BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HEREIM, Correspondent.

Much interest is being shown in the proposed "Evening of Old Songs" to be given by the Ladies Aid Oct. 6. Plans are being made so parents who must bring their little folks to town can leave them in competent hands at the homes of Boardman residents, that the parents may be free to thoroughly enjoy the evening. A male quartette has been arranged and several numbers will be given, duets, a mixed quartette, solos, readings, community singing. All will be enjoyed and all the old songs will be sung.

A teachers' reception was given on Friday night at the school house with about a hundred present. Instead of a formal reception a very informal affair was given with some games that caused much amusement and broke the ice very decidedly. Mrs. Lee Mead and pupil, Linda Hango, played a piano duet that was greatly enjoyed. Linda is a talented little musician and is making fine progress under her instructor. Several community songs were sung. Mrs. Allegra Fees, the 7th and 8th grades teacher, played two piano selections. She is a splendid musician. An old fashioned spelling match was held that caused much interest. Mrs. S. H. Boardman was the last to go down on Mr. Calkins' side and Mrs. Fred Kelly, wife of the superintendent, was the best speller of the evening. She was a member of Miss Sliver's side. Some surprising things were brought out at this match and some of the older folks "spelled down" many of the pupils. Later the crowd went to the cafeteria where coffee and cake were served. Mrs. A. T. Hereim was toastmistress and introduced C. S. Calkins, who responded for the district, Mrs. E. T. Messenger for the patrons and Mr. Kelly for the faculty. Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Warner and E. T. Messenger motored to Pendleton Thursday.

Robert Rayburn went to Portland with his brother and wife who were here visiting. He will be gone for another week or so.

Bob Partlow motored Sunday to Pendleton to see Frank Partlow who was so terribly injured last week when a circular saw jumped over the tie he was sawing and struck him in the forehead. Frank was getting along as well as could be expected. The packing was to be removed shortly and if he survives that he will have an excellent chance for recovery. It was a terrible accident and nothing short of miraculous that it did not terminate in instant death. Everyone is hoping for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. R. S. Davis and Edna Broyles spent Friday and Saturday in Portland shopping.

Nat Chaffee and family of Eugene visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Chaffee for several days last week.

Frank Otto, the Delano Bros, Chas. Marshall, Mike Marshall and Kathleen were Boardman residents who attended the Rodeo at Heppner Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Allen of Olex spent Sunday with home folks.

Besse Cruikshank and Katherine Brown left Sunday for Ellensburg, Wash., where they will attend normal school.

School is being conducted at the island with about 10 pupils. Miss Ashby of Kennewick is the teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Farrell and family and Miss Maddox of Madras were dinner guests Sunday at the R. S. Davis home.

J. C. Ballenger went to Seaside to visit his family for a few days.

C. G. Blayden and son-in-law Orren Talbot spent a few days in Walla Walla on business, returning home Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Talbot plan to leave this week for their home in San Diego after a pleasant visit at the Blayden and Gorham homes. Mr. Talbot is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blayden.

Miss Edna Broyles, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fetzer and son Paul of Umatilla, were dinner guests Tuesday evening at the Ralph Davis home.

Jasper Sarkinson, section foreman at Castle returned Friday from The Dalles where he has been in the hospital for a week.

Mr. Togg returned to his home in Gearhart last week after a 2-weeks' visit with his daughter, Mrs. W. O. King and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Otho Stahl and family of Pendleton were visitors for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ransier. Mrs. Stahl is a sister of Mrs. Ransier.

Last Wednesday John Brice, Chas. Nizer, A. P. Ayrtts and C. S. Calkins motored up to the sheep country 45 miles out of Pendleton. It was a most disagreeable trip with rain, wind and mud and steep slippery roads and no chains. On Saturday W. O. King, Nels Kristensen and Mr. Calkins went and some fine sheep were purchased. John Brice purchased 10 registered sheep and Mr. Calkins 21 registered head. The others purchased pure bred sheep. All were Rambouilletes.

I. L. Patterson, candidate for governor, was in Boardman Tuesday.

L. G. Smith of Seaside was a Boardman visitor last Tuesday.

Pomona Grange will meet Saturday, October 2. Details next week.

Boardman women are again asked to assist in sending an exhibit of canned goods, bread, rolls, pies, etc., and fancy work to the Hog & Dairy show at Hermiston. Boardman sent quite a pretentious exhibit last year and it is hoped that a larger one can be sent this year.

A dance was given at Mitchell's pavilion Saturday night.

Friends of the Healeys will be interested to learn of the marriage of their son Norman on Sept. 6 at Oakland, Calif. The young couple will make their home in Portland.

J. C. Ballenger went to Pendleton Tuesday on business.
