

HARDMAN.

Mrs. W. J. Emry, 59, of Nampa, Idaho, was instantly killed on Friday, March 25th, nine miles south of Ontario on the John Day highway when the car in which she was riding with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Hoskins and her husband, turned completely over in the barrow pit.

Mrs. Emry's neck was broken. Mr. and Mrs. Hoskins escaped with minor bruises. She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, one daughter, and five grandchildren. She was a resident of Hardman at one time but has been away for some time. She leaves many friends here.

"The Fashion Show," the play being sponsored by the P. T. A. of Hardman, will be presented at the high school auditorium Saturday, April 9. The beautiful quilt displayed in Thomson's window will also be won during the evening. The ladies will serve luncheon.

A free dance is being given and everyone is cordially invited to attend, Saturday, April 9.

A surprise was given Mrs. Sarah Sperry on her birthday, March 31st, when a group of ladies gathered at her home bringing many delightful gifts to her. Those present were: Mesdames Opal Ayers, Mary Coats, May Adams, Hettie Brookhouse, Hattie Johnson, Rose Burnside, Myrtle Smith, Reta Knight, and Mary McDaniel. Mrs. Sperry is 62 years old and has lived in Oregon 42 years.

"THE CRUCIFIXION."

"The Crucifixion" is the title of a lecture to be given at the American Legion hall in Ione on Wednesday evening, April 13th, at 8:00 o'clock by Rev. Enoch Sondeen, field secretary of the Columbia Conference of the Lutheran church. The lecture will be accompanied by some 125 stereoscopic slides, illustrating each event in the last week of the life of Jesus Christ. Some of these pictures are especially interesting as they are actual photographs of the places visited by the Master during his days of sorrow. Others are reproductions of the best in religious art while some are taken from the Passion Play at Oberammergau. The story of Christ's suffering will be unfolded in three acts, the first taking up the events leading to the arrest in Gethsemane, the second to the condemnation and the third to the death on the cross. In the first act the celebration of the passover is given special consideration, in the second the trial, and in the third the act of crucifixion. In the latter both the biblical and the traditional aspect of the crucifixion will be considered. Several songs accompany the story. Solos like "In the Garden," "Calvary," "The Green Hill," "He Was Crucified for Me," etc., will be sung by Mrs. Sandeen. Illustrated hymns will be sung by the audience. The lecture will be given under the auspices of the local Lutheran church and will be free to all that wish to attend. An offering will be taken, however, for the benefit of the Lutheran hospital at Astoria, Ore.

WEEK OF SPECIAL SERVICES.

The Church of Christ will prepare for Easter with a series of special services. The general theme will be the sayings of Christ on the cross. There will be seven in all and they will be given at the times indicated.

Sunday morning, April 10—"Father, forgive them."

Monday evening—"Today shalt thou be with me in Paradise."

Tuesday—"Woman, behold thy son. Behold thy mother."

Wednesday—"My God, why hast thou forsaken me?"

Thursday—"I thirst."

Friday—"It is finished."

Easter morning—"Father into thy hands I commend my spirit."

Each sermon will be aided by one of the great songs of the Cross.

The evening services will begin at eight o'clock and the morning services at eleven. The public is earnestly invited to all these services.

The Sunday evening service this week will be given over to the Christian Endeavor rally which begins Saturday evening and lasts through Sunday.

Remember the Bible school and be present with a friend.

MILTON W. BOWER, Minister.

ALL SAINTS' EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Sunday school at 9:45 o'clock. The morning prayer and sermon at 11:00.

Palm Sunday brings us to Holy Week, the crucial point in the life of our Lord. As the Hebrew people of Christ's day went before our Lord with palms, so we present to him this Sunday, with loyal hearts, our praise and prayers and anthems. Then we must follow him through the temptations, trials, and agonizing suffering of Holy Week until we come to the three bitter hours of Good Friday, during which our Blessed Lord hung on the cross with the burden of the sins of the world weighing down his loving heart and soul with unutterable pain and sorrow. That I think was the greater pain, and sorrow and suffering. Man crucifying his Maker. Sons returning hate, skepticism and grasping selfishness in return for the love, kindness and mercy of a Father who loves them before they ever see the light of this world. Yes, and we are doing the same thing today. Let us fall down on our knees this week and ask God to empty us of all that is mean and base and hateful in our natures and to fill us with the loving spirit that comes through Christ, who is risen and lives with us and in us if only we will seek and find Him and open the door that He may enter.

The 1927

Case Combine

is here, and invites your closest inspection.

It is the last word in Combine construction and is perfected in every detail. It is constructed for grain saving, durability, economy, simplicity and ease of operation. You must see this combine to appreciate a really fine piece of mechanical construction. Space will not permit us to enumerate in this ad all the points of advancement in threshing machinery construction that are built in the 1927 CASE COMBINE.

Here are a few of the New Case Improvements:

1. All oiling now done from the deck.
2. A dust-proof straw dump, larger, and will dump on any hill.
3. Improved sack dump.
4. Simpler in construction.
5. Enclosed deck with trap doors for easy access.
6. Improved rear shoe sieve.
7. Improved rear shoe sieve.
8. Larger and better feeder house.
9. A true three-man operated machine.
10. Automatic impulse starter, removing all danger of injury in cranking motor.
