RODEO IS SUCCESS IN SPITE OF COLD

Largest Crowd in History
Present at Saturday's Performance.

TROUB IS CHAMPION

Colfax, Wash., Man Takes Bucking
Laurels; Races Spectacular
Feature Last Day.

Braving the coldest spell this fall the largest crowd in Heppner Rodeo history surrounded the big arena on Saturday to witness the wind-up of the fifth annual presentation of the show. The thermometer hovered near the freezing point Thursday and Friday and though Old Sol's face beamed brightly all day Saturday, a cold northeast wind put an edge to the atmosphere that made spectators button overcoats close under their chins and caused many to huddle up in Indian blankets besides. The cold kept many away from the arena on Thursday and Friday, but on Saturday they came anyway, and it is estimated more than 2500 people witnessed the Saturday performance.

Campbell's American band from Portland was on hand the second day and helped in livening things up. The C. F. Zeiger shows were here for the whole occasion and did their bit toward furnishing amusement with merry-go-round, glider, ferris wheel, concessions and shows. The band also furnished the orchestra for the dances at the pavilion each evening, which proved big drawing cards.

Miss Eva Wilcox of Lexington, queen of the Rodeo, headed the big parade on Friday and Saturday, attended by her sister Miss Doris Wilcox and Miss Kathryn Blisbee of Heppner. Miss Wilcox was charming in her colorful cowboy togs, and showed herself to be perfectly at home in the saddle on her big white horse. She is a true American type girl, and a worthy product of the farm. Shortly after the Rodeo Miss Wilcox will go to Oregon Agricultural college to take advantage of a Union Pacific scholarship which she won in girls' club work.

Financially, it is believed the Rodeo was a success, though receipts were but a trifle more than last year with expenses considerably larger. More than $4000 was taken in from all sources.

The show picked up as the crowd increased, and the final performance was snappier than any previous exhibition, besides events on the whole being much above par. Spectators, though chilly and restless during the lulls, were engrossed in the exhibition and displayed eagerness and expectancy for new events as the show progressed. This spirit prevailed until the bucking finals were announced, which served to climax the Rodeo in grand style, the crowd forgetting itself and the cold entirely to cheer their favorite buckaroos.

Bert Troub won the bucking championship with one of the most spectacular riding exhibitions of the three days, riding Ben Bolt to the finish. Though Ben Bolt sun-fished, lunged, twisted and dived and did most everything a real bad horse could do, he expected to do, just as if he had saved everything he had for this final bout. Bert rode him, and scratched him some. But many say it wasn't as pretty a ride at that as the ride Bert made the day before on Black Diamond, said to be the toughest bucking horse of the lot. Anyway, both rides together showed Bert to be championship timber, and there could be little doubt of his earning the laurels. Troub, who hails from Colfax, Wash., at all times showed himself to be a clean contender, and made a good impression on the crowd.

Some dissatisfaction was expressed over the second choice made by the judges, John Kenney, Howard Lane and Art Seale, however. They named Red Shepard of Cheyenne, Wyo., for second place, and Kenneth Dewep of Ukiah for third place. These were the only ones left in the finals to receive citation as the other contestants bit the dust. Fred Nichols was dumped by Bluebird and Jack Terry left the top deck of Colored Boy, both these horses bucking at worst form. Shepard rode Rim Rock easily when he refused to do his stuff, after he had got most of his bucking out during the saddling process, while Dewep had rather tropical going on Black Diamond's surging back, not having much time to take him for want of staying up. He did some beautiful riding all told and many spectators believed he should have been more favored by the judges.

Lloyd Matteson qualified for the finals but was refused a chance to ride on account of being hurt in the semi-finals. He went off the back of Ron Gurdane after the gun was shot and was run over by a pick-up horse. Jack Terry was also crippled, getting a foot broken the first day, but rode through to the finals just the same. He hobbled up to his horse in the finals on crutches, as he had done on Friday, and in the semi-finals on Saturday, displaying an unlimited amount of grit.

Twenty-five cowboys entered the list for the bucking contests the first day, the largest number ever to ride at the Heppner Rodeo. This number was cut to 14 for the second day, and 12 buckaroos got into the semi-finals. A large number of those disqualified were thrown.

The races were all close Saturday, making them spectacular, and the Morrow county derby especially thrill-

Registration Books Will Close Saturday, Oct. 2

Attention of the residents of Morrow county who have failed to register, or renew their registration, is called to the fact that the books will be closed on Saturday, October 2nd.

A survey of the lists reveals the fact that many have failed to attend to this duty, and when it comes time to vote, large numbers of these people will be wanting to cast their ballots, and this will necessitate a lot of trouble for the election boards, as well as take up valuable time. Why not attend to it now and be prepared. You will have to hurry for the time is very limited.

LOST—A bunch of about 12 keys. Finder return to this office. Reward. Dependable dressmaking done in your own home. P. O. Box 598, Heppner.

Mrs. Tony Garland and young son departed for their home at Cuprum, Idaho, on Sunday, being taken as far as Pendleton by Glenn Jones. Mrs. Garland was a guest for a couple of weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Jones.

Soph-Frosch Field Day Comes Off Tomorrow

Soph-Frosch field day is a new event instituted at Heppner high school to take place at Rodeo field tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. On this occasion the freshmen and sophomore classes will mix it in a series of athletic events to determine whether the freshmen shall be allowed to place their pennant on the wall of the high school auditorium. This event takes the place of the old pole fight that was conducted for a like purpose, and the freshmen must win to gain the desired privilege.

Townpeople, who are invited to attend, will be made aware of the meet by a noise parade to be staged preceding the program at the field. Both boys and girls of the two classes will take part, the events including the following: tug of war, bag rush, field marking race in which each class will mark half of the gridiron, crab race, and girls' relay race. Scoring will be on the point system by competent judges.

FIRST GAME OF SEASON.

The first high school football game of the season in Heppner will be played at Rodeo field on Saturday, October 2, at 2:30. Coach Johnson has a promising bunch of proteges and the townspeople are asked to lend their utmost support.

ed the stands. Red Boy, entered by Lonnie Copenhaver and jockeyed by Albert Lawson, topped the derby race and $100 first prize money. Red Boy is a Morrow county horse, being owned and bred by B. F. Swaggart. Arden Gilliland's prize racer came in second and another horse entered by Copenhaver took third place. The derby was a new feature of this year's show and there were four entries.

The wind-up of the three-day relay race was probably the most spectacular part of this event. White and Gilliland ran a dead heat most of the way with Copenhaver sticking close to their heels. Gilliland, however, had considerable edge on the time the previous days and won the event. Time for the three days was Gilliland 11:09 1/2, White and Dewep 11:29 1/2, Copenhaver 12:14 2-5. Copenhaver was a close runner-up until the second day when in the second lap his horse, jockeyed by Clinton Harper, hit White's pony at the send-off, dumping both pony and rider, crippling both and preventing them from continuing the race. Copenhaver was forced to run his third horse two laps at a great loss of time.

Close time was made in the pony express race, another three-day event. Arden Gilliland took first in this also, with Copenhaver's string placing second. Time for three days: Gilliland 6:47 1/2, Copenhaver 6:50 3-5, White and Dewep 7:00 1/2.

One of the most thrilling events of the three days was the Roman race, run by Neil White and Kenneth Dewep, both of Ukiah, Friday and Saturday. White lost out on Friday when his horses spread, causing him to fall. But on Saturday their team ran a dead heat all the way without mishap. In this race each rider runs two horses, while guiding them from a standing position, with one foot on each horse's back.

Results of the other events follow: Saddle Horse Race—First day: L. Copenhaver 1st, G. Swaggart 2nd; second day: Rooney 1st, L. Copenhaver 2nd; third day: Copenhaver 1st, Buck Padberg 2nd.

Calf Roping—Time first day: Jack Barber 24 2-3, Tony Vey 50 2-5, Shanks 53; second day: Joe Kenny 51, Tony Vey 53, Geo. Attebury 53 1/2; third day: Joe Kenny 45, Shanks 45 1/2, Chuck Jennings 50.

Boys' Pony Race—First day: Copenhaver 1st, Neil White 2nd; second day: Reaney 1st, Copenhaver 2nd; third day: Gilliland 1st, Copenhaver 2nd.

Male Riding—First day: Dewep 1st, Joe Roub 2nd; second day: Stubby Johnson 1st, Joe Roub 2nd; third day, Johnson 1st, Dewep 2nd.

Steer and Bull Riding—First day: Bert Troub 1st, Bobby Dyer and Jim Casey 2nd; second day: Stubby Johnson 1st.

Barrel Race—Kenneth Dewep first all three days. Steer Maverick Race—First two days only: Tony Vey and Joe Kenny winners. Quick Change Race—Last two days only: Kenneth Dewep 1st, Emery Moore 2nd both days. Chariot Race—J. E. Keyes winner of three day event.

LENA-VINSON ROAD TO BE SURFACED

State Commission Authorizes Advertising for October Let.

GRADING IS FINISHED

Commissioners Bleakman and Davidson Attend Meeting in Portland on Behalf of County.

The completion of the Oregon-Washington highway is now in sight. Contractor Wallace, who has been pushing the work of grading at a rapid rate since beginning on the job last fall, reports to this paper that he has finished his work, and the job has been accepted by Division Engineer Smith, this formality being gone through with on Tuesday. Mr. Wallace further states that the road is now open to travel by the public and all barriers have been removed.

Touching this matter, good news comes from the meeting at Portland on Tuesday of the state highway commission. This meeting was attended by members of our county court, commissioners Bleakman and Davidson, and action was taken looking to the advertising of bids for the surfacing of this gap from Jones hill to Vinson, the work to begin just as soon as the contract is awarded, to be done at the meeting of the commission in October. While this is a little late, perhaps about two months behind what it should be, it is nevertheless gratifying to Morrow county people to know that there is to be no extended delay. It had been feared that the commission would not be able to put this work ahead on the calendar as far as this, and that it might be a year, at least, before the surfacing was undertaken. At the meeting Tuesday there was action taken on the closing of gaps elsewhere, and it will not be long now until work under way in these main highways will be completed and all gaps closed. This is the policy of the commission, and they are carrying it out rapidly.

Harry Turner Named Champion Sack Sewer

Twelve throwers of the flat needle vied for honors in the preliminaries of the sack sewing contest, a feature of the Morrow County Wool and Grain show, on Friday. Of this number six sewed in the finals Saturday. Harry Turner was declared the best all-around sewer with Chas. Ritchie crowding him hard. Glen Ball of Lone placed third.

The contestants filled and sewed five sacks in the preliminaries and ten in the finals. They were scored on the point system, as follows: time 25, workmanship 35, weight 20 and cleanliness 10, making a possible score of 100. Turner's score was 86, Ritchie's 84 and Ball's 80 2-3. On the second day there was but 4-5 of a second difference between Turner's and Ritchie's time, the former's time being 7:54 and the latter's 7:54 1/2.

Runners up were A. P. Parker, just this week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McCullough. Miss Groshen has a position with the big store of Meier & Frank in Portland, and returned to the city today with Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Anderson, whom she accompanied to Heppner.

Wool and Grain Show Has Good Representation

A large number of farmers entered exhibits at the Morrow County Wool and Grain show held during the Rodeo, furnishing a good example of the grades and quality of the wool and grain raised in this locality. B. B. Bayles, of the Morrow experiment station judged the wheat, and Herbert Bentley, representative of the Pacific Cooperative Wool Growers, judged the wool. A number of the prize wheat exhibits have been held over to display at Portland at the grain show to be held in connection with the Pacific International Live Stock exposition next month.

Owing to the lack of exhibits in the coarse wool class, a separate classification was made of buck fleeces. Results of the judging will be published next week.

Supt. Walker Takes Boys And Girls to State Fair

Mrs. Helen M. Walker, county school superintendent, departed the first of the week for Salem, where she goes with the boys and girls of Morrow county who were winners in the club work.

FATHER DIES AT THE DALLES.

Mrs. Hanson Hughes was called to The Dalles on Friday afternoon in answer to word announcing the grave illness of her father, Nicholas Hoffman. Mr. Hoffman, who was ill at a hospital in The Dalles, underwent an operation, and following this he suffered a stroke of paralysis and death resulted on Sunday. He was past 80 years of age, was a Civil War veteran, and had been a resident of The Dalles for about 25 years. His funeral is being held at The Dalles this afternoon.

RALLY DAY! RALLY DAY!

One hundred and fifty wanted in the Bible School on Sunday! Is it possible? Easiest thing in the world. How? Every member of the church and school present. And listen! We are not started yet. If every member were present and brought a friend we would show that goal so far under we would be ashamed of it. Can we do it? Sure, if we want to. And do not forget that we are all to have our pictures taken at the close of Sunday school. Be in on it. The morning preaching service will combine the Junior congregation with the regular service and the pastor will give an illustrated sermon. The evening sermon will be "Saving Ourselves."

MILTON W. BOWER, Minister.

Ralph Florence of Willow creek was brought to Heppner Surgical hospital on Tuesday, suffering from high blood pressure and kidney trouble. He was taken quite ill at his home, and the bursting of a blood vessel has caused temporary paralysis of one arm. While quite sick at present, his physician, Dr. McMurdo, is hopeful that he may be straightened out before many days.

Miss Odile Groshen has been a guest this week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McCullough. Miss Groshen has a position with the big store of Meier & Frank in Portland, and returned to the city today with Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Anderson, whom she accompanied to Heppner.

Friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Erik Bergstrom surprised them at their Gooseberry home on Sunday August 26, to tender them a farewell party. Coffee was served, too, besides escalloped potatoes, baked beans and other good things too numerous to mention.

After dinner some pitched horse shoes while others played other outdoor games. Mr. and Mrs. Bergstrom were very much surprised but seemed glad to see everyone as they probably wouldn't have had another opportunity of seeing many of those present. Dempsey and Milton.
Movies as Salesmen.
Do You Want a Bison?
Sweeping the Heavens.

A sympathetic editorial writer bewails the fact that Jack Dempsey got 14,000 times what Milton got for writing "Paradise Lost."

On the other hand, Milton probably would rather write "Paradise Lost" for $70 than beat Tunney for $1,000,000. Abraham Lincoln would rather have written his Gettysburg speech for nothing than beat Tunney and Dempsey both. Some things to some men are more important even than cash.

The outside world resents United States domination of moving pictures. These pictures are marvelous salesmen, selling in all lands American clothing, automobiles, furniture, lamps, and especially the American idea of comfortable living.

Six of the Indian princes that share with the British taxation of their subjects offer $5,000,000 to help British films displace American films. As Mr. Mellon said when somebody offered him $70,000,000 cash for his oil company: "That isn't enough." You can't make moving pictures with dollars only, any more than you can sing high C with dollars. You must know how.

It is said automobiles keep half the voters away from the polls, and "absentee balloting" is suggested.

Also, "Golf keeps men away from the churches."

The remedy is to make politics as interesting as golf. With Henry Ward Beecher in a big church, or Billy Sunday in a revival tent, the caddies, not the clergymen, would complain.

Philosophers from many countries gathered in Cambridge, Massachusetts, tell the world, "Materialistic theories cannot explain the marvels of the living world."

Materialism cannot explain anything for the reason, among others, that there is no such thing as matter. Reduce solid steel or floating feather to the so-called ultimate atom. Examine the atom and you find a small solar system like our own, the nucleus for sun, little electrons flying around it for planets. Matter is only particles of electric energy. And no one knows what that is.

A scientist said, "I have swept the heavens with my telescope and find no trace of God." A dissector of the human body said, "I have gone all through the human brain, and find no trace of thought, soul or mind."

Nevertheless, thought, soul and mind do exist in that little universe we call the brain. A greater mind exists SOMEWHERE in that greater brain, THE UNIVERSE.

Senator Caraway of Arkansas wants the United States to dig up and bring to America the bodies of 30,000 American soldiers buried on French soil. He says Europeans hate us so intensely that he saw insulting lines scribbled on the white crosses above the graves of our soldiers.

The dead soldiers would say, "It was the biggest kind of joke when we were taken from our homes, shipped across the sea to die in a war not our own, and to lie here dead, killed in the quarrels of European high finance and royalty."

"One more joke, that of hatred, can't make any difference. Let us lie in peace."

What man WANTS to do, he can do. A little while ago the noble bison was dying out everybody had said farewell to him. Now the Government, with herds of bison on its hands, offers you a vigorous live bison for $85, that you couldn't have bought for $5,000 a little while ago.
