

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HERREIM, Correspondent.

Mrs. Katherin Mulkey and sister Eleanor stopped for a short time in Boardman on their way to Athena near which place Mrs. Mulkey will have a position in one of the rural schools. Mrs. Mulkey was the 7th-8th grade teacher here last year and has many friends who were very much pleased to see her.

Mrs. E. T. Messenger will entertain the members of the Ladies Aid at her home on Sept. 15. This is the regular missionary meeting. This will also be a "welcome home" meeting for Mrs. C. G. Blayden, one of the faithful members since the organization of the aid, who has been absent all summer.

Boardman friends will be interested to hear of the marriage of Dale Watkins of Irrigon and Margaret Morcom of Eugene. Miss Morcom was home economics teacher here one year and it was while in Boardman the romance had its inception. They were married August 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mead and children were guests at an informal dinner on Sunday evening at the Herreim home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bleakman and daughters, Alice and Beth, Mr. and Mrs. John Adams and Mrs. Shaner, all of Hardman, were visitors at the Fair Saturday.

Senator and Mrs. Taylor of Pendleton were in attendance at the Fair on Saturday. A number of Hermiston people were present and several Heppner folks.

Blanche Imus left Sunday night for Pullman, Wash. She has a position as teacher near Pullman. Blanche graduated from the Boardman high school in the class of 1924.

Mrs. Myrtle Bailey and niece of Arlington were Boardman visitors Friday. They were dinner guests at the Eck Warren home at noon and attended the Fair later.

Sam Parkey of Camas, Wash., was a guest at the Chase, Dillon home for a few days last week.

Jake Long of Jordan Valley, a childhood friend of Mrs. Sam Boardman, was an unexpected visitor recently at the Boardman home. 36 years had elapsed since Mrs. Boardman had seen Mr. Long, so of course she did not recognize him, but on making himself known reminiscences were exchanged and a pleasant visit enjoyed. They were friends in their old home in Missouri.

The teachers arrived, some coming Thursday and others Friday and Saturday. Miss Silver spent the summer attending Teachers' College in San Jose, Calif., and enjoyed both her work and her trip. Miss Beougher attended school at Monmouth and spent the rest of her vacation at her home in Albany. Mrs. Fees and two children came Saturday and are nicely located in Mrs. Shell's house. The Misses Kankonen, Falk, Silver and Leathers will probably be domiciled in the Teachers' Cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kelly have been here for some time and are in the Warner house. A splendid school year is anticipated. The teachers are all interested in their work and if every patron will cooperate things must of necessity go along smoothly.

Dwight Calkins came Friday from Spokane for a short visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Calkins, and to take home his small brother Oscar who has been here for several weeks. They left Tuesday for their home.

The budget for the school year is to be voted on Sept. 11th.

J. H. Lamley spent the week end with the Kings and Kristensens, returning Sunday to his home in Astoria.

S. H. Boardman who is a director of the Umatilla Rapids association, attended the recent meeting in Portland. On Saturday he and his son Kenneth returned home. Kenneth has been near Turner, Ore., since June. He is a hay fever victim and was forced to leave to gain relief.

Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Bagley of Chino, Calif., near Los Angeles, left Thursday for Portland and thence on to their home after a pleasant two-weeks visit at the Messenger and Flickinger homes. Mrs. Bagley is a cousin of Mrs. Messenger and Mrs. Flickinger.

Mr. Cutforth and son Orville of Lexington were guests Saturday at the F. F. Klitz home. They attended the fair while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid McReynolds of Walla Walla were guests for a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nate Macomber. Mr. McReynolds is a brother of Mrs. Macomber.

Mr. Ambros gave a demonstration Thursday evening of waterless cookery at the home of Mrs. Frank Cramer. Only a few attended but those present stated that the foods cooked were delicious. He was demonstrating a new method of cooking with a special sort of aluminum utensils.

Paul Partlow and family came home recently from a pleasant trip to Dallas, Ore. They also visited at Cottage Grove and saw Buster Keaton who is making the movie "The General" near that place. Mrs. Partlow canned about 500 quarts of fruit while there.

The premium list is so lengthy that we decided not to have it printed this year.

Johnny McNamee has purchased 1100 lambs to feed this winter.

Bob Ballenger of Portland visited here last week end.

Dr. Miller of Portland was here on Saturday.

Paul Hatch of Beaverton visited his father last week and saw a number of old friends.

Katherine Brown is home from Ellensburg. She will return soon to resume her work at the normal school there.

Minnie Gorgor of Aberdeen, Wn., came Wednesday to spend her vacation with relatives.

Mrs. Sam Shell left Sunday for Umatilla where she will visit. Later she will go to California. She has just returned from a pleasant visit with her brother at Cliffs, Wn., and with relatives at Klickitat.

Orva Calkins, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Calkins, received a dreadful cut on his arm recently. He was playing with a knife and in some manner it slipped and cut him.

Walter Stutte and family of Portland came up over Sunday to visit at the Nick Falter home. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schriever of Lexington were also guests at the Falter home.

Mr. Dexter's two daughters have returned to The Dalles where they will again attend school.

Howard B. Calkins spent two weeks in Spokane on business.

Mrs. Geo. Spring of Portland was a guest at the Falter home a few days last week.

G. R. Mitchell of Goldendale, father of R. C. and Geo. Mitchell, and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Divers of the same place were guests for two days last week at the Mitchell home. Mrs. Divers is a sister of the Mitchell boys. Mitchells took their father over to Kennewick after his visit here.

Mrs. H. H. Weston had a narrow escape last Thursday evening when her car was struck by one driven by E. Hupe of Spokane as she was turning around on the highway near their ranch. No one was injured and Mr. Hupe paid all damages.

Bob Mitene took a load of honey to Klickitat last week. He has made these trips for the past three or four years and has a number of regular customers. While there he saw his little granddaughter, Odessa Mitchell, for the first time. Odessa came May 11th to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Mitchell.

The sum of $27 was netted clear for the Fair dance Saturday night.

Ladies Aid members served lunch both days of the Fair. Everyone was very generous about contributing so a neat sum was realized for the Aid. 25 per cent went to the fair board for expenses as the premium money can be used only for premiums and the expenses for printing, paper used on the tables and the numerous other items must be raised in some other way.

Housekeeping rooms for rent, furnished or partly furnished. Nettie Flower, city. 22-23
