

Local Happenings

Mrs. Vivian Kane arrived home from The Dalles on Tuesday and was at her place in the sheriff's office again. She reports that her husband, C. A. Kane, who was seriously injured by a tractor near Olex last week, and taken to the hospital at The Dalles for medical and surgical attention, is holding his own well and his recovery is looked for. Mr. Kane was very seriously hurt.

Sheriff McDuffee brought in a still on Tuesday. The outfit consisted of a couple of copper wash boilers, and it was evidently a plant that had been rigged up for making of distilled liquor in some out of the way place. It had not been used for some time from all appearances, and the sheriff did not divulge where he picked it up.

Dean Goodman, secretary of the Heppner chamber of commerce and also of the B. P. O. E. of Heppner, attended the Elks' initiation and social program in Condon Saturday. Mr. Goodman is a great home baseball fan saying their team is to be strong contenders for the league pennant.—Condon Globe-Times.

C. C. Rhea, wife and little daughter were visitors in Heppner from their home at Stanfield on Saturday. They brought the little girl over to be examined by a physician for adenoids, but she was found not to be afflicted. Mr. Rhea is located on a small place near Stanfield and engaged in running sheep.

Dean T. Goodman took Mrs. A. L. Ayers to Portland Sunday in the Ayers car. Mrs. Ayers will be followed later by her husband who is taking some household goods to the city for their new home. Mr. Goodman returned home later with a new car for the Morrow county roadmaster.

Harry French, who was down from his mountain home south of Hardman on Saturday, reports fully 17 inches of hard, packed snow on the ground in that vicinity, and the weather conditions have been pretty backward. He looks for fine range in the mountain section this season.

John Kilkenny and family visited friends and relatives in Condon while they were over from Heppner for the Elks' program Saturday. Mrs. Kilkenny is a daughter of Mrs. Kate Russell of Trailfork. Mr. Kilkenny is a large sheep owner of Heppner.—Condon Globe-Times.

Case Furniture company has the contract for laying new linoleum in the down stairs halls and in the office of the county clerk at the court house. This is to replace floor covering that has been in constant use since the court house was erected some 25 years ago.

Mrs. J. O. Hager drove to Portland on Sunday, being accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Roger Morse. The ladies returned home the middle of the week and Mr. Morse is driving up a new car that will be used by him in his work as county agent of Baker county.

J. W. Osborn of Cecil was a visitor here on Monday. He would like to see some real spring weather conditions prevail as vegetation stands in need of more warm sunshine than has been the order for the past several weeks.

Henry Cohn, sheep buyer of Heppner, combined business and pleasure when he attended the Elks' banquet and dance in town Saturday. He inquired around for sheep for sale while here.—Condon Globe-Times.

C. L. Sweek and family were among the Heppnerites who attended the Elks' celebration in this city Saturday. Mr. Sweek is a prominent attorney at Heppner.—Condon Globe-Times.

Mrs. George W. Swaggart was in Heppner on Saturday from her home at Pendleton. She visited with friends here for a short time, and also looked after some business affairs.

Gay M. Anderson, county clerk of Morrow county, was among the county officials attending the initiation and social program for the Elks' lodge Saturday.—Condon Globe-Times.

Henry C. Robertson, who has farmed for a number of years in the Butter creek section, has abandoned work and is now located in Heppner, where he plans to live in the future.

W. E. Moore and family of Heppner attended the Elks' program in Condon Saturday. Mr. Moore is cashier of the First National Bank of Heppner.—Condon Globe-Times.

Miss Leora Devin, who is one of the grade teachers in the Stanfield schools, was a visitor here over the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Devin.

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HERREIM, Correspondent.

The American Legion and Auxiliary gave a movie, "Hearts and Flats," Saturday night. There was a fair attendance.

Norine Olson stepped on a pitchfork last Thursday, causing her much pain for a day and she was unable to attend school on Friday. No further trouble was caused.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barlow came home Sunday evening from a pleasant trip to Athena where they visited over Saturday and Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Truman Messenger, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Alexander and daughters, Miss Florence and Mrs. W. J. Leupke of Chehalis, came up Friday and visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kelly. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander are Mrs. Kelly's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Coats and

Mrs. S. M. Cooney of Condon, visited last week at the L. C. Cooney home. Mrs. Cooney went on to Harbison to visit at the Kennedy home.

Boardman folks were greatly surprised to see D. S. Hughes on the project last week, representing the Fuller Brush Co. Mr. Hughes was pastor here for two years and later worked in the commissary department of the E. O. state hospital.

Mrs. O. B. Olson was an all-day visitor at the Herheim home Thursday.

Two workmen came up from the Villa nursery at Portland and are grafting the nursery stock of Chas. Wicklander, the local representative of the company. It is anticipated that about 10 days will be required to do the work.

The next Pomona Grange meeting will be held at Parkers Mill and will be a 3-day celebration July 2-3-4, with the Grangers of Grant and Morrow county uniting at this entertainment. Grant county has 13 Granges.

Sybil Grace Macomber was hostess Saturday afternoon to a number of her friends in honor of her 12th birthday. Games were played and delicious refreshments were served.

Guests were friends from the fifth and sixth grades, Emma Jean Wilson, Gloria Wicklander, Selma Ayers, Margaret Smith, Mary Anne Chaffee, Ona

Imus and Edna Beardsley. Miss Kankonen, her teacher, and Mrs. Ballenger and Maxene and Mrs. Chas. Goodwin were also present.

Maurice Goodwin came home Friday from California where he has been for some time.

A committee of local people met with Roger Morse, county agent and Wm. L. Teutsch of the extension department of O. A. C. on Saturday afternoon to discuss the coming of the demonstration train to be known as the Union Pacific Profits Special, which will be here April 27 for two hours from 8 till 10 a. m. This will be once in the history of Boardman where it will be necessary to be on time. This train is being run by the U. P. with the cooperation of the O. A. C. extension service at a cost of a thousand dollars per day.

It consists of seven cars of equipment with the splendid types of hogs and dairy cattle and after ample time is given for all to view the exhibits a program of demonstration and speaking will be given. (A list of the speakers will be found in another column.)

Lee Stical and R. S. Davis, agents at Messner and Boardman were members of the committee. Mr. Gignoux, assistant agent of the U. P., had expected to be present but was called to Portland the day previous. Please keep the date in mind and also remember you must be on time.

Clifford Olson was home from Portland over Sunday. He is employed with a welding gang of the O. W. R. & N.

Mrs. S. H. Boardman was on the sick list the fore part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Macomber came up from Olex for the week-end.

Jay Cox came home for a week-end visit with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Brown of Yonell came over Saturday and visited over Sunday at the Spagle home.

Mrs. Brown was a friend of Miss Beougher, they having graduated in the same high school class.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester have moved from Eck William's to the Spagle house in town. Mr. Lester is working for Hallenger.

On reaching The Dalles last Tuesday Bobby Smith's car collided with another to the detriment of the Smith car. No one was injured, fortunately.

Aid met at the J. C. Ballenger home last Wednesday with 25 present. Mrs. E. T. Messenger installed the officers for the ensuing year, Mrs. J. R. Johnson, president; Mrs. A. T. Herheim, vice president. The new secretary, Mrs. W. A. Price was ill and unable to be present. Mrs. L. V. Root in a neat speech of presentation on behalf of the aid, gave Mrs. Allen, the retiring president, a dainty tea service which Mrs. Allen greatly appreciated although it came as a complete surprise to her. Delicious refreshments were served.

At the meeting of the school board Saturday evening W. O. King was elected as teacher of manual training, science and athletic coach for next year. Mr. King has lived here for years and is well known to everyone. He has been darning but plans to sell his stock so as to devote all of his time to school work. It has always been the plan of the board to elect a manual training teacher who could handle athletics also, but this has been a hard combination to find. Mr. King was very active in athletics during his college days at O. A. C., was a teacher of manual training in Montana before coming here. He is a graduate of O. A. C.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Blayden and Fred Cosky were guests Sunday evening at dinner at the Herheim home.

The high school students and faculty members had a wienie roast on the river bank near Castle Rock. Games were played and all had a good time.

Mrs. Daisy Gillespie of Oregon City has been elected to the teaching staff of the Boardman school for next year. Mrs. Gillespie has had several years experience and comes well recommended. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barlow of Boardman.

One of the cabins at Warner's camp grounds came nearly being gutted by fire by a careless camper Monday morning when a lighted cigarette burned through the mattress. Fortunately it was discovered before any further damage was done. Mamie Hango is visiting at Mayger.

That's reason enough!

No wonder choice has swung 'round to Chesterfield. NATURAL TOBACCO TASTE —that's reason enough!

To be tasted food must not be smothered by sauces. And if this were true of nothing else on earth, it's true for tobacco. Nothing can improve on natural tobacco taste.
