

Local Happenings

L. E. Gorgor was in the city a short time on Wednesday. He is manager of the Twilight Quintette, an orchestra that is giving good music of late at many of the dancing parties hereabouts. The Gorgor brothers are extensive wheat raisers of the section north of Ione, and the prospects at present are the best in years. The ground is well filled with moisture and grain is coming along well.

Rev. I. V. Parker, pastor of the Methodist church, departed Wednesday morning for Portland, being accompanied by Chas. Notson. These men will represent the church at the big gathering of Methodist men in the city on Thursday and Friday. Other members of the church here that may attend are Sam Hughes and H. C. Bramer, who planned on going to the city by last night's train.

R. A. Thompson and Roger Morse were in Pendleton on Saturday evening to attend a meeting of the executive committee of the Oregon Woolgrowers association. At this meeting arrangements were made for the holding of the state meeting which will be at Pendleton on January 14th and 15th.

Judge Gilbert W. Phelps will be in Heppner on Saturday and will hold a session of court preliminary to the regular session which convenes on the Monday following. Some business on the docket will be taken up Saturday, and it is expected, also, that the grand jury will be in session on this date.

The Long Creek Ranger states that W. S. Caverhill of Caverhill, Grant county, is asking for an appointment as a member of the State Highway commission. Mr. Caverhill is able and capable of helping the state with her road program and he would make a valuable member of that board.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Swindig departed yesterday for Hot Lake where Mrs. Swindig will enter the sanitarium for an operation. She has been quite sick for more than a week, suffering an attack of gall stone trouble. It is hoped that an operation will bring the desired relief.

Coy Thornburg of Ritter, who mysteriously disappeared some weeks ago, is said to be in a Portland jail, serving time for being caught with a still and moonshine in his possession. Federal officers made the arrest it is said.—Long Creek Ranger.

W. T. Matlock came in on Tuesday and is spending a few days in Heppner looking after business interests. He has been living in Montana for the past summer where he was running his sheep.

Edna Keen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Keen of Monument, was operated on at Morrow General Hospital Friday for removal of tonsils and adenoids.

W. F. Palmateer of Morgan, spent several hours in the city on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Palmateer of Morgan were visitors in this city on Wednesday. The Morgan section has certainly received a good wetting the past several weeks, and Mr. Palmateer thinks there is more moisture in the fields than for many years past. Grain is coming along good and prospects for the season's crop are bright.

J. H. Cox suffered a bad fall Friday when working on the roof of a building on the Wm. Pedro ranch at Cecil. The roof was slippery and wet, and Mr. Cox losing his hold, slid to the ground, landing on his back. He was attended by Dr. Johnston who found Mr. Cox badly bruised but fortunately no bones were broken.

Miss Anna Hynd of Rose Lawn ranch, Sand Hollow, suffered a bad fall Sunday when she slipped on the floor, resulting in very serious injury to her hand and knee. Her physician, Dr. Johnston, reports that no bones were broken but Miss Hynd will not recover from the injuries for some days.

W. E. McNab of Ione cut a bad gash in his hand Monday while splitting wood, and came near severing the thumb. Dr. Johnston was called to attend the young man and it was found necessary to take several stitches to close up the wound.

Born—On December 2, 1926, to Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Klein of Rock creek, an 8-lb. boy.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Smith of Butter creek on Dec. 1st, a 9-lb. daughter.

Mail Your Packages Early Says Postmaster Smead

It is the request of Postmaster Smead that the patrons of the Heppner office get their Christmas packages in early, and he asks that this be done so that the work of the office may be expedited and all mail sent out promptly. Having this end in view, Mr. Smead asks that packages be mailed as early in the day as possible, especially those to be insured. The outgoing mail close at 5:30 p. m., and packages to be insured should be in the office not later than 4:30 p. m. that they may go out on the day mailed. This applies only during the Christmas rush. About 40 packages per hour is the best time that can be made on insured packages, hence the necessity of complying with this request is made apparent.

There is no appropriation for extra help for third class postoffices for the holidays, and our local office will greatly appreciate the cooperation of the public in this matter.

Some general rules, sent out from the postoffice department at Washington, should be observed in this connection:

No deliveries Christmas day after 12 noon; mail early for delivery before Christmas.

All parcels must be securely wrapped or packed. Use strong paper and themselves for tales and legends. England is the true home of the mistletoe. In fact, its very name comes from the Anglo-Saxon, mistle-tan, in which "tan" means twig and "mistle," probably mist, in the sense of fog, or bloom, because of the plant's prominence in the dark season of the year.

There are 78 species of mistletoe, our favorite Christmas decoration, and every one is parasitical.—Frances Marshall Morgan. (© 1926, Western Newspaper Union.)

Monopolizing Papa

"All right. Where's the fun?" Rose sat down and explained: "If you'd seen Joey and Betty Boggs last Christmas in their play suits, that I couldn't have given any other time of year without Mrs. Boggs thinking it was charity! And what luck it was I could give Cousin Eleanor a vase for her car, when she's always taking me out in it."

"Hm—m. I might give old Bobby Green something for his car. He's saved me a lot of dull hours on the train. I never could think of a way to do him a favor."

Rose smiled a little triumphantly and went on: "Then there are the girls at school that I would lose touch with if there were no Christmas. They appreciate my little gifts and appreciate Christmas cards, I can tell you."

"Well, if you're so clever, tell me how to make it up to my stenographer, for keeping her late so many evenings."

"Jessie? Why, she's be delighted if you'd get her a new typewriter. That would eliminate overtime and she could keep up her night school work."

"Tip-top! And I'm going to give the kid that caddled for me last summer the club he needs to round out his golf set. Then—Well, first, let's see that 'opportunity list' you were showing me."—Frances Grinstead. (© 1926, Western Newspaper Union.)

"Mother, I thought Santa was going to bring me a train and choo-choo, for Christmas."

"Well, he did bring them to you, didn't he?"

"Well, there's papa's, but where's mine?"

The City of Been

In Holland the story of the City of Been is told every Christmas. This wonderful place was famed for its magnificence and beauty, and also for its wickedness and shamelessness. One day the whole city was swallowed up by the sea. It is said that every Christmas Eve the bells of the churches of the submerged city are heard to ring again.

All He Wanted

Department Store Santa—And what do you want for Christmas, little boy?

Youngster—Nothin' but a three-step polyphase heterodyne regenerative unit and a reflex inductive oscillatory tube for my radio.—Jugler.

Christmas Eve

Christmas Eve refers to the evening of December 24. The word "eve" in general means the evening before, from the Jewish mode of reckoning the day as beginning at sunset.

heavy twine.

Many articles will require special packing. For instance, hats: Pack in strong corrugated or fiber boxes; ordinary pasteboard hat boxes must be crated. Ladies' hats and stiff hats easily damaged should be marked "fragile."

Articles easily broken or crushed must be crated or securely wrapped. Use liberal quantities of excelsior, or like material, in, around and between the articles and the outside container. All articles easily broken or damaged must be plainly marked "fragile."

Articles likely to spoil within the time reasonably required for transportation and delivery will not be accepted for mailing. Wrap or pack carefully, according to contents, and plainly mark all such parcels "perishable." Use special delivery stamps to expedite delivery.

Addresses should be complete, with house number and name of street, postoffice box or rural-route number, and typed or plainly written in ink. A return card should be placed in the upper left hand corner of every piece of mail. If a tag is used, the address and return card should be written on the wrapper for use if tag is lost and a copy of the address should be inclosed in the parcel.
