

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HEREIM, Correspondent.

A letter to Sam H. Boardman from C. C. Gignoux, agriculturist of the N. P. R. R., is of interest to many Boardman settlers. He in company with R. E. Every of the Holsten-Friesian Association of America will be in Boardman the evening of Aug. 12 to hold a meeting. Representatives from O. A. C. have been asked to attend. Dairy men and others interested are asked to be present.

Miss Bernice Burgess of New Plymouth, Ida., was a guest at the J. F. Gorham home Wednesday and Thursday.

A jolly beach party was held Friday at the bathing beach at Castle Rock. Packards, Duggans, Jenkins and a few others were there. Hamburger was fried over the camp fire and some indulged in swimming. All had a merry time.

Wednesday evening the Rebekahs entertained the members of the I. O. O. F. and their wives at their meeting place in Root's hall. Lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Rands and Mrs. Henry Klages accompanied Mrs. J. F. Gorham to Hermiston Saturday where Mr. Rands had an ulcerated tooth extracted. He has been having an attack of pleurisy also which has made him doubly uncomfortable.

E. T. Messenger and family and Mrs. M. K. Flickinger motored to Sunnyvale last Sunday where they attended the Western Extension Conference of the Brethren church.

Mrs. Allegra Feiss has been elected to fill the position made vacant by the resignation of Mrs. Katherine Mulkey as 7th and 8th grade teacher. Mrs. Feiss comes very highly recommended. She is a musician of ability and has studied music in Germany. She has two children who will attend school here. Mrs. Feiss has rented the home of Mrs. Elli Shell for the school year.

Joe Lytle and W. Hatch were dinner guests Sunday at the J. R. Johnson home.

Wanda Gilbreth is visiting at the Dexter home. Dexters occupy the King house.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Albee and daughter of Los Angeles were visitors at the Highway Inn recently enroute to Montana. Albees and Mr. Warner crossed the plains together in 1882 and had not seen each other since.

A baseball game that caused much amusement and pleasure was held on Sunday when the single men and married men of the project played a game. The single men were victorious.

Billy Davis put a piece of pop corn in one of his cars recently and Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Davis took him to Pendleton to the doctor who removed it.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schriver of Lexington visited Sunday at the Nick Falser home.

Mrs. A. T. Hereim will entertain Ladies Aid Wednesday, Aug. 18, at her home in the East End.

On Tuesday Mrs. Clark entertained at a birthday party at the Nick Gaglia home. Mrs. R. S. Smith and Mary. Mrs. R. S. Davis and two sons and Mrs. J. F. Gorham and two daughters were guests. All had a delightful time.

Mr. Fortier was a Hermiston visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Goodwin made a business trip to Pendleton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Spagle spent the week end at Hubbard, Ore., with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Nate Macomber returned Monday from Pilot Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Hagen and daughters Rose Marie and Agnes, of Elgin, Ore., were guests of Mr. Fortier one day this week.

Ethel Broyles returned Thursday from Pendleton where she completed her summer normal work. On Monday T. E. Broyles and family left for Coifax, Wash.

Truman Messenger and wife of Echo spent the week end with home folks.

Chas. Goodwin picked a melon that weighed 39 pounds from his garden last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bean of Elgin, Ore., stopped off Sunday for a short visit with C. F. Fortier.
