

NEWS NOTES FROM STATE MARKET AGT.

Free Lime Booklet.

The State Lime Board has compiled an 8-page booklet containing much valuable information for farmers in the use of agricultural lime in maintenance of soil fertility, which may be had on request at the office of the State Market Agent, 712 Court House, Portland, or of the State Lime Board, Salem. Practically all of the soils of the Willamette valley and coast counties are in acid condition and the matter of bringing them back to high fertility is of outstanding importance.

Fined for Short-Weighing.

The state potato law provides that in sale or shipment of potatoes in lots of 50 pounds or more the stock must be graded and the grade and seller's name stenciled on the sacks. A large Portland fruit and produce company put out potatoes in sacks of slightly less than 50 pounds in weight, thus evading the grading and stenciling provisions, and put them on sale, but the sacks were marked 50 pounds. The state weights and measures department promptly arrested them for short-weighing, when they were fined $15 and the court costs.

Larger Wheat Surplus.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates there will be an increase of 14 per cent in the acreage of winter wheat in the United States next year, while there will not be any material increase outside of this country. If the winter and spring wheat yields in the United States shall equal the ten year average, the Department estimates the exportable surplus will be considerably larger than that of this year.

Mint Acreage Increasing.

Reports are that a 3000-acre mint crop is being harvested in the Willamette valley this fall, an increase of about 2000 acres over last year. Mint has been found a profitable crop in the valley when grown on suitable soils. It is reported that on irrigated fields $175 per acre can be produced, while the cost per acre is about $75.

Canada Leads in Co-Operation.

Canada is making more advancement in the way of co-operative marketing of agricultural products than any other country of the world. Approximately 430,000 farmers out of a total of 700,000 in the Dominion are selling their products through such organizations, to the value of $300,000,000. Canadians respond readily and loyally to the movement and many powerful co-operatives are being built up. When more than 50 per cent of the farmers of a country of the size of Canada combine for mutual protection, there is significance in the co-operative movement.

One Hundred Tons of Horses.
Rossi & Orselli of Beaverton have a horse ranch of 23 acres that is attracting considerable state attention. The farm is beaver dam, tiled, and from it they have sold one hundred tons; 50 tons of grade No. 1 and nearly the same of grades Nos. 2 and 3. The owners say they cannot supply the orders received and that there are ready markets on the Pacific coast for far more of the roots than they can produce.

Favorable Trade Showing.

In July of this year our exports increased $29,000,000 and our imports $14,000,000 over the same month last year.

OREGON POEMS ACCEPTED.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Oct. 20.—Acceptance of poems written by four graduates of the University of Oregon for the November issue of the American Mercury has been announced. Margaret Skavlan, Irene Stewart, Walter Evans Kidd and Helmer Park are the authors. These poems will be published with a group of about twelve by Oregon poets. They were chosen from a big number submitted to Charles Oluf Olsen of Portland who recently made arrangements with H. L. Mencken, after the Mercury has published a group from Oklahoma.

ELECT

Frederick Steiwer
U. S. SENATOR

ELECT

I. L. Patterson
GOVERNOR

The election of Steiwer as U. S. Senator from Oregon is of national importance. By virtue of republican control of the senate Senator McNary holds the chairmanship of the important irrigation and agriculture committees. If the voters of this state should go so far as to select a democrat it might mean a loss of republican control of the senate and a consequent surrender of Senator McNary's vital committee chairmanships.

A vote for Steiwer, the regular republican primary nominee is a vote for republican control of national affairs.

Patterson is familiar with the problems that would confront him as Governor of Oregon. A farmer, he understands the problems of the farmer. A business man he knows the needs of business. He promises fair and just treatment for all. He will seek to lower taxes through a reduction of the cost of state government. He will not follow established precedent and spend most of his time away from the state capitol.

Patterson will be your governor, on the job, attending to the business of the state as it accrues.
