HONOR ROLL.

The Honor Roll this six weeks was not so high as that of the last six weeks. Formerly there were three on the first honor roll, while this time there were none.

The condition for the first honor roll is that no grade below A be received, but there were no names on it this six weeks.

For the second honor roll there was a tie between Mary Besmer, Katherine Bisbee and Orrin Bisbee, for first place. Grades received by them were three A's and one B. No grades below B are recorded on the second honor roll. For second place on the second honor roll were Marjorie Clark, Rosella Doherty, Ellen Morgan and Harriet Morgan. Grades received by them were three B's and one A.

P. T. A. Program Tuesday.
The sixth grade are preparing the program for the P. T. A. meeting next Tuesday. Miss Fredrickson has arranged a very clever entertainment based on Indian legends and customs. The following recitations will be given:
"Oregon Indians" Vivian Stout
"Games and Sports of Indians" Matt Kenny
"Bestowing of Indian Names" Viola Brown
"Hawthorn's Sailing" Gladys Erwin
"Fallen Leaf," Song by entire class.
An Indian Dance by the girls.

Art Exhibit Held This Week.
An Art Exhibit of more than one hundred and fifty of the Old Masters was opened Wednesday afternoon. The paintings are loaned to the school by the Colonial Art company of Denver. The public is invited to visit the gallery and may be assured a rare treat. An admission of ten cents will be charged each person, and the proceeds will be added to the district art appropriation fund. This exhibit will close Saturday.

It has been the policy of the Booster club to give the visiting basketball teams a lunch after each game. By this policy there was shown an attitude of good sportsmanship which otherwise would not have been shown. The lunches were very much enjoyed by both the home team and visiting teams and a greater feeling of friendship was aroused than ever before.

The senior class girls held a meeting Friday for the purpose of settling once and for all what kind, color, etc. of dresses they should wear for the graduation exercises. It was finally settled without any warfare that they should appear in white.

The teachers meeting was held in the library Monday evening. The following talks were given:
"Teacher's Health," by Mr. Smith.
"Physical Education and Corrective Measures," Miss Bleakman.
"School Health Program," Miss Fredrickson.
"School Lunch," Miss Thorpe.

Did anyone hear Mr. Johnson sing "How Dry I Am" during the debate with Hermiston?

QUINTET MEETS DEFEAT.

Heppner boys finished their basketball schedule last Friday night when the Lexington team defeated them by a score of 24 to 7. Heppner started off with a bang but Lex settled down and started shooting baskets as if they had little opposition. Shearer of Lexington was high point man, having 12 points to his credit, four field goals and four free throws; while Nolan of Lexington made four field goals. This was Heppner's eighth game in which the other team walked off with the honors. In the ten games played Heppner marked up 66 points to their opponents' 118.

The Heppner girls stayed their last basketball game of the season when they lost to the Lexington girls by a score of 22 to 6. Friday evening. The fact that Lexington kept their score larger than Heppner's did not daunt the fighting spirit of the girls in the least but only seemed to make them fight the harder. The game is reported as having been one of the fastest and peppiest of the season.

Lineup: Heppner—Hazel McDaid and Anna McDaid, forwards, Joy Erwin and Katherine Bisbee, centers, Frieda Akers and Mary Ritchie, guards, Lexington—Mable Wright and Mary Slocum, forwards, Eula McMillan and Emma Duval, centers, Doris Wilcox and Gwen Evans, guards.
Heppner Subs: Mae Doherty for Anna McDaid; Rosella Doherty for Mary Ritchie.

Heppner field goals: Hazel McDaid, 3.
Lexington field goals: Mabel Wright 14, Mary Slocum 8.
Heppner foul goals: Hazel McDaid 3. Referee, Mrs. Miller.

GRADE NEWS.

The students of the seventh grade organized a club last week. The following officers were elected: Bernice Stoneman, president; Fay Prock, vice-president; John McNamee, secretary; Mary McDuffee, treasurer; and Adele Nickerson and Gene Mikesell, news reporters. The next meeting will be held on Friday at which they will decide on the dues.

The seventh grade has been engaged in making health posters. They are to be given to Miss Thorpe, the art teacher, who will place them in Humphrey's window.

The fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades are having new book shelves put in their rooms. These shelves are for the purpose of holding the books the grades buy with the money won each P. T. A. meeting.

Ticklers.
Evelyn Swindig (in Geography)—"Even nature cannot jump from summer to winter without a fall."

Job: "What is the difference between ammonia and pneumonia?"
Onez: "Why, ammonia comes in bottles and pneumonia comes in chests."

The Hermiston-Heppner debate inspired one of the high school poets to write the following:
There was a young man named Harold-Jo
Who was toting a pitcher of H2O.
The pitcher it broke,
The floor it did soak,
And the people laughed, ho, ho.

John Conder has been added to the list of Heppner students who are to enter the typing contest at Pendleton March 26th. Those already chosen are Marjorie Clark, Mary Ritchie, Orrin Bisbee and John Conder.

OF INTEREST TO DEBATE FANS.

On Friday night, March 4, the setting sun will shroud the night in darkness and mystery. You have a greater advantage than old Sol. He will be casting his cheery rays on the other side of the earth, while you can stay right in Heppner and attend the most noteworthy feat of the present school year, when our two debating teams meet Pendleton. The affirmative team, composed of Margaret Notson and Marvin Gammell, will travel to Pendleton to meet their negative team. Their affirmative will come to Heppner and meet our "Stonewall," Marjorie Clark and Orrin Bisbee. This will be a fierce battle, we are sure, and one team must meet it's "Waterloo," so it is quite natural for us to think it will be Pendleton. In the debates between Hermiston and Heppner, both the affirmative teams won, and we can at least hope that nothing more serious will happen Friday. The debates will start promptly at eight o'clock, and it is hoped that a large assembly will convene to take advantage of this opportunity of hearing a real, live wire debate. The subject is the same as before, "Resolved that the cabinet form of state government should be adopted in the State of Oregon."

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE OPERETTA.
The many and varied colors of goods for the costumes of the Operetta cast are rapidly taking shape at the hands of the domestic art class. Ethel Hughes has charge of the work and deft fingers are making needles, scissors and sewing machines hum. All of the chorus will be dressed alike, except for the individuality of each which will be expressed in the bright sashes and head coverings; beautiful jewels will be present in abundance, as there will be glittering necklaces, bracelets and earrings adorning each one of the Princess Zohdah's twenty-four ladies in waiting. Oriental pillows, rugs and flowers will bedeck the stage profusely. You will always regret it if you fail to see this colorful group perform.

"HEHISCH" PROGRESSING.

A Hehisch staff meeting was held Friday in the library in order to give more assignments of work. Letha Hiatt was appointed assistant snapper to Ellis Thomson and all snappers will be collected and handed in by her.
Mr. Sigbee was at the schoolhouse Thursday and Friday taking individual photographs of the senior class and group pictures of other classes and of the organizations of the various branches of the high school.

The six-weeks exams were given Thursday and Friday. But because of the debates the grades could not be issued as soon as usual.
Mrs. Wright, mother of Miss Ester Wright, is a visitor this week. Mrs. Wright's home is in Portland.

Letters Awarded.
Several boys in the grades will soon receive their basketball letters for the past season. Letters will be awarded to James McNamee, James Farley, Oral Wright and Alex Ulrich.

The list of absences in the grades this week numbered about twenty. Slight cases of colds, flu and grippe seem to be prevalent.

A Little Matter of Figures

INCOME TAX reports are always a bugbear—especially so where there is no profit to be shown.

In checking over their year's accounts the other day, Mr. and Mrs. Thrift were amazed at the amount of money spent for necessities—and the balance shown in the red.

"But see the difference in our grocery bill since we have been buying for cash at HIATT & DIX'S," Mrs. Thrift exclaimed. "Another year will show a big saving there."

This modern age puts Camels first

THIS age tried Camels and placed them first. And it was no half-way verdict. Never in the history of smoking was a cigarette given a leadership like Camel has today.

To find why Camels are the favorite, just try them. You will find the perfect fragrance and taste of choice tobaccos, rarely blended. You will experience a mellow mildness that gives endless cigarette enjoyment!

For the choice of the modern age—"Have a Camel!"
