Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Marquardson of Buhl, Idaho, were visitors in Heppner for a few hours on Tuesday, giving the old town a call while en route to California. For a number of years Mr. Marquardson was engaged in the mercantile business at this place, running the Fair store. Since leaving Heppner they have resided at Buhl where they have a large tract of irrigated land. They will spend several months in California at Oakland where their son, Ernest and his wife reside. Ernest is with the Merchants Trust company bank in Berkeley. Mr. and Mrs. Marquardson enjoyed their few hours in Heppner very much and met quite a number of former friends.

Harry French was in from the ranch beyond Rock Creek Friday. The big turkey and beef shoot at his place last week was a success and a good crowd gathered to participate. Mr. French is still boosting his place as a proper location for the Eastern Oregon tuberculosis hospital, and while in the city he made out papers to be presented to the Board of Control which will properly place that location before them and he hopes to have this body go over the place, feeling that they will not fail to recognize the splendid merits of his ranch for the hospital.

R. L. Benge, county judge of Morrow county, arrived in Portland from Heppner yesterday to attend the meeting of the state highway commission here today. Mr. Benge reports that sufficient rain has fallen in the Heppner district to cause the grain to sprout nicely, and farmers are looking forward to a good yield from the fall-planted tracts next summer. Mr. Benge is registered at the Imperial hotel.—Monday's Oregonian.

Andrew Patterson, who has been at work for some time in a garage at Condon, has opened the repair shop of Ventura garage in Lexington, where he will be located in the future. He and Mrs. Patterson, who is a teacher in the Ione school, were guests over Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. Patterson's mother, Mrs. C. C. Patterson, in this city.

The Willing Workers of the Christian church will give their annual bazaar at the church parlors on Friday afternoon and evening, Dec. 10. There will be many useful articles on display that will help in solving Christmas gift problems; then the ladies will serve a lunch, and also present choice cooked food for sale.

The grain out in Billy Tucker's section beyond Blackhorse is coming along nicely now. Plenty of moisture resulted from the storms of the past week and the ground is getting well wet. Mr. Tucker, who has been busy butchering hogs, brought some of his product to town on Friday and made disposition of it here.

L. E. Bisbee and family returned on Sunday evening from Portland. Mrs. Bisbee spent the week in the city and Mr. Bisbee and the children motored down for the Thanksgiving holidays. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Gay M. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ferguson and Mrs. Anna Heiney and Garnet Barratt and family were guests at the Raymond Ferguson country home Thursday and enjoyed a big Thanksgiving dinner.

Rev. Melville T. Wire and wife of Pendleton were Thanksgiving day guests at the home of Prof. James M. Burgess and wife in this city. Rev. Wire is pastor of the Methodist church at Pendleton and Mrs. Wire is a sister of Mr. Burgess.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mather of Prairie City spent the week end in this city, being guests at the home of Mrs. Mather's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mahoney. They returned to Prairie City Sunday, where Mr. Mather is principal of the school.

E. H. Buhn, jeweler, made a business trip to Boise, Idaho, over the week-end, returning home Wednesday morning. Mr. Buhn is promoting a "get acquainted sale" at his store, and we call attention to his advertisement elsewhere.

A. A. Amort, wife and two children, and his mother came up from their home at Corvallis to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Patterson, uncle and aunt of Mrs. Amort, Jr. They returned home on Sunday.

Miss Lucile McDuffee underwent a very serious operation at Hot Lake sanatorium on Thursday. Her father, Geo. McDuffee, went to Hot Lake Sunday to be with his daughter during the critical period in her recovery.

Leonard Schwarz, who has been spending several months at Pendleton, working in a meat market, has returned to Heppner and now has a position in the Central Market along with his father, Henry Schwarz.

A guest at the home of Mrs. Hessie Kinney during the past week was her brother, J. A. Patterson of Walla Walla. Mr. Patterson arrived here on Wednesday of last week and spent several days in the city.

Miss Helen Curran came up from Portland to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Curran. Miss Curran is a graduate nurse from St. Vincent's hospital in Portland.

Howard Anderson, formerly engaged in farming on Eight Mile, but who is making his home at Tillamook for the winter, was here a short time this week, looking after matters of business.

Mrs. Walker, county superintendent, was a visitor at the school Monday. She visited the seventh and eighth grade rooms and the geometry and English classes in the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stevens of Arlington attended the Elks dance at Heppner on Wednesday evening last and were visitors also at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gordon.

Arnold Balsiger of Ione was a visitor in Heppner on Tuesday.

Judge R. L. Benge was a passenger out for Portland on Saturday night, going to the city to attend the monthly meeting of the state highway commission. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Luola Benge, who was returning to her studies at the University of Oregon after having spent the Thanksgiving season with her parents here.

Miss Edna Vaughn accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cox on a trip to Portland Sunday of last week, and spent the week in the city visiting with relatives and friends. She returned home on Saturday.

Mrs. P. A. Anderson of Portland and Mrs. Kit McCarty of The Dalles were visitors here over the Thanksgiving holidays, being guests at the home of their mother, Mrs. E. F. Campbell.

Paul and Natt Webb were in Stanfield Saturday en route from Heppner to Walla Walla, Wn. They were bringing work stock for their wheat ranch in Washington.—Stanfield Standard.

Nels H. Justus, who has been residing for the past two years at Knappa, Alberta, is home for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Justus, and his numerous friends here.

Judge Jas. A. Fee of the law firm of Fee & Fee of Pendleton, was a visitor in this city Saturday, having matters of a legal nature to attend to here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Walter LaDusire enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Turner of Swaggart Buttes.

Mrs. Gay M. Anderson spent the past week in Portland and other points adjacent, where she enjoyed a visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Francis Coshow, teacher of the Hodson school, was a week-end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter LaDusire in this city.

F. W. Siegenthaler is the new engineer in charge of the locomotive on the Heppner branch, and has located in the city with his family.

Mrs. Melissa Marlatt is quite ill at her home in this city, having been confined to her bed for several days and at the present time her condition is not much improved.

Mrs. P. M. Gemmill departed for Seattle on Saturday, where she will spend a week or so visiting with relatives residing in that city.

M. L. Case of Case Furniture company, made a business trip to Portland the first of the week, returning home on Wednesday.

Albert Miller of Pendleton was a visitor here on Tuesday.
