Brought Plague.

CHINA right now is in the limelight. Every day we pick up the papers we see what new developments have taken place in that country. Yet few people seem to realize that in early days China played an innocent though tragic part in the life of the people of the Columbia River Basin.

Dr. Frank Crane Says YOU SHOULD MAKE A WILL

THE Mercantile Trust Company of Baltimore has issued a little booklet called Studies in Wills. This book is not for sale, but is distributed among interested parties. The making of a will is a very old idea. It is the effort of a man to impose his desires upon his followers after he is dead.

England Looks Us Over.

ENGLISH investigators have had an eye-opener in a study of industrial conditions in this country, and have discovered, greatly to their amazement, how general is the use of electricity in the United States. After spending three months in the United States and Canada, a commission discovered enough that was new to them to issue an illuminating report upon their return.

Advertising Lowers Costs

NEWSPAPER advertising in America cost $235,000,000 last year, a gain of $15,000,000 over the previous year. It has been argued that advertising is so much waste, so much added unnecessarily to the cost of the articles sold. In one sense, it is true; if the sales could be made without it, the prices could be just that much less to the consumer.

Accidents.

The word accident by derivation means something which "falls across." Falls across what? Why, some orderly procedure! Accident implies an order violated. If there were no order in the world there would be no accidents, for all events would then be equally casual.

Your troubles will not "grow" if you quit telling them to others.

It is said that woman has no sense of humor,—that she cannot take a joke. After looking at some of their husbands—we know differently.

Honest At Least

Mary went to a fortune teller the other day and asked him when was the best time to get married. Well, he took one look at her and advised her to grab the first chance.

Good Intent

"Give me a sentence with the word vicious." "Ye gods and little vicious."

You've Heard Them

Bill (just back from Klondike)—Some of the guys get on my nerves. They try to pin me down and ask me exactly how much I really made up there.

No Spake English

(At the Zoo)—By George! that elephant looks just like Mary's beau. Big Boy—Why, is that a nice thing to say?

Just Like a Woman

She (after a bitter fight)—Well, the only thing left to do is to divide this house in two, you can have one side and I'll take the other.

Yes'ir Suz Fact

"I've just had a harrowing experience." "Did you?" "Yeah—I was working on a farm and broke up some land."

The Difference

There are a number of nickel cigars on the market. The trouble is that they charge fifteen cents for them.

Even Exchange

"Excuse this bit of sarcasm," said Smith to Jones, "but I must say you are an infamous liar and scoundrel!"

If We Had Some Ham

No Mail Today

by O. LAWRENCE HAWTHORNE She stood in line a long, long time Before the moment came For her to face the window bars And tell the clerk her name. Still hopeful, yet with eyes that ached, She saw him shake his head. "There ought to be a letter here; Please look once more!" she said.

"No mail today!" Oh, what a stab Of heartache or despair Is often felt by one who hears Those words! For everywhere—In city, village, on the farm—Folks ask and wait and pray For letters that will never come. "No mail for you today!"

Perhaps there is a heart that longs To hear a word from you; Perhaps your letter is among Those sadly overdue. Why don't you make it possible For someone to exclaim: "I knew there should be mail for me! At last my letter came!"
