this place but now living at Central Point, is worse again and has lost control of her speech and the use of her right side. Many friends here are hoping for her recovery.

Bert Richardson received word Tuesday of the death of his brother at Boise, Idaho. He did not attend the funeral, having but recently returned from there.

At a mass meeting held Tuesday evening at the schoolhouse the various phases of the proposed gymnasium for the district were discussed, especially the character of construction and the matter of additional tax levy. No opposition to the construction of the building was manifest, providing it could be handled without more tax on the district. C. S. Calkins was chairman of the meeting, and a committee consisting of L. V. Root, W. A. Price, A. Parker, W. O. King and L. Packard was appointed to confer on behalf of the citizens of the community with the school board, that proper plans may be formulated.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Porter entertained the R. S. Davis family for dinner on Sunday evening of last week.

The Misses Leathers and Kankonen were Arlington visitors Saturday. While there they visited the reading room recently opened by Miss Dayton. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly motored down Sunday.

Mr. Minnie Roberts returned to her home in Land, Idaho, after visiting her daughters, Mrs. Chas. Clark and Mrs. Nick Gaglia. She was called here by the death of her grandson, Chas. Clark, Jr.

Messengers had a number of guests on Sunday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tucker of Portland, Henry Lowell, Kelton Nall and Alvin Wentland of Hood River and Frank Doble of Umatilla.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Clark and small son left the early part of last week for a two-weeks visit in California with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gorman and daughters motored to Pilot Rock Sunday, Nov. 14, and visited at the home of Guy Lee.

The Klages family have returned from Kennewick where they worked during the apple harvest.

On the first Tuesday in December, which is the regular meeting time of the P. T. A., another meeting will be held. A good program has been prepared and the women are asked to bring sandwiches or cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Howell and Mrs. Royal Rands and Jane visited in Portland last week.

Mrs. Arthur Humphreys was hostess to the members of the auxiliary recently. Routine business was transacted and later a most delicious luncheon was enjoyed by the guests.

W. A. Cobb has sold his grocery store at Walla Walla and with his family has moved back to Marshfield. Mr. Dillingham, who has been assisting him there has also gone to Marshfield. Mr. and Mrs. Dillingham stopped for a time at the F. F. Klitz home on their way to Marshfield.

A pleasant dinner party was given at Blalock Island on Sunday. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Broome, Davis, Porter, Gorman, Dugan, Packard, Mead, Johnson and Boardman.

Hans Nielson, who has been staying at the Skoubo home for some time, had his Ford struck Sunday by the auto stage just as he was turning to drive into Alfred Skoubo's place on the highway. Mr. Nielson signalled but the bus driver failed to see it and struck him. His Ford was wrecked but he did not get a scratch.

IRRIGON.

One question that this community seems to be quite well agreed upon is gravel road construction, for on Saturday 26 votes were cast in favor of a five-mill special tax. Not a vote was cast against the proposed tax.

The school board men Thursday evening and prepared the budget for the coming year, which calls for the raising of about fifteen thousand dollars by special levy.

The S. E. C. social on Saturday night was quite a success. Through the courtesy of the Mitchell Drug company of Hermiston the club had the use of an excellent Victrola for the evening.

Mrs. Nestor Seaman, accompanied by Miss Freda, left Saturday for a week's sojourn with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Smith at Cosmopolis, Wn. Elra Lamoreaux spent the week end with his family. He has employment at Arlington.

The church folks enjoyed a community dinner in the church dining room on Sunday. There also was a good attendance for the services in the evening of that day. Sinners always welcome.

Professor Hendricks is with us again for an indefinite stay. He has spent several weeks in the Wallawa section.

Roscoe Williams and family were Pendleton visitors Saturday. Supt. A. C. Houghton of the West Extension project was calling on friends here on Sunday.

Ray S. Lamoreaux of Arlington was at home over Sunday.

The office building for the project is nearing completion and is a credit to the business section of this fair city of perpetual sunshine.

HARDMAN.

The Hardman grade school gave a Thanksgiving program Wednesday afternoon.

Emil Johnson, who owns a ranch near Hardman, purchased a new Dodge sedan. Monday he went to Pendleton for his new car.

Francis Gilliam left Hardman Sunday for Condon.

The community gathering sponsored by the P. T. A. in the high school auditorium, November 19, proved to be a success. Popcorn and candy sold well in the large crowd.

The farmers are looking forward to good crops next year on account of the heavy snow and rain we had here last week.

Construction of the Heppner-Spray road was suspended by the snow. The contractors are moving out now but will return and finish in the spring. The student body of Hardman Union High school held an assembly on Monday. Marvin Brannon was elected publicity manager and Opal McDaniel property manager for the play "Always in Trouble," which is to be given Saturday, December 4th, in the high school auditorium.

ALPINE.

The high school students are working enthusiastically on the play "A Poor Married Man," which they will present December third at the Alpine school. Murrell Bennett will take the part of Professor Wise, the poor married man; Helen Bennett will be Billy Blake, a college boy; Twilla Morey is Mrs. Ford, the mother-in-law; Bertha Sepanek takes the part of Pupitar Jackson, a black tramp; Johnnie Doherty is Doctor Graham and Bernice Sepanek is his daughter June. Mildred Schmidt is Zoie, the charming daughter of Mrs. Ford; while Margaret Melville is Rosalind Wilson, a college reporter.

The first snow of the season out our way has made the ground white. Plans for sleighing are being formulated now.

A program was given at the pie social here last Saturday. The proceeds from the sale of the pies are for the community Christmas tree.

UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICES.

The churches of the city will hold union Thanksgiving services at All Saints Episcopal church at 10:00 a. m., Thursday, Nov. 25. There will be special music by united choirs.

"O praise the Lord, for it is a good thing to sing praises unto your God; yea, a joyful and pleasant thing it is to be thankful."

We welcome you all to a service of praise and thankfulness for God's blessings during the past year, and of supplication for new blessings and new life in the years to come.

ANNUAL LEGION MEETING.

The annual meeting of Heppner Post No. 87, American Legion, will be held at Legion headquarters Monday, December 6. ## STAR THEATER

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 25 AND 26:

Tom Mix in "THE BEST BAD MAN"

From the novel Senor Jingle Bells by Max Brand with Clara Bow, Cyril Chadwick, Paul Panzer, Judy King, and TONY, the Wonder horse. A gripping drama of the southwestern plains. Thrills by the dozen. You'll find plenty of excitement in The Best Bad Man as Tom and Tony play it. He sure makes his enemies stey high, wide and handsome.

Also BUSTER'S SKYROCKET, two reel Buster Brown comedy, and 7th episode of THE RADIO DETECTIVE.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 27:

MAY McAVOY and JACK MULHALL in

"THE MAD WHIRL"

From the story Here's How by Richard Washburn Child, former ambassador to Italy. A Romance of the present day. A story of a great clash between a man and a girl, and of the terrible eddies this clash stirred in his social stream.

Years ago girls made men take the pledge but what can they do now-a-days when mother and father are hitting the pace. If you think you can teach old dogs new tricks, see this.

Also THE TIN BRONC, two reel Western-comedy and NEWS REEL.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY, NOVEMBER 28 AND 29:

THE PONY EXPRESS

BETTY COMPTON
RICARDO CORTES
ERNEST TORRENCE
WALLACE BEERY

JAMES CRUZE
PRODUCTION

The Pony Express rides the trail of thrills again! Pony hoofs thunder across the continent from Missouri to California, and East and West are linked again as they were in 1860.

Across 2,000 miles of unblazed tract. Through the scorching sun and black of night. Through ice and snow and raiding Indians. Eight days and nights of perilous riding and unmatched heroism. From this thrilling page of history, the screen's greatest director of epic romances has wrought his successor to The Covered Wagon. Not for today, not for a year—like The Covered Wagon it will live in the heart of America forever!

Here's the greatest of all American Romance-Spectacles.

Also Earle Foxe as Van Bibber in THE FEUD.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, NOV. 30 AND DEC. 1:

Cecil B. DeMille's "The Road to Yesterday"

With Jos. Schildkraut, Jetta Goudal, Vera Reynolds, William Boyd and Julia Faye.

Arden Love, Fear, Hatred—These passions alternately stirred the heart of this bride who loathed her husband until—

Through the wreck and turmoil of a terrible railway accident, the souls of both are translated to another century and sphere—to a tavern on "The Road to Yesterday" in England—where they view life from a new and fearsome angle. Swashbuckling and sword play—a duel—the burning of a witch—a renewal of love—then happiness. A thrilling, fascinating melodramatic story, splendidly developed and superbly mounted—a typical DeMille show.

Also COLLEGE YELL, comedy.
