

Oregon C. E. Summer Conference at Turner

Advance registrations for the seventh Oregon Christian Endeavor Leadership Training conference to be held at Turner August 30-Sept. 6, indicate a splendid attendance by young people from many parts of the state. Preparations for the conference are in the hands of a committee consisting of Miss Mary Guiley of Eugene, chairman; Rev. Walter L. Myers of Eugene, dean; Dallas C. Rice of Portland, business manager and treasurer; Miss Viola Ogden of Portland, secretary and registrar; and E. D. Geiger of Portland, publicity manager.

Morning classes will include Bible study given by the Rev. James Aiken Smith, well known Presbyterian minister; song leading by Rev. Ross Guiley of Eugene; society publicity by Mrs. Ross Guiley; union work by Dallas C. Rice; "Expert Endeavor" by Miss Viola Ogden; society recreation by Rev. Myers; missions by Miss Hulda Anderson of La Grande; Intermediate leadership by Mrs. Dallas C. Rice; and general assembly addresses by Rev. Paul C. Brown of Los Angeles, Pacific Coast secretary of Christian Endeavor.

During the afternoons there will be informal fellowship and recreation including swimming, volley ball, baseball and other games, under the direction of Rev. Ross Guiley.

Each evening there will be an inspirational address and an outdoor bonfire meeting, the latter being led by Mr. Brown, and said to be the best feature of the conference by many of the delegates each year.

Reports of the recent World's Christian Endeavor convention in London will be given by Mr. Brown and Miss Elaine Cooper of Portland, both of whom are expected to return by that time.

Turner is on the main line of the Southern Pacific, ten miles south of Salem. Christian Endeavor members and leaders are expected from many parts of the state. Registrations are being received at 303 Abington Bldg., Portland, and information is being sent out from there to all who are interested.

Doernbecher Hospital to Be Dedicated Soon

University of Oregon, Eugene, July 26.—The Doernbecher children's hospital, recently completed as a part of the University of Oregon medical school at Portland, will be formally dedicated Friday morning, July 30, at 10:30 o'clock. The building will be open for inspection from Wednesday afternoon, July 28, to Sunday night, August 1.

Throughout the period of inspection the floors will be in charge of the five groups which have been most influential in helping to finance the furnishing of the hospital, according to Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, regent of the University. These are the Junior League, the State Elks, the Portland Rotary club, the American Legion, and the State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Gerlinger states that without the generous promise of $18,000 made by the Elks in their state convention at Eugene recently, it would be impossible to open the hospital at this time.

The movement for the hospital was started in October, 1924, when Edward Doernbecher and his sister, Mrs. Ada Doernbecher Morse, gave to the University of Oregon medical school $200,000 for a children's general hospital. The cost of the hospital was more than $223,000, the equipment and furnishings calling for an expenditure of between $45,000 and $50,000. Many individuals, families and organizations have made gifts of $500, which entitles them to the naming of a bed. These gifts have come in from all parts of the state.

CHICKEN DINNER.

The Willing Workers of the Christian church will serve chicken dinner at the church basement on Saturday evening. The purpose of the dinner at this time is to assist in raising funds contributed toward the support of Miss Lorena Palmateer, who is making a brave fight against the white plague, and is now located at Albuquerque, New Mexico. The ladies will begin serving at 6:30 in the evening and continue as long as the demand requires. The patronage of the public is heartily solicited.

POISONED BY BEE STING.

Miss Josie Rowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Rowell of Rhea creek, was severely poisoned by a bee sting on the head Sunday afternoon. Within thirty minutes the young lady's face, arms and body were so badly swollen that she was unrecognizable and was very ill for a day or two. Dr. Johnston was called to minister to her and reports her condition much improved and that she will recover.

'CHILD KICKED BY HORSE.

LaVern, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Haines of Lexington, came near a serious accident Saturday. While playing in the stable, one of the horses kicked at him and fortunately just grazed his face, inflicting a small hole in one cheek. It seems miraculous that the child escaped without more serious injury. Dr. Johnston was called and attended to the injuries.
