

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HREIM, Correspondent.

Mrs. Jess Allen returned Friday from Clearwater, Neb., after several weeks absence. She was called there because of the serious illness of her father. She left him slowly improving.

A jolly beach party at the Castle Rock beach was given on last Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Keough who were visiting at the Lowell Spagle home. Weenies were roasted and all present had a most enjoyable time.

M. K. Fleckinger had a fortunate runaway one day last week, fortunate because no one was injured and little damage done. His team became frightened at Messner and ran away, stopping at L. C. Cooper's.

Eden Larsen was a visitor at the Hereim home for a short time last Friday. He was on his way to Idaho to work in the harvest fields. Eden who was a youngster when Larsen left here three years ago has grown to manhood and is taller than his father.

That Boardman ranchers can produce most anything is proven by the water melon raised by R. McCarter on the Crawford ranch. It weighed only 58 pounds and required the assistance of neighbors to eat it.

Mr. and Mrs. Tate and twins, Margaret and Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Sargent and son and Miss Akers of Ione, and the Dalsell brothers of Condon were all dinner guests a week ago Sunday at the Alex Warren home. The Dalsell brothers are nephews of Mr. Warren.

Francis King is visiting her grandparents at Gearhart until school begins.

Mrs. C. S. Calkins and daughter Alice came home on Thursday from a pleasant visit at Spokane. Oscar Calkins, the little grandson, came for a visit with them.

Alton Klitz was home for the week end. He is employed on the signal construction gang of the O-W.

Ira Berger and wife of Portland were recent visitors at the Clarence Berger home.

Remember the dates of the North Morrow County fair, Sept. 3 and 4. Exhibitors are cautioned to remember the fact that it is not size alone that counts. Last year a number of exhibitors were disappointed because their displays did not qualify as they were the largest shown. In certain classes, prizes are offered for the largest melon or squash, or perhaps cucumber, but these are not marketable and are curiosities. County Agent Morse states that the big thing in any exhibit is uniformity. Take ear corn for example, 9 uniform ears with one extra large ear will not get as far with a judge as 10 ears that were not so uniform. So please keep this in mind, uniformity is desired rather than monstrosities, although the latter make a good display merely as curiosities.

Bert Richardson and Glen Hadley returned Thursday from a trip to the mountains above Hardman with a huge load of poles.

Mrs. Anna Blayden and son Clarence of Longview, Wn., the former's sister, Mrs. Wm. Thompson and daughter Esther Belle of Corvallis, were recent guests at the J. F. Gorham home. They were enroute to Craigmont, Idaho.

Harry Murchie of Seaside was a Boardman visitor for several days. Mr. Murchie was one of the early settlers here and still has property interests. He came up to do some repair work on his house, occupied by the Gerhams.

Lee Mead and family returned from a most delightful trip to Long Beach, Wash., where they enjoyed a vacation on the beach.

J. C. Ballenger and Harry Murchie were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dingman Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Howell and baby were Boardman visitors one day last week. They drove on to Echo to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Royal Rands. Mr. Rands has been under the doctor's care at Echo for several days.

Mrs. Ella Shell left Friday for a visit of a week or ten days with her brother at Cliffs, Wn. Mrs. Shell has rented her home to Mrs. Allegra Fess and two children. Mrs. Fess is the 7th and 8th grades teacher.

Maxine Ballenger was one of the prize winners at the recent dahlia show at Seaside. This is an annual affair and is quite pretentious.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kelly will arrive August 23 to take up their residence in Boardman for the coming year. They will occupy the Warner house. Mr. Kelly has been attending school at the University of Washington this summer.

Clyde Carr, who taught manual training and science here last year and was reelected, sent in his resignation and has accepted a position elsewhere. Carl Jensen has been elected to fill the place.

Ray Randall and wife and daughter Nadine of Everett, Wash., were house guests at the James Howell home for several days last week, departing for their home on Thursday. They were old friends from Hay Creek where they were neighbors.

Bert King of Portland was a week end visitor at his brother's home.

Thursday Mr. Gonnaux, agricultural agent of the Union Pacific, with the representative of the Holstein-Friesian association, spent the day in Boardman.

Mrs. J. W. Johnson, C. W. Johnson and family and J. T. Johnson and family were all guests Sunday at the J. R. Johnson home. Mrs. J. W. Johnson will remain for a while. Delbert Johnson returned from Wasco after several weeks absence. He has been working in harvest.

Wm. Flewelin, wife and daughter left Sunday for San Antonio, Texas. Mr. Flewelin is a brother of Mrs. A. P. Ayres and came this summer from South Dakota.

Mrs. O. B. Olson and daughters Elide and Norene and son Clifford were visitors at Condon this week, going over to see Mrs. Pat Pattee.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Warner motored to Pendleton on Tuesday.
