

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HERRIM, Correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Launtz of The Dalles were guests Sunday at the Geo. Gross home. Mr. Launtz is the present owner of the Albright ranch which Mr. Gross has farmed the past year. Grosses have moved to the Lee Mead ranch but will farm Mr. Launtz's ranch again next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Macomber of Olex were week end guests at the Nate Macomber home. Jay Cox came up with them also. He has been driving a truck there for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schriever of Lexington were guests Sunday at the Nick Falser home.

Errors last week: Jack Gorham received a shaving set consisting of shaving cream, powder, etc., instead of toilet water and perfume as reported. The latter would really be too effeminate for one who was accorded the honor of the laziest man. Anyone who knows Jack knows that the honor was a joke. Second error: Mrs. Boardman and Mrs. Allen went to Pendleton instead of Portland to attend the Women's Synodical meeting.

Mrs. R. S. Davis entertained a congenial group at one o'clock luncheon on Thursday at her home. This is the same group of women that have been meeting the past several weeks for luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bechtolt of Hardman were guests for several days last week at the J. R. Johnson home. The Ladies Aid have set December 3 as the date for their bazaar.

Roy Campbell, division manager for the Standard Oil in Portland, spent several days this week at the W. O. King home, hunting pheasants. He is Bert King's boss at the Portland office. Bert King spent his vacation here, a week hunting deer and the second week hunting pheasants.

Mr. and Mrs. Helms, who have been living on the Signs place, have a 10-pound boy, William George, who arrived October 15 at Ione. Mrs. Helms is staying with her mother at that place.

On November 23 Mrs. Bancroft, district secretary for Home Missions, will be in Boardman. An afternoon meeting will be held at the church, supper served at 6 o'clock, and an evening program given.

Harry Warren was hunting pheasants here last week. He was a former owner of the Boardman Trading company.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cruikshank and family moved last week from Blalock Island to the Wm. Hatch place.

Nellie Messenger came home last week from The Dalles where she has been working for the Libby, McNeil company since May.

Mrs. Geo. Spring and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Dusen and Mr. Van Dusen, Sr., left Wednesday for their home in Portland after a pleasant visit at the Nick Falser home. They enjoyed a few days of hunting.

Kenneth Nottingham of Portland, grandson of Mrs. Chas. Attebury, is recovering from a long illness, having had an attack of infantile paralysis. His left side is paralyzed. Nottingham visited the Attebury home about fair time and it was while here he became ill. It is hoped that he will regain the use of his muscles. Many marvelous cures have been made by physicians and surgeons after such an attack.

F. C. Dillingham was greeting his friends in Boardman Wednesday. He was the genial manager of the Boardman Trading company and made many friends while here. His home is at Lebanon, Ore.

The road election for this district will be held Nov. 6 as was stated in the last issue of the G. T.

Falser have been having a full house during the hunting season. On the opening day there were 16 present. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schmitzer were up Sunday and Monday, Louis Hammerlink and Dr. Shreman were also present on Sunday.

Of interest to Boardman friends is the result of Mr. Dexter's summer's work. Mr. Dexter rented the Hines place for the year and he also had approximately an acre of onions over by the John Jenkins ranch. Mr. Dexter raised 7 tons of onions on this piece and he informed us last week that on figuring up costs he had made as much on the acre of onions as he had on the hay on the Hines ranch. Of course this comparison is scarcely

WHERE CHAMPIONS ARE MADE

"SARA ANN DUPLICATE"

Grand Champion Holstein Cow at Pacific International Livestock Exposition and "All-American" Aged Cow for 1925. Owned by C. S. Potter, Ogden, Utah.

If Cliff Potter of Ogden, Utah, had kept his Holstein cow at home, she would have been known only to the people of Utah as a very good cow. But Cliff Potter is a man of vision and he sent his Holstein, "Sara Ann Duplicate" into the hottest competition to be found in America—she came to the Pacific International Livestock Exposition in 1925. There she was made Grand Champion Holstein of the show and later was made the wonder-cow of the breed for the year, having received the honor of the "All-American aged cow—an honor which is outstanding in the Holstein breed.

The best livestock of the various breeds will always be found at Pacific International and this year will be no exception. Therefore, lovers of livestock should make it a point to set aside the week of Oct. 30-Nov. 6 for their annual livestock vacation and education.

It is an inspiration to go through the various departments of this big fair as the Hines ranch has been rented for years and the alfalfa stand is poor, but nevertheless it goes to prove the frequent assertion that this land is too expensive for raising alfalfa and is better adapted to growing onions, asparagus, cucumbers and such crops. Possibilities are unlimited.

The P. T. A. will meet on Tuesday evening, Nov. 2, at the schoolhouse. This is the regular meeting night and a large attendance is desired. Let's have a peppy, live organization.

Brice Dillabough and family have moved into town and are located in the Sherman house.

On Friday Mrs. Freeman Fortier was the inspiration for a delightful post-nuptial shower given by a group of Boardman matrons at the home of Mrs. J. F. Gorham. 38 were present and all had an enjoyable time. Some amusing games were played, musical numbers enjoyed. Advice to the bride, written in rhyme brought forth some amusing and clever efforts. A paragon of an occurrence at Pendleton the day of the wedding caused much merriment. Mrs. Fortier was indeed showered and received a host of beautiful and useful gifts. An elaborate luncheon was served by Mrs. Gorham and her assistants.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kelly were visitors at the county seat Sunday. Both Sunday School trucks are running and on Sunday the church is well filled instead of the usual meagre handful.

Boardman teachers are becoming golf fans. Miss Leathers, Miss Beougher, Mr. Jantzen and Miss Falk are the latest addicts.

Mr. Jantzen was an overnight guest at the Herrim home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Cooney were pleasantly surprised Sunday morning about 3:30 by some unexpected guests. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spahn, Hub Spahn, Miss Josephine Nelson, John Weaver, Harry Nelson and Chas. Dilly, all of Portland, came up for the last day of hunting. The men bagged several "Chinks" while the women prepared an elaborate chicken dinner. All had a most delightful visit.

The noon hour has been shortened 15 minutes at school to give more time for class work. School is progressing finely this year with cooperation between patrons, teachers and pupils.

A game between Arlington and Boardman town football teams was scheduled for Sunday but was cancelled as Arlington was short two players.

Miss La Velle Leathers and Miss school superintendent, was a visitor at the high and grade schools last week.

Several young people of Hardman journeyed over to Lone Rock Friday, Oct. 22, where they attended a big dance. They reported a good time.

Robert Burnside, who has been ill for some time is now going to work at the road camp in the mountains. The I. O. O. F. dance given here last Saturday evening was a great success. Everyone had a good time and is looking forward to the next one.

Several of the young people of Hardman attended a play and dance given by the Grange of Monument. They returned Sunday, reporting a good time.

The Hardman grade school is planning a masquerade party for October 29th.
