

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HERREIM, Correspondent.

Practically all of the East End residents went to the home of Lee Mead on Wednesday evening, Dec. 1 and surprised him, it being his birthday. At a recent Sunday school party a great many announcements were being made and as the crowd was ready to leave Mr. Mead raised his hand and said "I want to announce that December 1 is my birthday." The occasion was too good to pass by so the date was remembered. Everyone had a good time playing games and various stunts, and the luncheon which the surprisers brought with them was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Duggan entertained at a delicious dinner Sunday evening. Guests were Miss Edna Broyles, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davis, Mr. Rousch and C. Astor Smith.

Frances and Velma Shirrad of Willow creek have been visitors at the Imus home over the week end.

Miss Edna Broyles was a Portland visitor Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Fortier and Norma were entertained Monday evening at the Campbell home at Hermon at a beautifully appointed dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Olson and family returned last Wednesday to their home at Prescott after a pleasant visit at the home of the former's uncle, O. B. Olson and family. Mr. Olson, who is employed in a mill at Prescott has been incapacitated for several weeks because of an injury to his foot, an oil barrel having fallen on it. He will be laid up for several weeks yet.

Mrs. C. M. Beardsley came to Boardman last Friday to get the rest of their furniture which they have had stored in Dingman's garage. Mr. Beardsley, who was superintendent here last year, is an instructor in the high school at Quincy, Wash., this year.

Mrs. Royal Rands entertained a number of guests at luncheon Thursday.

Richard Dingman who was so severely injured some time ago when thrown from a speeder, returned last week from St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. He is able to be up and about the house, but is still quite weak. He suffered a slight concussion of the brain.

Geo. Agee has returned to his home here after a prolonged absence. He has been working for the state highway department in the valley all summer.

Nick Faler returned Saturday from a three-weeks visit in Portland with relatives and friends. This was a combined business and pleasure trip he having gone down when he shipped his hay.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davis and sons were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Goodwin Thursday evening.

The freshmen and sophomores had a party Saturday night at the school house. All had a pleasant time.

Mrs. C. C. Sargent and daughter of Ione were visitors this week at the A. A. Agee home. She is an old friend of the Agee family.

Geo. Agee was a Heppner visitor Friday, returning Saturday.

Once more the members of the Ladies Aid draw a long, long sigh of relief because the bazaar which entails an endless amount of work from one year to the next is again a matter of history, having been held Saturday night at Root's hall. The cooked foods made a delectable array of delicious looking viands; there was much lovely fancywork; the "picture gallery" with both local and national celebrities, brought forth much amusement, especially the pictures of local people taken in bygone days. The "country store" as usual was the most popular place of the evening and as usual there were not enough articles in it. That the youngsters enjoyed the bazaar was shown by their vociferous manner and it has been suggested that we have more concessions for the children next year. The Aid wishes to express their appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Root for their kindness in permitting the use of the hall.

A woman employee of the Soldiers' home at Walla Walla was on her way to Southern California in a Ford coupe for her vacation, and since her time was limited she stepped on the gas with such abandon that the car tipped over twice and the driver was bruised up quite badly. The car had to be taken to Barlow's for repairs.

HARDMAN.

Mrs. Belle Leathers who has been a visitor with her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Leathers, left Sunday for her home in Vancouver, Washington.

Verl Farrens was a visitor of Ted Burnside last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Hastings were visitors in Hardman last week.

Misses Mary Gingrich, Anne McDevitt and Edith Mickey were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Bleakman Sunday.

Oscar Inskeep is visiting his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Ad Inskeep.

N. J. Madison bought a new 1927 Chevrolet coach last Friday.

Bill Brookhouser and family moved into town Sunday. Their two children will attend school here this winter.

Emil Johnson was a visitor in Hardman Monday.

Lewis Cason came to Hardman on Sunday.

Several Hardman people attended the grade school program given at the Rhea Creek Grange hall Friday.

George Hayden was in Hardman Monday.

The Hardman Parent-Teachers association is planning a bazaar to be given Wednesday evening, December 22. Many attractive articles will be offered for sale and chances on a quilt will be sold. A program will be given by the Hardman grade school in connection with the bazaar.

The play given by the Hardman High school last Saturday night proved to be a success as well as the orchestra music which was played between acts. The entertainment was well attended.

Residence property for sale; terms. Sam Hughes. 21.

Nation's Youngest!

Margaret Joyce of Alma, Nebr., is the youngest school teacher in Nebraska to hold a state certificate. Only 15 years old, Miss Joyce is a graduate of high school and is now teaching in a rural school. If you know of a younger teacher this newspaper would like to receive name and age.

ALPINE.

"A Poor Married Man," the play given by the Alpine High school on December 3, proved to be a great success. A large crowd attended and all seemed to enjoy it very much. Between acts the audience was entertained with monologues by Alex Lindsey and Celath Lambirth and a song "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" by Jupiter Jackson or Bertha Sepanek and a colored minister, Celath Lambirth. About $63 was taken in and most of this is to be used to pay for the piano.

Many Alpine people have been attending the revival meetings at Pine City and report fine sermons.

Mrs. Chas. Schmidt and daughter Mildred and son Alfred were visitors in Pendleton Wednesday.

Mike Sepanek and family were visitors in Echo Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Bowman spent Thanksgiving at the home of Dan Lindsey.

Several of the Alpine young folks spent a pleasant evening at a dance at Doherty's last Thursday.

LEXINGTON HI NOTES.

The high school girls have scheduled their first game with the town women next Friday evening. The game will be played in the high school gymnasium at 8 o'clock. A good fight is promised because both teams are raring to go.

The Junior girls' glee club presented the operetta, "Cinderella," last Friday evening. Mrs. Johnson, one of the high school teachers, played the accompaniment. The leader, Miss Alexander, with the cooperation of all the grade school teachers is to be highly commended for the success of the operetta, the first of its kind to be given by the grade school this year. Wilford Ward sang two selections between the first and second acts, Ray Lucas gave a recitation between the second and third acts, and Grace Burchell sang between the last two acts. A large crowd turned out and were well pleased.

LEXINGTON GIRL HONORED.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Dec. 18.—Maxine Gentry of Lexington has been elected to the honor co-ed hockey team of the college. The team is selected by coaches and captains of the class teams at the end of each season from outstanding players of the season. Skill in playing the position, faithfulness in practice, and good sportsmanship are the basis of selection. Miss Gentry is a senior in vocational education at the college.
