NOTICE

This is to certify that Rev. Parker, accompanied by Rev. Bower and Mr. Crawford, on Friday last, came to my residence. Rev. Parker had a letter and tried to hand it to me. I declined to take the letter, as he said, "it is a challenge to you from Rev. Phelps to debate on the platform." I positively and absolutely refused to do this. I did not want to give notoriety to Rev. Phelps, nor to make him important, and most of all, I did not want to lower the sacredness of the Word of God to the level of the platform. But I accepted to discuss the question, in the old, black printed columns of the Oregonian. Rev. Bower replied, "The Oregonian won't print it." I said, "We shall try." Mr. Crawford then spoke up and said, "I will be fair, I will print it." "Thank you," said J. "Here is a go." "Oh, No! No! No!" said Rev. Parker, "not the press." And out he goes. Afterwards I sent a special delivery letter to Rev. Parker to this effect: "I am more than willing to take up the matter in the press." No answer. FATHER CANTWELL.

ALL SAINTS EPISCOPAL CHURCH. Rev. B. Stanley Moore, Minister. Sunday school at 9:45. Morning service at 11:00 o'clock. The afternoon discussion group at 2:45. Everybody welcome. Bishop Cross of Spokane, our crusader in the Bishop's Crusade, will be here on the 30th.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN Staunch Advocate of THRIFT. Few men knew the value of thrift and practised it in their lives as did Benjamin Franklin. In money matters he was not stingy but saving; not foolish, but wise; not miserly, but frugal. He practised what he preached and many of his homely rules for handling money still live.
