A decade or so ago the Bigbee brothers were famed in college athletic circles, the three of them being on almost every University of Oregon team during their matriculation period at that institution. Carson "Skeet" Bigbee attracted the attention of big league baseball managers and following his career at the university played on the Pittsburgh Pirates team for seven years, being one of several players who parted company with that organization this fall when he sided with the team captain in opposition to the management in an argument that arose. "Skeet" and "Buck" spent several days in Heppner this week from their Portland home, guests at the home of La Verne Van Marter, fellow collegian and old time friend, who conducted them on several hunts for Chinese pheasants and jackrabbits. They say it's a great life.

E. F. Smith returned on Monday from Brogan, Oregon. He spent several weeks in the Brogan valley engaged in apple picking. When the big freeze came along a short time ago it rather knocked the picking game in the head. Embur stators, as the apples began falling in large numbers. The crop over there was heavy this season but the market is poor and apples are selling at 70 cents the box for the best grades while very small shipments to outside markets are being made.

Billy Swanson of Ione has been at Heppner for several days during the week on jury duty. Mr. Swanson who is engaged in the feed business at Ione, was well pleased to have the big shower of rain the end of the week, and thinks that seeding can now be proceeded with quite generally in the country north of Ione. Much more moisture is required, however, and he is hopeful that this may arrive before freezing weather sets in.

District Attorney Notson departed Tuesday night for Portland, where on Wednesday he attended a meeting of the Republican State Central committee, called for the purpose of naming a candidate for the office of public service commissioner, made vacant on the ballot by the resignation of Thomas K. Campbell, present incumbent and re-nominated at the May primaries.

Word was received in Heppner Tuesday forenoon that the First Bank of Pilot Rock had closed its doors. Report has it that owing to extensive loans made to farmers of the community on which they could not realize, the bank's officials were forced to take this step. It is expected, however, that the bank will be reopened in about 60 days.

T. E. Broyles of Boardman was kept busy serving as a juror during the past week at the session of circuit court in this city. Mr. Broyles is one of the prominent residents on the Boardman project and gives a pretty favorable report of conditions there for this season. We acknowledge a very pleasant call from him while here.

Harry French was called from his home south of Hardman to serve as a juror on Monday. He was able to get to town but has been suffering with an illness and had to get out of his sick bed to appear in court. He is some better, however, and expects to be fully recovered within a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Knauff of Boardman are the proud parents of a 10 1/2 pound girl born Tuesday at Boardman. Dr. Johnston reports mother and baby doing nicely.

Sheriff M. V. Logan was here for a short time on Wednesday from Condon. He was accompanied by Mrs. Logan who has but recently returned from Portland where she has been under treatment in a hospital for the past seven months. Sheriff Logan was formerly a resident of this county, living many years at Cecil and later moving into Gilliam county. Long years ago he was a resident of Heppner and attended the public school here.

W. H. French of Hardman who has been ill at the Morrow General hospital was released the first of the week and has returned home. Mr. French reports raising some mighty fine potatoes of the Earliest of All variety on his farm this season, which though not growing large on account of the lack of moisture, were very clean. He intends saving them for seed, believing this crop valuable in his vicinity.

A wedding of last week, overlooked by this paper, was that of Miss Shirley Prophet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Prophet of this city, to Mr. La Vaughn Hiatt, also of Heppner. The ceremony was performed by Rev. I. V. Parker, pastor of the Methodist church, on Saturday, October 9th. The young people are making their home in Heppner at present.

The marriage of Miss Elnior G. Peck of this county to Paul A. Morey of Yakima, Wash., took place on Saturday evening at the home of Milton W. Bower, pastor of the Christian church, Mr. Bower officiating. The young people departed for Seattle, Wash., on a honeymoon trip and will make their future home in the state of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bauman departed Wednesday on an extensive auto trip. Going from here to Portland, they will visit a short time in that city, take in other points in Oregon and then go to Olympia, Seattle and other Washington points, expecting to be absent a couple of weeks, at least.

W. V. Crawford arrived from Portland Monday morning and has accepted a position with Patterson & Son, druggists, in this city. For the past year and more Mr. Crawford has been with the Remington Cash Register company at Portland.

The Willing Workers of the Christian church announce that they will hold their annual bazaar at the church parlors on December 10th. They will offer for sale at this time many good and useful articles. 30-1f.

Clarence Carmichael received a broken rib in the football game at Lexington Sunday and was attended by Dr. Johnston.

Dr. Johnston was called to Ione on Sunday to attend the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark.

Hero

Clifford Sims came in from Portland Tuesday night. He has been spending a few days in Portland from his home at Medford, and getting the bird fever, came up to shoot a few mongolians while the season is on.

R. B. Rice was in the city from his home north of Lexington Saturday. A big rain out that way put the summerfall in shape for seeding and Mr. Rice expected to get busy on Monday of this week.

Henry Peterson, lower Eight Mile wheatraiser, was in the city on Saturday from his farm home. He reports that his fall seeding is all done, and some real good rains are now acceptable.

Miss Reita Neill, who has been spending a couple of weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, departed Tuesday for her home at Yakima, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Helms of Ione are being congratulated on the arrival of a 10-pound boy, born Friday October 15. Dr. Johnston reports mother and baby doing nicely.

Judge James A. Fee, Pendleton attorney, returned to his home in that city on Wednesday, after attending sessions of the circuit court here for several days.

Attention Scouts: The next regular meeting of the troop will be at the church on Tuesday evening next at 7 o'clock. Milton W. Bower.

Tom McDandel, farmer residing north of Lexington, has been a resident of Heppner during this and last week, while serving as a juror in circuit court.

W. L. Hines of Forest Grove who has been ill at the Morrow General hospital has returned home.

Mrs. Merle Kirk underwent a minor operation at the Morrow General hospital and has returned home.

Dr. Johnston was in Boardman Sunday with the county court on business.
