

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HERBIM, Correspondent.

Mrs. Mary Cooney returned to her home in Condon last week with Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Cooney who came over for her. Mrs. Cooney was here two weeks during Mrs. L. C. Cooney's illness. The latter is improving.

The school house is being kalsomined this week. This with the many other improvements and repairs being made will make it almost like new.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lee are expected Sunday from their home at Perrydale for a short visit with Boardman friends. They are returning to Pilot Rock where Mr. Lee is principal of the grades. This will be his third year in that position.

Rev. A. D. Swogger and family will return this week from a pleasant vacation trip to California. Church services will be held again Sunday.

A. T. Hereim, Jr., was six years old Saturday and celebrated the event with a party, having 10 of his little playmates in for the afternoon.

Games were played and the birthday cake enjoyed, with other "fats." Balloons were given the little guests as favors. Those present were Teddy Hango, Mardell and Janet Gorham, Irene Cox, Miriam Mulkey, Helen and Catherine Mead, Ruth King, Oscar Calkins, Billy Price and Elizabeth Kristensen.

Dr. Currey was in Boardman on August 26.

Elmer Westerfelt has some white seamless sacks for alfalfa and clover seed which he is selling at 40c each. Hauling will start about the 1st of September. There are about 30 acres of sweet clover and 300 acres of alfalfa to be hulled.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gorham motored to The Dalles a week ago Sunday to see Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Johnston who formerly resided at Messner. On Tuesday, August 16, a boy weighing 9 pounds and 10 ounces came to the Johnstons. The Johnston family came here from Canada about two years ago and Mr. Johnston neglected taking out his naturalization papers in time so they are forced to return to Canada in September.

Mrs. Bert Richardson is expecting a visit from her niece and family of Salem who are coming this week.

Mr. Hatch shipped a large melon weighing 39 pounds and measuring 2 feet, 2 inches, to his son Paul, who is at Beaverton. Paul is a graduate of the local high school and is a fine chap. He has a good position with the electric company at Beaverton. Stanley Hatch is married and lives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson of Paterson were Boardman visitors Sunday, coming to see Mr. Broom regarding the establishment of a school at Blalock Island. This island belongs to the state of Washington so the school is under jurisdiction of that state.

Carl Jensen, the newly elected manual training teacher, was here last week looking for a house. He wishes to bring his mother and two brothers if he can find a house large enough.

Candidates were initiated and later a melon feast was enjoyed and it was indeed a feast with melons of all sizes and shapes, all delicious, juicy ones such as Boardman ranchers can raise.

On Thursday, Sept. 2, Russel J. Ambos will give a lecture at the home of Mrs. Frank Cramer. He will speak on Health and Malnutrition and is a demonstrator of waterless cooking. He makes delicious apple sauce without sugar using peel, core, blossom, everything but the worm. Mr. Ambos cooks potatoes with their skins on and serves them mashed and does other unusual things in the cookery line. To every woman who brings her husband an aluminum pan will be given.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Stamper and children moved Sunday to Echo where Mr. Stamper has the position of highway patrolman. They have been at Boardman for several months.

Mrs. Kenneth Mulkey was the honor guest at a party given by Mrs. A. T. Hereim on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Mulkey leaves this week to make her home in the valley. Her departure is keenly regretted by her many friends. Mrs. Mulkey has been of great help in church work, Sunday school and ladies aid and Wednesday she was presented with some dainty gifts by the members of the aid as a token of remembrance. Games were played and many guests plied their needlework as they visited. The weather man changed plans and forced the guests indoors and lack of space made things crowded but all were glad of the opportunity of honoring Mrs. Mulkey. Mrs. Gilbert of Pendleton and Miss Miriam Elder of Monument were out of town guests. 30 ladies were present. A light luncheon was served. This was the regular meeting of the ladies aid but business was dispensed with for the time. Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Bagley of Los Angeles are guests at the E. T. Messenger and M. L. Flickinger homes. Mrs. Bagley is a cousin of Mrs. Messenger and Mrs. Flickinger. They are on their way home after a delightful motor trip through the east.

The ladies aid will serve ice cream at the fair. On Monday of last week Marvin and Kenneth Ransier were hosts at a joint birthday party having friends of both boys to help celebrate.
