The annual junior-senior banquet will be held Saturday evening of this week at the parlors of the Christian church. For this, extensive preparations have been made and it is expected to be the climax of the social affairs of the school for the year.

Examinations will be conducted on Tuesday and Wednesday, and on Friday night, May 20th, commencement exercises will mark the close of the school year, with a class of 27 ready to receive their diplomas. These are Tom Wells, Mae Groshens, Audrey Heymer, Marjorie Clark, Mary Ritchie, Stanley Minor, Ethel Moore, Ethel Hughes, Paul Bisler, Marvin Gammell, Ruth Farling, Hazel McDaid, Marvin Wightman, Laura Williams, Gene Doherty, Frieda Akers, Grace Buschke, Earl Ayers, Orrin Bisbee, Joy Erwin, Marjorie French, William Bucknum, Anna Wightman, Reta Crawford, Velma Fell, Louise Thomson and Merle Becket.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction C. A. Howard will deliver the commencement address this year. Supt. Howard is a personal friend of Supt. Burgess, and it is through the efforts of the latter that Mr. Howard consented to come to Heppner this year. There will be a treat in store for all those who hear Supt. Howard, and the other features of the commencement program will be interesting.

High School Teachers

Entertain on Saturday

Saturday afternoon, from the hours of two to five, the Eugene Campbell residence was the scene of a large tea, sponsored by the Misses DeLoria, Pearson, Esther Margaret Wright, Anne Murray, Esta Miller and Esther Fishel, instructors in Heppner high school.

The guests came in three groups, from two to three, three to four, and four to five. They were met at the door by Phyllis Jane Pollock. The rooms were charmingly decorated with spring flowers, yellow and white, with tall yellow candles to complete the color scheme. Refreshments of sherbet, wafers, candies, tea and coffee were served by Doris Hiatt and Zella McFerrin, assisted by Jeanette Turner. Mrs. Eugene Campbell added a dignified and hospitable note by presiding at the tea table.

Music was furnished throughout the afternoon by Esther Margaret Wright, Virginia Dix and Jeanette Turner. During the first hour Miss Wright, accompanied by Louise Thomson, sang "I Hear a Thrush at Eve," by Cadman, and "In Carcosa," by Mary Turner Slater. The second hour Jeanette Turner gave "A Sea Garden" by Francis Cooke, and during the third hour Virginia Dix played "Vals" by Chopin and "To the Rising Sun," by Tjorjusson.

CHAUTAUQUANS TO MEET.

A meeting of the guarantors of Heppner Chautauqua is called for tomorrow, Friday evening, at 8:00 at the council chambers. As the coming chautauqua is but a short time ahead, it is necessary that some important planning be done, and a full attendance of the signers of the guarantee is desired.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL.

The organization of the 1927 Vacation Bible school has been completed, and it is planned to have the sessions begin promptly on Monday, May 23rd. The session is planned to cover a period of two weeks, and the school will be in charge of competent instructors. Plan to have your children attend.

Ferguson Chevrolet company have treated their big garage building on the southwest corner of Main and May streets to a liberal supply of fresh paint, and Ed Berry has spread on the front thereof some prominent signs. It all helps in the appearance of the structure and makes the corner loom up better than ever.

THRILLING GAME TAKEN FROM IONE BY LOCALS SUNDAY

LaMear's Homer Following Van Marter's Double in Ninth Cinched Heppner 2-1 Win.

League Standings	Won	Lost	Pct.
Heppner	4	1	.800
Ione	2	3	.400
Condon	2	3	.400
Arlington	2	3	.400

Taking but an hour and a half, the closest and hardest fought game witnessed in this city for years thrilled the record crowd of the season when Ione and Heppner crossed bats at Kedeo field Sunday.

Arch Cochran, Ione receiver, the first man up, clouted the first pitched ball for a three-base hit, starting things off with a bang. Werner Rietmann grabbed hold of the very next delivery for a high fly to Anderson in center, scoring Cochran. Pitcher Drake made the mistake of throwing across a couple of 1st fence balls and the two Ione veterans were smart enough to swing on them, netting the visitors their only score of the day.

The stands were on edge when the last half of the ninth and Heppner's last trip came. But they were not held long in suspense. Van Marter walked up first and after a couple of deliveries got one that suited him. He took it for a two-base ride into deep center. Then LaMear grabbed up a hickory and parked Mr. Davis' next delivery in the cow barn, over the middle fence, for a circuit excursion. It was a beautiful hit and Fielder Eubanks had not yet found the ball when LaMear trotted in home. Of course that ended it. There was no need to continue further as Heppner had the game won.

The exciting start followed by clean fast ball to a super climax in record time for a bush game, served to instill the stands with a fighting spirit hitherto absent in Heppner ball crowds. The spectators as well as the players were on their toes every second of the hour and a half.

One inning Ione's batters were re-lined on three pitched balls, while in another Heppner's game went down on four. Only three men reached first base on errors. Two of these were chalked up against Bristow, Ione shortstop, but he is not open to blame considering the way he was over-worked. Mr. Bristow made six put-outs and five assists, the fielding record for the game. The other error was made on a throw by Thirdsacker Cason to Hoskins at first which hit the dirt and Hoskins failed to get it. In the eighth Ione had the only other good chance to score. Fasnacht and Mauney singled. Fasnacht out on Lundell's fielder's choice to pitcher. Cochran struck out. Werner Rietmann hit by pitched ball filled the bases. But Drake ended it by making Pitcher Drake a present of a little roller. Davis and Drake each allowed but five hits. Drake struck out 10 batters to Davis' 5. Ione got eight men on bases, and Heppner 11. "Ducky" Drake was credited with the only stolen base.

This victory put Heppner in first league place good and strong with four wins and one loss. Arlington won from Condon Sunday 5-4, tying Condon, Ione and Arlington for second place. Next Sunday Heppner plays at Condon and Arlington plays at Ione.

WHEAT SHOULD MAKE BUMPER CROP THIS YEAR

Lexington Business Man Gives Encouraging Report on Morrow County Crop Outlook.

"If the present prospects hold out until harvest, Morrow county will have the greatest yield of wheat in her history," is the opinion expressed to this paper by Karl L. Beach, Lexington implement dealer, who was in the city a short time on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Beach is basing his opinion upon a personal visitation to the wheat fields covering the greater portion of the county, that he has made during the past week, and his survey of the situation has been quite complete. He has taken in all of the wheat belt with the exception of upper Eight Mile and the Hardman area, and his long experience, covering a period of about 30 years, spent in the Lexington wheat belt, would seem to qualify Mr. Beach as an expert witness when it comes to testimony touching the crop outlook.

Mr. Beach finds the grain developing steadily toward the heading out stage and the cool weather that has prevailed has been ideal for the greater part of the county. The recent cold snap has done no damage whatever to growing grain in this county, and in only one instance did Mr. Beach find the grain was injured. This was to a field of volunteer hard federation on the McMurray place in the lone section. This grain had developed ahead of sown grain in that vicinity and was in the boot when the freeze came. Mr. McMurray thought it so seriously injured that he turned sheep on the ground and pastured it off, after which he started his plows in the field. It is barely possible that this grain was not so badly hurt as it appeared on first sight after the freeze, but Mr. McMurray was not concerned in waiting to see what might happen to it. While rain would help in moistening up the surface of the ground, it is the opinion of Mr. Beach, as well as of others with whom we have conversed, that should the rain hold off for another week or two, it will be all the better, as the excess of foliage will by that time dry up, and the rain will put the development into the heads.

Because of the cool spring, Mr. Beach stated that he finds the farmers generally slow in getting ready for the coming harvest. The crop is developing so gradually, and conditions as to weather have been so backward, that haste has not been made in getting machinery in shape. Usually by the first of May the conditions are such that farmers are getting out their headers and combines and repairing them for work, but not so this year. And yet, harvest is not so far away, and development of grain will be quite rapid from now on.

Barring adverse weather conditions or some calamity, Morrow county should have the greatest crop in her history this season. We are justified in making this prediction from present conditions and the further fact that the acreage of both fall and spring sown grain is larger than for many years past.

This Week

Soldiers Need Brain. We Are Religious. Killing Breeds Killing. The Hateful Age.

A college authority says college men fail, not for lack of learning, but for lack of CHARACTER. There is not enough discipline in universities, Dr. Brown tells the Union College Alumni Association.

Colleges treat boys from 18 to 23 as though they were men, whereas usually they are children.

On the other hand the West Point Academy seems to overdo discipline. A first-year cadet, A. J. Van Leeuwen, trying to stand straight and stiff enough to please his superiors, strained too hard and broke his neck.

Young West Pointers, stiff and straight, are fine to see and gratifying to their superior officers. But it is an agile mind rather than a stiff neck that makes a great soldier. Napoleon was slouchy, also Frederick the Great.

Lord Incepage says missionaries are to blame for the upheaval against Britain in China. This calls indignantly denials from bishops and others.

Everybody should know that missionaries have done great good, not only spiritually but materially in the Far East, especially in a medical way. They have taught natives to take care of their bodies as well as their souls.

Some of them, it is true, have made money. The seven greatest sugar fortunes made in Hawaii all belonged to descendants of intelligent missionaries.

But what is there wrong about saving the souls of heathen and making a fortune, honestly, at the same time? One, or ten, talents should not be buried. The Bible says so.

Major Coupal, President Coolidge's physician, says some Egyptians had false teeth. He has a set found in the Nile mud made by the Greeks who now sell you fruit and other things.

Such teeth were rare. Even in George Washington's day the making of them was very clumsy. The ancients went through old age without false teeth or eye glasses.

No wonder they called old age "the hateful road."

The Egyptian Chamber of Deputies has passed a cotton limitation law, and for three years cotton planting in Egypt will be cut down two-thirds.

The Government thinks that the best way to solve low-price problem. Some may starve—but that is part of the game.

Here, thus far, Government decides that the best thing to do about cotton farmers is to do nothing. That also works, sometimes.

Attorney-General Shaffer of North Dakota wants the Legislature to restore the death penalty for murder. He says a burglar will shoot more recklessly if he knows the worst penalty is life imprisonment. In fact, those that practice robbery with violence deliberately select States where there is no gallows or electric chair.

Perhaps exceptions must be made in these days of promiscuous shooting, but it has been proved a thousand ways that, under normal conditions, murder increases when the Government sets an example in killing.

We are more religious than the people of England. There such questions as "Do you believe in God—in immortality—in Hell—in Heaven—in the Divine Birth of Christ," etc., bring all sorts of strange answers.

Here we usually answer "Yes" to such questions. Good times have something to do with it. Many are too prosperous and busy to devote much time to thinking or questioning.

APPEAR IN CONCERT.

Miss Charlene Endicott, pianist, Miss Esther Fredrickson, violinist, and Miss Isabelle Macy, accompanist, students of McDonald School of Music, Pendleton, appeared in recital at the Christian church on Wednesday evening. Assisting on the program was Miss Esther Margaret Wright, supervisor of music in the Heppner schools, who offered several numbers, being accompanied by Miss Helen Fredrickson. The entertainment was sponsored by the Christian Endeavor society and a silver offering taken, which goes into the piano fund of the society. The program was of very high order and well received by the goodly number attending.
