OUR SCHOOL PAPER.

Our school paper is so much extra work that we sometimes wonder if it is worth while, but if we look into the future we soon find that it is. As individuals we get experience that is invaluable. This experience may partially or totally change our life's work. It may change one's occupation entirely or it may help in whatever occupation we may choose because of the practice we have had in bearing a responsibility.

STUNT PARADE ATTRACTS.

A stunt parade was very successfully carried out last Wednesday, when the clubs and classes of the high school proved their ability in the art of pantomime. The parade, for the purpose of advertising the Heppner-Lexington football game, serpentine the town and many citizens were out to witness the fete. Mr. Johnson led the line and was followed first by the senior stunt, which represented a scene in a court of justice, with Lexington as the victim. Marvin Gemmill was the chief justice, while Paul Hiler was the attorney for defense. Tom Wells was the prosecuting attorney and Earl Ayers stood by as the hangman. Bill Bucknum represented Lexington while the verdict of the jury was to "Give 'em the axe!"

Next came the junior class advertising the junior play to be given November 25th.

They were followed by the sophomores, who portrayed the Lexington boys after the game. The nurses and patients showed just what was expected of the Heppner boys.

The freshman class featured a circus, and every member was fantastically attired, either as a clown, fat man, slim woman, or buckaroo.

The Heppnerian float, representing four symbols, Cooperation, Fair Play, School Spirit, and Sportsmanship, followed next.

The Arion float was that of "A Close Shave," in which Lexington was again the victim.

A Big Little Team, consisting of girls of the high school, was the content of the Booster Club float.

Judges were appointed and the results, which were made known Friday, were as follows:

In the classes, the Sophomores received first prize, on a basis of twelve points; Juniors and Seniors tied for second with ten points each, and the Freshmen, fourth, eight points.

In the clubs, first honor was given to the Heppnerian Literary society, second place to the Booster Club and third to the Arions.

Mr. Calavan of the State Department of Education was here last week and reorganized club work throughout the grades. There are now five clubs organized and working. These are handiwork, which will be under leadership of Mrs. L. N. Morgan, advanced sewing club, under Mrs. McDuffee, a second advanced sewing club under Mrs. Walker, cookery club under Mrs. W. J. Beymer, and a sewing club for which no leader has as yet been appointed.

All club work is under the immediate supervision of the O. A. C. Extension Department at Corvallis. Each club makes reports of their work and sends them to the department.

At the time of the county fair each club sends exhibits to it. The members taking first prize on their exhibits receive a trip to the state fair at Salem. These clubs have been started under very good supervision and it is expected that a good deal of interest will be displayed in the work.

Football Banquet Held.

The annual football banquet, sponsored by the H Club, took place in the basement of the school Saturday evening. The room was colorfully decorated in the high school colors, purple and gold. An abundance of good things was served, the outstanding being oyster cocktail, chicken pie a la mode, cake and ice cream. Each player some good jokes were given. The official speakers of the evening were Johnson, Smith, Bucknum and Doherty. Those present were Wm. Bucknum, captain, P. Hiler, M. Becket, M. Wightman, M. Gammell, G. Doherty, O. Parker, S. Thompson, H. Erwin, G. Slocum, K. Oviatt, D. Adkins, B. Turner, C. Hays, M. Edmundson, T. Bengt, V. Brehmer, H. Evans, D. Brown, F. Walker, H. Devin, J. Castle, "Dad" Driscoll, Gerald Smith and Coach Johnson. A hilariously good time was reported by all. The main point to be stressed, in the opinion of those who were interviewed, was that it was strictly a stag affair, no ladies allowed.

Pep Rally Noisy Affair.

Maybe you wondered what all the noise was Wednesday—well it was nothing but some Heppner Hi students showing their school spirit. After visiting various places of business and letting the townsfolk know what it was all about, they retired to the golf links where the freshmen set their work of the day afire. The letter H could be seen for miles around and surely showed a good specimen of the freshmen's workmanship. This was followed by a program by the Booster Club and other students. Speeches were given by the president of the Booster Club, Eva Hiatt, the captain of the football team, Gene Doherty, the coach, Mr. Johnson, and Reid Busick. After these several pep songs were sung by members of the Booster Club. The crowd sang some old songs and then adjourned for home.

Entertainers Here December 9.

Don't forget the musical quartet given by the seniors, Thursday, December 9. This is going to be a rare treat for Heppner as nothing of this kind has ever been here. These men have just returned from studying in New York. A member of the quartet was the soloist for the Portland Rosaria and has just finished studying abroad. This is the first trip they have ever made into eastern Oregon. They will entertain you with classy vaudeville, impersonations and songs. The members of the quartet are all college graduates.

LOCALS.

Cork strips and bulletin boards have been placed through the grades, at a considerable cost, but it is believed to be a very good thing. Art work and other items of interest in the grades will be placed on these.

It's a whiz! Guaranteed a sure cure for sorrow. Money back if not satisfied.

The outcome of the civics class debate was overwhelmingly in favor of the affirmative by a vote of 3 to 0. That free trade throughout the world would be of the best interest to the United States. The affirmative team was composed of Orrin Bisbee and Reta Crawford. The negative argument was presented by Louise Thomson and Marjorie Clark.

It's a good thing! Don't miss it. A perfect scream, if there ever was one. What is it?

The Girls' Booster Club has proved itself successful in financial as well as social projects. At the game last Thursday a cleverly constructed booth was decorated in the colors of the club, purple and red, and hot dogs were sold to the hungry football fans. Approximately $8 constituted the fruit of their efforts.

Can you imagine anything half so funny, half so delightful, half so good? You can not. It cannot be compared with anything you have seen before. What is it?

Let joy be unconfined! It is absolutely a crime to miss it. It's coming soon. What?
