Dr. Frank Crane Says THE TRACK RUNS ON. Includes a portrait of Dr. Crane.

OUT in the country the other day I stood on the hilltop and saw the railway track, like a silver ribbon, running away into the distance. The sun was shining brightly. I could perceive a train many miles away.

A Martyr for the Cause of Right.

THE entire nation has been shocked by the wanton killing of Don R. Mellett, youthful crusading editor of The Canton (O.) Daily News.

ness throughout the country.

It has also confounded at first hand the prophets who with Democratic urgings have been hinting and declaring that the Republicans in Iowa were about to turn their back on the administration.

Progressive Policies.

THE appointment of Albert C. Williams as chairman of the Federal Farm Loan Commission points to the adoption of a strong and progressive policy in the administration of the Federal Farm Loan System.

Pours Salt on the Wound.

THE Oregon Journal, after strenuously deploring the action of republican newspapers in supporting candidates for party nomination on the ground of interference with party politics and party self-determination, mocks its own words by its attempts to taunt Senator Stanfield into becoming an independent candidate for United States senator.

markable legislative feat of securing the passage and presidential approval of his tax refund bill.

Against odds that seemed insurmountable, including the perspicacity of a cautious Vermonter, Stanfield transformed what appeared to be a last-minute political move, the introduction of his O. and C. tax refund bill, into a financial bon for eighteen counties in Oregon.

Senator Stanfield's curse seems to be to conduct himself so during his forthcoming residence in Oregon, privately and publicly, as to make the republican party realize that his defeat was a joke on it rather than on him.

This tax refund achievement, once the bill is functioning, will be a yearly reminder of his senatorial capabilities, a reminder not easily lost sight of. But some of the underlying causes that led to his defeat will not pass quickly from the memory of those disposed to remember them. It is within his power to neutralize the latter. The senatorial achievement will take care of itself, politically—providing Stanfield doesn't muss things up in November.

President Endorsed.

IOWA Republicans in State convention assembled have endorsed the Coolidge administration and its achievements in tax and debt reductions, and in increasing governmental efficiency.

No one takes the independent candidate propaganda very seriously unless it be one or two of Stanfield's personal and political friends. A few may have convinced themselves that the scheme is feasible. If they have, they must have over-estimated the potency of vindication as a political issue.
