DECLAMATORY CONTEST.
 Heppner high school feels a little more like "swelling up" at the close of the contest this year than they did last. They took two first prizes and a second, in the three divisions. Evelyn Swindig won a gold medal in the dramatic division, for presenting "The Littlest Rebel," and a word of praise for her presentation is only rightfully given. Dorothy Herren won a "first" in the humorous division when she so admirably gave "At the Movies." In the oratorical division Cornett Greene gave "The Man With the Hoe," and received second prize.
 Much of the honor is due the students themselves, but we should not forget the coach, Miss Murray, who patiently drilled the entrants, and helped them in all their deliveries.

HEHISCH SALES.
 Probably the most difficult feature of the Annual is the selling. John Conder has been chosen as circulation manager, and the work is progressing quite well. At present there have been about 120 annuals sold, this leaving 80 more to sell. Any one desiring a 1927 annual and has no spoken for one, may do so to any of the following salesmen: Katherine Bisbee, Evelyn Swindig, Mae Groshens, Mae Doherty, Harlan Devin or John Conder. The price of the annual is $1.25 and a payment may be made when your name is taken, or you may wait till you have your annual in your hands. All we desire is the names of all who wish annuals. The Hehisch will be off the press in a couple of weeks.

Ione Takes Good Lead on Heppner's Errors.
 Heppner met defeat at the hands of the Ione baseball team last Friday afternoon by a score of 18 to 8. Both teams played open all through the game, with quite a few errors chalked up against both teams.
 The batteries of the two teams: Marvin Gammell and Howard Evans for Heppner, and Larie Ritchie and Lowell Clark for Ione. They had very little support when the batters were lucky enough to hit one of the balls.

Another trial is under way in the Civics class. Mae Groshens is suing C. in Bisbee for non-support and infidelity. He is bringing up a counter suit because she was an unfaithful wife, didn't perform her duties and subjected their six year old child, Marjorie Clark, to unwholesome influence.
 Grace Buschke is named correspondent. Orrin's lawyer is Merle Becket. The identity of Mae's lawyer has not been revealed. The trial will be called Thursday. Miss Fishel will render the decision.

Mr. Burgess sprung an intelligence test upon the Civics class last Friday. The test consisted of many different types of questions. The results have not as yet been known.

Ethel Moore returned to school on Wednesday after being absent for nearly a week. She attended a Christian Endeavor convention at Oregon City.

The Heppnerian staff regrets very much the illness of the editor in chief Joy Erwin. Joy has the measles and will not be able to return until Monday.

The grade school game between Heppner and Ione ended with a score of 22 to 5 in favor of Ione. This was the first game played on the home field by the boys and the first one lost by them.

HI JINKS.
 The "H" club boys and Booster club girls are feverishly preparing a Hi-Jinks, or carnival, to be given at the old Chevrolet garage Friday evening, May 6.

A general overseeing committee composed of Gene Doherty, Charles Notson and Onex Parker report great progress in their plans for a novel and diverting entertainment.
 The program committee composed of Steve Thompson, Bob Turner and Terrel Bengo promise that the carnival will be a "humdinger" though they are very secretive about the various features. From the few words which they have divulged we are certain that there will be, among other things—a match between Sprouts and Gammell.

A unique and unexcelled collection of animals will be shown. They have secured a "find" in Vicouza, the only wild animal of its kind in existence, not to mention monkeys, ground hogs and "dears."

A large confection booth is being constructed at much expense.
 Heppner high souvenir rings will be given to everyone at the close of the entertainment. Paul Hialer and Merle Becket are the advertising committee and they are busy making the public aware of the great treat to be turned loose on May 6.

Junior-Senior Banquet.
 The juniors are working hard on the plan for the Junior-Senior banquet. The banquet is to be given in the basement of the Christian church on May 14. The menu committee with the help of Miss Murray has the menu planned and are ready for work. The scheme has not yet been planned in detail.

Freshman Return Party.
 The freshmen will give a return party in the form of a Hard Times affair on tomorrow, Friday the 29th. A prize will be given to the upper-classman who looks the most fittingly dressed for the occasion. It will start at eight o'clock in Swindig Hall. The freshmen promise a new and novel entertainment. This return party gets its name as it returns the initiation party.

Marjorie French: "D'd you know that Mr. Johnson is one of the 'Three Musketeers'?"
 Frida Akers: "No, why?"
 M.F.: "Well he says that we 'must get here' at nine o'clock every morning."

Jack Casteel: "These high school girls should make wonderful firemen."
 Harlan Devin: "Why?"
 Jack: "They have so much experience rolling hose."

Heppnerian Sales.
 The Heppnerian Literary society will sell ice-cream at school Friday afternoon and at Friday's game. The committee appointed to have charge of the sales is: Audrey Beymer, Kenneth Oviatt and Mae Doherty. Stanley Minor is to draw cartoons for the advertising.

The Heppnerian banquet for the basketball boys has been postponed on account of lack of time.

An apportionment of books, consisting of around forty dollars, has been received by Mr. Burgess. These books are to be purchased for use in the school library.
