We note from the report, however, that there was complete harmony in the republican central committee meeting, regardless of the hot weather prevailing in Portland.

Oscar Schaffer, Monument stockman, was a visitor here on Friday and Saturday, being called to the city on business. It has been four years since he visited here last, and he was quite surprised to see the improvements that had been made in the meantime. Like many other residents of northern Grant county, Mr. Schaffer would like to see better road connections between Heppner and Monument and believes much of the trade of that section can be brought here again when the difficulties to travel are removed by some permanent road construction.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Fell came up from Portland on Saturday night and are spending a short time in this city while Mr. Fell attends to matters of business. Mr. Fell states that people suffered very severely at Portland on Saturday, when the thermometer rose to 104½ in the shade, and it was necessary for many laborers on the docks and in the warehouses to quit work because of the heat. All records were broken for a period of more than 50 years, according to reports, and Mr. Fell believes that it never had been so hot in the city before.

Mrs. Ray Taylor and Miss Opal Briggs departed for Portland Tuesday evening. Mrs. Taylor took her young son to the city for consultation with a specialist and expects to return home the first of the week. At Portland Miss Briggs will be joined by Miss Mary Notson who is leaving here tonight, and the young ladies will journey on to Los Angeles by boat and spend a month vacationing in the southland.

Mr. and Mrs. Loy M. Turner arrived at Heppner Friday from their home at Long Beach, Calif., and will spend some ten days visiting at the home of his father, R. W. Turner, and with other relatives. They will go on to Baker from here for a visit of a few days at the home of Mrs. Turner's people and then return to the Southern California city, where Loy is employed by the city water department.

Lester Doolittle and family departed Tuesday morning for Cottage Grove where they will visit with Mr. Doolittle's mother. They took the route over McKenzie pass and expect to spend about a month in taking in the various points of interest, Crater Lake, Diamond Lake and others, and will later return home by way of Portland and Columbia River highway.

Joseph Hughes returned the end of the week from a trip to Portland. Going down he was accompanied by Billy Thomson who was returning to Los Angeles where he will continue in business with his brother, Robert. Billy spent about a month visiting with the Thomson boys here. On the return home Mr. Hughes was accompanied by Mrs. Olive D. Bassett and her daughters, Frances and Marian, of Newberg, who are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Hughes for two or three weeks. Mrs. Bassett is Mrs. Hughes' mother.

Leonard Carlson was a Gooseberry farmer in the city on Friday. Wheat harvest begun in earnest on the Carlson farm Monday and is now quite general throughout the Gooseberry and Eight Mile sections, with prospects that grain will turn out much better than was expected. Mr. Carlson was interested in a road matter before the county court, and hopes to get a short piece of road built that will put a number of the farmers in his locality in direct connection with the lone-Gooseberry market road.

Word was received here the first of the week announcing the death on July 11th, of John H. Williams, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Wheeler at Council, Idaho, where the old gentleman has been living for several years. Mr. Williams recently suffered a stroke of paralysis, and death finally resulted from this cause. For long years Mr. Williams was a resident of this county and engaged in the stock business here.

Vernon Jones and family, together with a number of other people from Irrigon, are enjoying an outing in the mountains in the vicinity of Ditch creek, where they hope to find some huckleberries. Vernon was down to town Tuesday to get a supply of gas for the cars of the party and so far, he states, they have been unable to locate any berries. They seem to be scarce in the mountains this season.

Charley Reppas, one of our oldtimers, was in town a short time Tuesday. He is making his home with Wm. Hendrix on Rhea creek for the present, having some time ago disposed of his place at Ritter. Mr. Reppas, who is getting along in years, has not been a well man for many months, being much of the time under the care of a physician, receiving treatment for heart trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thomson and son Earl left yesterday on a ten-day outing trip that will take them as far north as British Columbia. They expect to visit numerous points of interest in the northern country, and returning home will be accompanied by Ellis Thomson who has been at the Citizens' Training camp at Vancouver.

Tindall Robison, who was so severely injured a few weeks ago when trampled by a horse, was in town Friday from his Eight Mile home. While not yet fully recovered, Mr. Robison is getting about and looking after affairs some on the farm. It will be a number of weeks, however, before he is able to make a hand.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Latourell left on Monday evening, their destination being the coast resort at Newport on Yaquina bay. Mrs. Latourell and the little girl will remain there during the heated term but Mr. Latourell expects to return home in a few days.

The wheat market was pretty lively at Heppner the first of the week, the buyers being anxious to get hold of what grain they could. The price paid for several lots was on the basis of $1.25 per bushel.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice A. Frye are the proud parents of a son, born to them at the Morrow General hospital in this city on July 14th.

Hermiston had quite a delegation in attendance at the Heppner celebration Sunday and Monday. Among the local people who made the trip were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Biggs and sons, Jack Thyberg, Gwyn Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sheesly, Mr. and Mrs. James Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Ursei Hiatt, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Richards, Mr. and Mrs. George Harkenrider and Tom Campbell.—Hermiston Herald.

There will be a regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary Monday evening, July 19, at eight o'clock. Election of a delegate to the department convention will be held. Don't forget the pillow shower for Hospital 77. Feather-filled, cretonne-covered pillows any shape or size are wanted for the sun rooms and small, soft pillows, about 9x12, for the very sick patients.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Whittington drove over from their home at Bend the end of the week, spending a couple of days visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Noah Clark at Eight Mile. Mr. and Mrs. Whittington were in Heppner a short time Saturday afternoon, leaving for home Monday.

Gene Ferguson of Ferguson Chevrolet company of this city made a trip to Pasco yesterday and brought back a truck for a customer here. He was accompanied by Jasper Crawford of the G. T. force, who assisted in driving the cars over from Pasco.

Gay M. Anderson and family took their departure Sunday evening for the coast to spend two weeks of vacation. They will be at Long Beach, Washington, said to be one of the most pleasant resorts on the Washington coast north of Astoria.

W. B. Barratt came up from Portland on Friday and is taking some exercise this week at the Barratt farm, where he finds plenty to occupy his time. He reports that the grain on the ranch is going to turn out well and will make a fine crop.

Clyde G. Wright brought in 400 head of fine wool lambs which he delivered here Monday for shipment to Idaho. The sheep were in excellent condition, even though they had to be trailed to town Sunday afternoon in the excessive heat.

Miss Louise Thomson, who accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Thomson to Portland last week, underwent an operation for the removal of her tonsils while in the city.

J. W. Becket came up from Portland the end of the week and will spend some time at his Eight Mile farm, where harvest is now in progress. It reminds one of old times to see Bill around town during the harvest season.

M. L. Case and several members of the family left by auto on Tuesday morning for Gladstone, where they will be joined by Mrs. Case and then go on to the coast at Newport for a vacation season.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Thomson returned from Portland the last of the week. They took their little daughter to the city for medical treatment and spent some ten days in the metropolis.

Mrs. Pauline Quaid is up from her home at Portland, looking after business interests here as well as enjoying a visit with many old time friends.

Miss Elaine Sigbee departed for Portland Sunday night and will remain in the city where she has secured employment as stenographer.

Roger Morse and family departed Sunday for a vacation of two weeks which they will spend at Vancouver, Wash., and coast points.

ATTENTION VETERANS.
Heppner Unit, American Legion Auxiliary, wishes to call the attention of veterans of the world war to legislation recently passed and supreme court decisions recently rendered, affecting them.

First is the extension of time for reinstating wartime insurance, granted by congress just before adjournment. The time is now extended to July 2, 1927. As an additional feature the issuance of what is known as five year level term policies was authorized. These policies, which cost about half that of the converted policy, may be converted later into one of the six forms of permanent life or endowment government policies. They were designed to assist veterans who have not up to this time been able to afford to carry one of the regular policies.

The state bonus law has also been revised to permit those who in the first instance were only entitled to apply for a cash bonus to apply for the full amount of the loan, the bonus received being deducted with interest at 4% from the amount of the loan.

A recent decision of the state supreme court was to the effect that members of the S. A. T. C. are entitled to full benefits of the state loan act.

Veterans should avail themselves of these benefits. Full information and assistance in making your application will be given by the local post of the American Legion.
