

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HREIM. Correspondent.

Mrs. Frank Anderson and daughter June of Condon motored over to spend Sunday with the former's father, W. A. Goodwin.

Mrs. O. H. Warner was called to Redding, Calif., by a telegram Sunday. She had planned to leave Saturday of this week. She will visit her daughter Mrs. John Heck and family.

The Adventists held dedication services Sunday evening at their church. A number of out of town people were in attendance.

A number of Boardman folks have been having another flu attack this week. Mrs. Frank Cramer, Mrs. Royal Hands and mother, Mrs. Hiatt, are among the victims.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Blayden are great-grandparents, a 6½-lb. daughter having arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Olson at Clatskanie on April 20. Mrs. Olson was Gladys Paine and spent several years of her girlhood here.

The Ladies Aid gave a movie "Irene" Saturday night. Some portions of the film contained features that were not exactly the most desirable but it is a difficult matter to find a film that does not portray some of these characteristics.

Boardman friends are pleased to hear of the arrival of Glen Edward Carr, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Carr at San Francisco, April 1. Mr. Carr was the manual training teacher here last year.

The H. B. Hawkins family are quarantined with scarlet fever.

A. Porter has been a Portland visitor for several days.

May 8th is the date set for the Bacalaueate sermon which will be held at the church. Rev. D. F. Thompson of Portland will deliver the address. On May 12 the commencement exercises will be held. W. S. Gleisen will be the speaker of the evening. Mr. Gleisen was the commencement orator here two years ago.

Mrs. Lee Mead was a Heppner visitor Friday.

A number of Boardman people motored to Heppner Friday to attend the county declamatory contest. All enjoyed the trip and while sorry we did not return with first prizes, were glad to bring back two seconds. Mildred Ayers, one of the contestants, was unable to attend. Norma Gibbons, Mary Smith and Mary Chaffee were the Boardman representatives. Balkegers, Kellys, Mrs. Chaffee, Fortiers, Mrs. Gorham, and several of the teachers attended.

The Home Economics class of the Grange met Wednesday at the A. B. Chaffee home. A most delicious covered dish luncheon was enjoyed.

Geo. Gross and family were guests Sunday at a lovely dinner at the O. B. Olson home.

Mrs. O. H. Warner and Mrs. J. M. Allen attended the beautifully appointed dinner Friday evening, May 22, held in the Indian Grille of the Multnomah hotel in Portland. These dinners are given through the courtesy of Robert S. Dollar of the steamship line, who has given so generously to the pension fund for aged ministers. Over 500 guests were present and an address by Rev. Thompson, moderator of the Presbyterian church was one of the chief features of the evening. Mrs. Warner returned home on Saturday morning but Mrs. Allen remained for several days to visit with old friends.

The Misses Ethel Beougher and Elsie Silver were guests Sunday at the Boardman home at a most delightful dinner.

Al Hiatt of Echo visited for a short time Thursday at the Royal Randa home.

Boardman folks are busy replanting gardens as all early garden was frozen by the late visit of Jack Frost April 19th.

Mrs. S. H. Boardman left Friday morning for Portland where she will attend another of the meetings of the Presbyterians.

The senior class play, "The Elopement of Ellen" will be held Saturday night.

The County Agent will show a moving picture film May 3 at the school house on bees. This is a demonstration film and is free of charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mead extended their hospitality Sunday at a lovely dinner, having Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gorham and children as guests.

Boardman golf fans have organized a golf club called the Doring Golf club, named for Carl Doring who laid out the course. This is quite a popular diversion and Boardman is becoming the Mecca for many on Sundays. Membership is $5 per and the money is used for the upkeep of the links.

Bobby Smith won Carl Dering's golf button Sunday on the first nine holes but the second round Carl won it back.

The high school students enjoyed another of their popular weenie roasts Tuesday evening at the Green house on the river.

Riebert Johnson came home for a few hours Sunday. He is driving for Churchill who has charge of the oiling crew and is headquartered at Pendleton at present. Rachel went back to Pendleton with him and returned home on a late train.

Mrs. Claude Myers plans to leave this week for Portland to visit Mr. Myers' mother who is a patient at Emanuel hospital since a fall several weeks ago when her hip was broken.

John Brice and wife were called to Vancouver Tuesday to attend the funeral services of a niece of Mr. Brice who passed away Sunday evening.

Frank Otto came home Monday from a trip to his old home in Germany, bringing back a charming bride. Mr. Otto was one of the prosperous bachelors of the project and made two trips to Germany in recent years. Mrs. Otto is a pretty brunette and as yet speaks no English.

The sheafing crew started work Tuesday morning at the Marshall ranch. The Turner crew has charge of the work.

HARDMAN.

Mr. and Mrs. George Browning and daughter of Portland have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bleakman and family and Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDaniel. They are on their way to their new home at Nampa, Idaho.

Miss Myrtle Engstrom of McPherson, Kansas, Mrs. C. Anderson of Seattle, Mrs. Madena Gustavson and Mrs. H. Lewis of San Francisco are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Johnson.

Mrs. Zoe Matteson was a visitor at the home of Mrs. Mary McDaniel on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Chapel were visitors here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McDaniel and children were visiting here Sunday.

Mrs. C. E. Leathers of Parkers Mill was a visitor at the home of Mrs. O.

H. Leathers Saturday.

Mrs. Annie Saling spent the week-end in Hardman.

The Hardman baseball nine beat the Dry Fork Granger's team Sunday by a score of 15 to 7. This is the first game played and both teams show some weak points. We are expecting a much better game here next Sunday, May 1st.

Mrs. Lorena Isom and Margaret Swift visited Mrs. Francis Sperry on Sunday.

W. H. Ayers was a visitor here last Thursday.

Charles Knighten and Frank Howell were visitors in town Monday.

Reid Buseick, who made a business visit to Canyon City and also to the Buseick ranch north of Hamilton the end of the past week, reports that conditions as to weather have been quite similar in Grant county to what we have had here. As it is now warming up grain and grass conditions are improving. Reid also took time to have a visit at the home of his brother, Dempsey Boyer, at Monument, before returning home.

Mrs. Dessa Copenhaver was a visitor over the week-end at Heppner from her home in Pendleton.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE OF REAL PROPERTY.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an execution and order of sale, issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Morrow County, to me directed, and dated April 25th, 1927, in that certain suit in said court wherein L. L. Patterson, Thos. B. Kay and Sam A. Kozar, constituting the State Land Board of the State of Oregon, recovered judgment against Glenn A. Ball and Lydia M. Ball, his wife, for the sum of $750 with interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from February 9, 1925; the further sum of $100 attorneys' fees and costs and disbursements in the sum of $15. Said Court also on said date entered a decree for the foreclosure of the plaintiff's mortgage and sale of the hereinafter described real property.

I will, on the 28th day of May, 1927, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. of said day at the front door of the County Court house in Heppner, Oregon, offer for sale and sell to the highest bidder for cash in hand, all of the following described real property in Morrow County, State of Oregon, to-wit:

The Northwest quarter of Section 10 in Township 3 South, Range 23 E. W. M.

or so much of said real property as may be necessary to satisfy the plaintiff's judgment, including costs, attorney's fees, and accruing costs of sale.

Dated and first published April 28th, 1927.

GEORGE McDUFFEE, Sheriff of Morrow County, Oregon.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT.

Notice is hereby given that the underigned executrix of the estate of Frances J. Gordon, deceased, has filed her final account as such executrix and that the County Court of the State of Oregon for Morrow County has appointed Saturday, the 21st day of May, 1927, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day as the time and the County Court Room in the Court House at Heppner, Oregon, as the place of hearing and settlement of said final account. Objections to said final account must be filed on or before said date.

BESSIE J. THOMSON, Executrix.
