

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HERREIM, Correspondent.

The annual congregational meeting was held last Thursday night at the church. The business meeting was preceded by a sumptuous chicken dinner. About fifty were present. Following the dinner the reports of the various church departments were read. Officers for the ensuing year were elected. J. R. Johnson was again elected treasurer. Mrs. A. T. Herreim was re-elected clerk. Mrs. S. H. Boardman, Sunday school superintendent for another year. C. S. Calkins, assistant superintendent. The old board of trustees was re-elected unanimously. This consists of Mrs. O. H. Warner, Mrs. Jess Allen, Mrs. S. H. Boardman, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Calkins. Rev. D. H. Thompson of Portland was present and gave a very interesting address. The financial reports again disclosed the fact that the Ladies Aid was the most active organization within the church altho the Sunday school had a very good report this year also.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Calkins and daughter Alice were entertained at a lovely dinner at the teachers' cottage on Friday of last week by the Misses Falk, Beougher and Silver.

Royal Rands and family were called to Portland last week because of the death of Mr. Rands' father, Chas. Rands. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon in the parlors of the East Side Funeral Directors, and the remains sent to Pendleton for interment. Chas. Rands was 65 years of age and leaves one son, Royal of Boardman, and a daughter, Clara, of Portland, to mourn his loss. Mr. Rands had visited here at different times and formerly lived in the Hermiston district, so had a wide acquaintance. The sympathy of friends is extended to the bereaved.

Bert Richardson has rented the ranch opposite him owned by Mrs. F. A. Fortier. The Garretts farmed this place for several years and last year Arthur Humphrey rented it.

W. A. Goodwin returned home last week from The Dalles where he had a serious operation some time ago. He is able to be up and about but is still quite weak. He is to return for an examination April 4.

Mrs. E. T. Messenger planned a most delightful surprise last Friday night in honor of Mildred's 16th birthday. Mildred had gone to Umatilla to attend the ball game and was indeed surprised when thirty of the young people of the community walked in on her that evening. Games of various sorts made the evening all too short. An elaborate luncheon was served by Mrs. Messenger.

John and Hugo Koski left Monday for Mayger, Ore., after a pleasant visit at the Olson and Hango homes. On Saturday they were guests at the Flickinger home for lunch.

A. P. Ayres received an unusual and pleasing gift recently when his father, who lives in Southern California, sent him the old family clock which has been in the Ayres family for years and which was ticking away when Mr. Ayres was born. It is in excellent condition and bids fair to continue its task for another generation. What tales the old clock could tell, had it the power of speech. Tales of joy, of sorrow, of birth, of death, a chronological narration of interest. Geo. Gross and family motored to Echo Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Huff motored to The Dalles Saturday night, returning Sunday.

A. Porter came home recently from a trip to California.

The Auxiliary put on a movie Saturday night, "The Sky Raider," and "Fire Fighters." It was not generally known that there was to be one given

Sons Chairman, Radio Board Meets New Federal Commission

Although Admiral W. H. M. Bullard, U.S.N., retired, chairman of the newly created Radio Commission under the Department of Commerce, is in China, he called this first meeting of the new board by radio to meet in Washington last week. From left to right they are: O. H. Caldwell, New York; Eugene O. Sykes, Mississippi; John F. Dillon, California; and H. A. Bellows, Minnesota.

but the attendance was fair. We need a movie here every once in a while. Local people motor to nearby towns to see them and we have a fairly good machine here so why not have them oftener? Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hawkins and 3 children came home from a pleasant week in Portland. Sammy, who is six, enjoyed his first trip to the city and was wide-eyed with its many features. Elevators and escalators appealed to him especially as did the street cars. Mr. Hawkins visited Ople Waggoner at the Veterans' hospital and reported him as getting along nicely. He expects to be able to return in about four weeks.

Pete Farley and family, who recently purchased the Carpenter place have come and are located in the Edmunds house. Farleys have three boys.

Clarence Berger and family motored to The Dalles on Sunday to meet Mr. and Mrs. Ira Berger who are returning to Boardman again to make their home. Berger Bros. have rented the Crawford ranch, it is stated, and will farm it together. This comprises 140 acres. Nellie Messenger went with the Berbers and visited her sister Marie who is in training at the hospital there. Marie likes her work and is getting along very nicely.

Mrs. Roy Howell and baby returned to their home last week after visiting at the Royal Rands home. Mrs. Vaughtan Keyes and baby left a day or so before. Both had visited at the parental home.

Jim Howell came home from Corvallis to spend his spring vacation. He returned to school Sunday. He is a sophomore at O. A. C.

Miss Alice Falk spent the week at her home in Salem.

Miss Esther Kankonen went to her home in Astoria for the week end.

Ruth Kunge was three years old March 15th, so her mother entertained Margaret and Wilma-Myers, Ralph and Edward Skobe at a delightful six o'clock dinner in honor of the occasion. A birthday cake was admired and then enjoyed.

Mrs. A. P. Ayres went to Hermiston Friday to have some dental work done. She returned on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mead and family were entertained at a most delightful dinner on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Humphrey.

Clifford Olson came Saturday for a visit with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson presided at a beautifully appointed dinner on Sunday at their home, having Mr. and Mrs. John Cornwall and Mrs. A. T. Herreim and sons as guests. A radio program was enjoyed in the afternoon.

Mrs. Pat Pattee and babies left on Sunday for their home in Condon after a pleasant visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Olson. Ed Barlow made a pleasing salesman at the Rouch general store during the absence of Mr. Hawkins in Portland.

P. J. Jungert, local real estate man, reports the exchange of an 80-acre alfalfa tract at Boardman, belonging to N. W. Usher of Walla Walla to Glen Maceen of Enterprise, Ore., for Main street property at Lewiston, Idaho.—Milton-Freewater news in E. O. The 80-acre tract referred to is what is known as the John Partlow place.

Mrs. Ingard Skobe has been having trouble with appendicitis and it is feared that she may have to undergo an operation before she can return home. She has been in Portland for several weeks.

Miss LaVelle Leathers spent the week end at her home in Lexington.

A baseball game is scheduled between Boardman and Arlington high schools for Friday, April 1st. The local high school team defeated Umatilla Friday at Umatilla. The Umatilla team worked hard but Boardman was too strong for them. The lineup follows: c. Weldon Ayres, p. Carl Ayres, 1st. Ray Barlow, 2nd Eldon Wilson, ss. Russell Mefford, 3rd Alex Ayres, lf. Alvie Mefford, cf. Hector Wicklander, rf. Noel Klitz, subs. Robert Berger and Kenneth Boardman. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, Miss Silver and Miss Beougher drove to Arlington on Saturday.

Ed Miles and wife and daughter Dorothy passed through Boardman recently. They formerly owned the Knuff ranch and built the house in town owned by Frank Cramer.

Earl Cramer motored to Pendleton Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown spent several days in Walla Walla last week. Jack Gorham disposed of two tons of early seed potatoes to the River-view Farms, the company which has charge of Blalock Island.

HARDMAN.

Mrs. Ida Bleakman spent the major part of last week in Monument visiting her father, who is very ill.

Mrs. Jennie Booher, Will Brookhouser and Wesley Brookhouser were visitors in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hastings and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McDaniel left Saturday for Lone Rock.

Miss Violet Saling left March 22nd to work for Virgil Warren near Lone.

W. H. Ayers was a visitor in town Thursday.

Forest Adams left last Thursday to work for Orville Tony.

Miss Cecil Stevens returned Saturday from Bellingham, Wash., where she has been attending normal school.

She began teaching the Burton Valley school Monday.

Mrs. Betta Knight returned Friday from Vancouver, Wash., where she has been visiting for several weeks.

Mrs. G. A. Farrens and daughter Muriel, left for their ranch Friday. Muriel will attend the Burton Valley school the balance of the term.

Mrs. Chester Saling returned from work Saturday.

John Byland was a visitor in town Monday.

Fan Miller returned from Portland Friday.

Harlin Adams left Saturday to work for James Ham.

Bill Garret was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Ayers Sunday.

The play "The Fashion Show" at Hardman will be postponed to April 9th.

There will be a free dance April 9. The I. O. O. F. have postponed their dance to be given April 2nd.

MORROW TEACHERS TO ATTEND UNIVERSITY'S SUMMER SCHOOL

University of Oregon, Eugene, Mar. 28.—Many Morrow county teachers, for whom the summer means a period of study and professional improvement, are planning to attend one of the University of Oregon summer sessions, to be held from June 20 to July 29 at Eugene and Portland, according to information received on the campus.

It is expected that last year's total from the county will be greatly exceeded, when the following were among those represented, Elizabeth Huston, Thomas R. Humphreys and Edward A. Nelson, Heppner; and Melvin Johnston, Lexington.
