

Local Happenings

Earl W. Fisher, Delco Light field man, representing W. E. McClurg Co. of Portland, distributors of Delco Light products, was a visitor in Heppner on Tuesday. He was accompanied by L. E. Fry of Condon, who is representative of the company at that place and has charge of the territory covered by Gilliam and Morrow counties. Mr. Fry was arranging to place a display of Delco products at Heppner, where demonstration of the lighting system, Frigidaire and other products of the company can be made.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Carter departed Friday for Cecil where they expected to remain for a short time and then later extend their trip through the Willamette valley and on to Roseburg where Mr. Carter has a sister. They are traveling by team, having fixed up a comfortable little house on wheels. Mr. Carter stated that they might return to the Heppner country but this would depend on what they found in Southern Oregon in the way of a suitable location.

In a letter received by S. E. Notson the end of the week from J. A. Waters, Mr. Waters stated that it had been found necessary to take Mrs. Waters to a hospital in Long Beach, Calif., for a serious operation. Mr. Waters appeared to be somewhat doubtful as to the outcome, but hoped that his wife would be able to withstand the ordeal and come through all right.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Boyer were here from their Monument home for several days the first of the week. Mr. Boyer states that vegetation is progressing fine in his section and seems to be somewhat ahead of the Heppner country, owing, he thinks, to the fact that they have had less of the cold nights than we have had this side of the mountains.

Mrs. J. O. Bergstrom and Mrs. J. T. Burns and daughter Katherine left for their homes Saturday night, Mrs. Bergstrom going to Roseburg and Mrs. Burns to Seattle. They have been visiting at the home of their mother, Mrs. Chas. Osmin, and with other relatives and friends at Heppner for the past month.

J. H. Kinsman is in the city from McMinnville this week, looking after his property interests here. Mr. Kinsman states that the Yamhill country certainly had a lot of wetting up this winter, and the end seems not to have arrived yet. However, he appears to be standing it pretty well.

Leonard Carlson and Jesse Warfield, farmers of the Gooseberry section, were attending to business affairs in Heppner on Friday. They report the grain coming along well out that way, but plowing has been a little slow because of the wet condition of the soil.

Karl Beach was up from Lexington on Tuesday, holding a little interview with the tax collector at the court house. Mr. Beach has about recovered from his serious burns, but his eyes trouble him yet, as the burns to the lids have been slow in healing properly.

Wes Brannon was in from Hardman on Tuesday. He was on his way to Pendleton, where he expected to remain for some little time while taking treatments for an ailment that has been troubling him some time.

Victor Peterson, who was cashier of Bank of Ione at the time it closed its doors, has been elected to a similar position with the State Bank of Gaston, Oregon, and assumed his duties there some two weeks ago.

A. Z. Barnard came up from The Dalles on Monday and has been a visitor in Heppner during the week. Mr. Barnard has been doing a general trucking business at The Dalles for the past year or more.

Ture Peterson, Ione meat market proprietor, and Chas. Allinger, contractor and builder, were visitors in this city for a short time on Saturday, looking after business affairs.

For Sale—Common and Grimm alfalfa seed; white sweet clover, valuable for pasture. Try it. Save the middleman's profit. C. W. Bond, grower, La Grande, Oregon. 2-5.

Henry Krebs was down from the ranch up Willow creek on Tuesday, shearing of the Krebs flocks will start about the 11th at the Cecil ranch.

French Burroughs of Jordan Siding was attending to business affairs in the county seat on Tuesday.

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HEREIM, Correspondent.

The Rebekahs held a special meeting on Monday night of last week. At this time they elected Mrs. Leslie Packard as delegate to the State Assembly which will meet in May at Astoria.

Mr. Sachjen of Portland, who installed the electrical plant here, was up last week making some repairs.

Mrs. Chas. Nizer was sick for several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson and Deibert were Pendleton visitors on Friday.

Mrs. Robert Wilson and baby returned home last week from Hermiston.

C. G. Blayden is driving an Overland car, having traded his Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hereim celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gorham and family and Mr. and Mrs. Nick Falser as guests for dinner. A miniature bride and groom fashioned from a salt shaker and a tea strainer, since it was a tin wedding, formed the centerpiece. Daffodil nut cups and yellow serpentine completed the table decorations.

Boardman friends were sorry to learn that Andy Andregg was injured recently by the big Holstein bull which he owned. His thigh was hurt badly but fortunately his injuries were not serious, although it kept him bedfast for several days. Andy lives near Hermiston now, but has many friends here, having farmed the Dr. Donnelly place for several years.

Mrs. Fred Graham of Pendleton came for a short visit with Mrs. Alice Dingman. While here Mrs. W. A. Price was taken sick with another flu attack so Mrs. Graham is helping care for her.

Mrs. A. A. Agee spent several days last week at Ione visiting her daughter.

Mrs. Allegra Fees and children, Paul and Ruth, were guests at a lovely dinner Thursday evening at the F. A. Fortier home.

Mrs. Chas. Christensen of Portland was a guest for several days last week at the Nick Falser home.

The fine addition to the Dingman home is completed.

Miss Lucy A. Case, nutrition specialist of O. A. C., will be in Hermiston April 9th to conduct a meeting dealing with foods, under the auspices of the Farm Bureau. Boardman and Irrigon women are urged to attend this meeting.

Ernie Peck is erecting some little cabins back of his garage and service station "The Oasis" on the highway.

Boardman farmers who have sheep are advised by the railroad detective who was here last week to watch their wool closely as there appears to be a well organized gang of wool thieves operating in the vicinity.

Mrs. Lalumondier returned from Pendleton where she was called because of the illness of her daughter's baby.

The Ladies Aid is planning a movie to be given soon.

Mrs. I. Skobo and baby daughter are home from Portland. Mrs. Skobo has not been so very well but is much improved. Mrs. Nickerson, Sr., is assisting at the Skobo home for a time.

The section house at Castle Rock was entered last week and several articles of value were taken.

Boardman friends who knew C. E. Spence were sorry to hear of his death March 31. Mr. Spence was a very active grange member and had visited Boardman at various times. He was state market agent up to the time of his last illness.

Pomona Grange was on Saturday, April 1st, at Morgan, with a large attendance. A great many Boardman Grangers were present and all report a wonderful time. The local team put on the 3rd degree work.

Two sumptuous feasts were served, at noon and in the evening.

Boardman friends were pleased to see Robert Rayburn who came up from Portland for two days last week, coming up by motor with his brother.

J. R. Johnson attended a meeting of the Pendleton Presbytery in Pendleton on Tuesday in the interests of the Minister's Pension Fund. Rev. Swogger and Mr. Thompson of Umatilla also attended this meeting.

The Legion and Auxiliary had planned to give a dance on Friday night but were unable to get a license in time so it was postponed. Fletcher's orchestra was to have furnished the music.

Glen Hadley left Tuesday for Butler creek where he will meet Pearson's shearing crew.

The Sunday school class taught by Miss Ethel Beougher had a class party Friday night at the church. All had a good time with games and later refreshments. Miss Beougher has the 8th and high school pupils of the Sunday school.

Hallengers motored to Wasco Sunday.

Mrs. O. H. Warner and Mrs. S. H. Boardman were visitors to Portland last week, going down on Thursday and returning home Saturday. They, with Rev. Swogger and Mr. Thompson of Umatilla, went to attend the organization dinner of the Presbyterian Pension Service Retirement Fund which was given at the Multnomah hotel at 6 o'clock through the courtesy of the famous Robert Dollar of the steamship lines. The dinner was an elaborate one with beautiful appointments. The principal address was given by Rev. Breese and was both witty and pithy. While in Portland Mrs. Warner and Mrs. Boardman were overnight guests of Mrs. Edith B. Crawford, a former Boardman resident. Mrs. Crawford and brother, Mr. Houston, have a home in Portland and care for their aged mother who is bedfast. They also called on Mrs. Healey, another former Boardman resident. Mr. Healey is in Los Angeles at present and Doris, a local high school graduate, will finish her course at the university at Eugene in June.

F. F. Klitz has taken up the Mc-

Neas line of Sanitary products for Umatilla county and this project. He is also looking for able men between the ages of 30 and 50 to take up this work. The McNeas is a well known line of spices, soaps, drug sundries, etc., similar to those of the Raleigh and Watkins lines.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Rands moved Saturday to their recently purchased property in town, formerly the Klages place. They have lived on the Becholdt ranch, half a mile from Boardman, for the past several years. The project is becoming quite a center for the poultry industry. Some of the farmers have sent eggs to Hermiston to be hatched. Many others are buying baby chicks. Dillon is getting 1500 this year, Knauff 2000, Johnson 900, Weston 500, Hadley 550, Jenkins, Packard and Broyles are each getting several hundred. The soil, the climate and other conditions make it one of the most desirable locations for the poultry game.

Some reception!

It's clear enough what smokers want—natural purity, natural sweetness; in short, NATURAL TOBACCO TASTE!

NATURAL TOBACCO TASTE means the pure taste of the tobaccos themselves . . . with all their own natural spiciness and mellowness brought to full natural perfection.
