IGONE-HEPPNER GAME.

Ione and Heppner played their annual football game last Saturday, both playing a close game with neither side getting very close to the goal line in the first half of the battle. The only time that Heppner was threatened was in the first quarter when Ione started to drop kick. G. Ritchie, Ione's quarter back, dropped one over from the thirty yard line, making the score 3-0.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY.

The Junior class play, "My Irish Rose," is to be presented at the Star theater in the third week of November. This play is unusually clever, being a comedy-drama of Irish life with twelve characters. The members of the cast are as follows: Colum McCormack, a prosperous Irish farmer of County Kildare...

EDITORIAL.

School spirit is the one intangible thing in school life which influences those interested in the school but not directly connected with it, in their opinions as to the progressiveness of a school as well as the community in which it is located.

School spirit may be shown in many ways, but we think the most important of these is sportsmanship. Everyone likes and respects a good sport and we all try to be good sports. Have you ever gone away from home to play ball and having been victorious heard some one on the losing side say, "Well, we are just as good losers as we are winners"? Did it not give you a different feeling toward the team than it would if they had become angry and talked about getting a "dirty deal"?

Pep and whole-hearted support are other forms of school spirit which help make a high school of which we are proud. If there is a large number of rooters who are full of enthusiasm and who are not afraid to let people know they are there, and if there is a whole string of subs on the bench, wouldn't a visitor be likely to say to himself, "The team has backing enough. It surely ought to win"; and if you were on the team wouldn't you feel like fighting much harder?

This spirit can be shown not only in athletics but in all other school activities as well. The teachers and the presidents of the various classes, clubs and societies would find their work much easier if everyone would do his or her part. When asked to do something they should go at it with their whole heart and not do just what is the easiest and interferes the least with their comfort or pleasure.

BOOSTER CLUB ORGANIZED.

A Booster Club has been organized by the girls of Heppner High for the purpose of boosting all Hi activities. The officers are: President, Eva Hiatt; vice-president, Louise Thomson; secretary-treasurer, Elizabeth Elder; sergeant-at-arms, Mae Groshens; yell leader, Ethel Moore; advisor, Mr. Johnson.

At the first meeting, caps were decided on as means of identification. These are expected for the big game November 11 when Lexington plays Heppner here. The day before the game a big parade is to be held, each club to be represented by a float and the classes are to parade. The class showing the best school spirit will be given points for their work. In the evening on the same day a rally will be held on the hill back of the school house, the Freshies furnishing the wood and oiling the large letter H to be burned. Each class is to be active in some kind of athletic stunt.

At this time the "Big Little Team" will be introduced and the captain will give his ideas about his football team. On the day of the game the different classes are to decorate the goal posts with their class colors and the Booster Club is to sell "hot dogs."

THE PUBLIC IS INVITED TO ATTEND THESE FUNCTIONS.

Junior Debates. Two debates, with members of the Junior American History class participating, took place last week. The question for debate Wednesday was: Resolved, that the U. S. should enter the World Court, and was won by the negative team composed of Kenneth Oviatt, John Conder and Eva Hiatt. Those on the affirmative team were Florence Bergstrom, Robert Turner and William Driscoll. The question for debate Thursday was: Resolved, that foreign debts to the U. S. should be cancelled. The affirmative team, composed of Marvin Gammell, Robert Turner and Mildred Green, won the decision. The negative team consisted of Claud Conder, Rosella Doherty and Ellis Thomson.

P. T. A. Social.

Following the Parent Teachers' meeting last Tuesday, a social was held in the music room. Several musical selections were given, among these being a violin solo by Esther Fredrickson, a piano solo by Mrs. M. W. Bower, and a vocal solo by Miss Wright. Refreshments consisting of punch and wafers were served by Eva Hiatt, Mae Groshens, Letha Hiatt and Edna Vaughn.

Heppner will journey to Hermiton tomorrow to match their skill with the Hermiton high school eleven. Heppner is depending on their boys to make a better showing this game than at the previous games and wants the whole school behind them.

The number of honor roll students in Heppner grammar school was unusually good, the first grade having 11; second grade 22; third grade 7; 4th grade, not represented; 5th grade 15; 6th grade 8; 7th grade 5, and the 8th grade 6.

Grade Football Game.

The football game between Heppner and Ione grade schools ended with a score of eighteen to six in favor of Heppner. The boys are showing what they are made of as this is the second time they have defeated Ione. The lineup for the last game was: Alex Ulrich q, James Farley rh, Roy Gentry lh, James McNamee fb, Gay Anderson c, Oral Wright re, Foye Brock lg, Richard Walker rt, Bruce Gibb lt, Elmer Hake re, Gordon Bucknum le, Earl Thomson and Orrin Furlong, subs.

Grade School Athletic Leagues.

This year the grades have formed among themselves a number of athletic leagues. The most important ones are girls' basketball, baseball and volley ball teams. The boys have their football and basketball teams. The grades are showing the right kind of spirit and in this way they gain experience before entering the high school teams.

The civics class is preparing for a debate.

The question is: Resolved, that free trade throughout the world should be for the best interests of the United States. The teams are: affirmative, Orrin Bisbee, Reta Crawford and Veima Fell; negative, Marjorie Clark, Merie Becket and Louise Thomson.

In the late hours of the night several Halloween celebrators attacked the teachers' home and serenaded them until several buckets of water quenched their ardor.

STAR THEATER

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4 AND 5: JACK DEMPSEY and ESTELLE TAYLOR (Mrs. Jack) in "MANHATTAN MADNESS"

A gay and joyous romance. Spiced with adventure and stuffed with shivvery, quivvery thrills. And what fun! When Jack, as the young fellow from the west, finds New York waiting for him with brass knuckles and has to fight his way to the girl who had roped his heart. Corking entertainment; you'll all like it. Also "THE CHRISTMAS HANDICAP," with Billy Sullivan, and 4th episode of "THE RADIO DETECTIVE."

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6: BUCK JONES in "The Desert's Price"

From the novel by William MacLeod Raine. A double-barrelled action picture with natural situations. Thrills, humor, love, hate and cussedness. Not a dull moment. Also "FADE AWAY FOSTER," two reel comedy-western, and INTERNATIONAL NEWS.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY, NOVEMBER 7 AND 8: REGINALD DENNY in "What Happened to Jones"

IT GIVES YOU THAT GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELING. Pack up your troubles in your old kit bag and smile, for Reginald Denny is coming to town to show you "WHAT HAPPENED TO JONES" when his poker party was raided and he climbed down the fire escape, backed into the steam room on Ladies Night in the Turkish Bath, dressed in the Bishop's clothing and married the other fellow's girl. It's a typical Denny farce that will shake your eyebrows loose with laughter. If this guy Denny doesn't bust every button off'n your vest in this screamingly hilarious happiness hit, you need a new set of laugh muscles. Also Earle Foxe in "THE BIG GAME HUNTER."

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9 AND 10: RUDOLPH VALENTINO in "THE EAGLE"

Supported by Vilma Banky and Louise Dresser. All the world loves a lover, and even when Rudolph Valentino turns bandit romance reigns supreme. As the Eagle he is rhapsodic, as a soldier he is daring, thrilling, but as a lover he again aways the senses, stirs the heart, sweeps the emotions. This is the last Valentino picture we will be able to show you. DON'T MISS IT. Also comedy, "TIME UP."

NEXT WEEK: George O'Brien in "HAVOC," our Armistice Day Special. House Peters in "RAFFLES." Cecil B. DeMille's "THE VOLGA BOATMAN." Conway Tearle in "THE GREAT DIVIDE"
