Basketball Awards.

Basketball letters were awarded to the following girls, last Thursday: Mary Ritchie, Hazel McDonald, Joy Erwin, Mae Groshens, Catherine Bisbee and Frieda Akers. In order to attain one of these letters, the student must have played five halves.

Basketball letters were awarded the following boys: Gene Doherty, Bob Turner, Steven Thompson, William Buckman, John Farley and Onex Parker.

Baseball letters were presented to Howard Evans, Bob Turner, Onex Parker, Clarence Hayes, Marvin Gammell, Nolan Turner, Gerald Slocum.

Junior-Senior Party.

On Friday after the junior-senior banquet a dancing party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Oviatt, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Erwin, and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Parker in the Grange hall on Rhea creek. The dance was well attended by both classes. Delicious punch and wafers were very refreshing after strenuous dances, many of which could not be classified as mere waltzes and steps. The music was highly applauded and many ladies' choice dances were in vogue.

CAN YOU IMAGINE—

Mary Ritchie getting to school on time?
 Marjorie Clark tall and thin?
 Paul Hiesler teaching geometry?
 Orrin Bisbee dancing?
 May Groshens the fat lady in a circus?
 Anna Wightman not being happy?
 Eugene Doherty in short trousers?
 Miss Pearson keeping her hands still?
 Grace Buschke not wanting to fight?
 Ruth Furlong without freckles?
 Freda Akers being dramatic?

HARDMAN.

John Howell from near Monument was in our little city Monday. His daughter Blanche, who has been attending the Hardman public schools the past year, went home with him.

The Hardman baseball team traveled to Lexington last Sunday to play the fast Lexington team. The Lexington boys had scheduled a "double header" for that day and therefore cut the first game to five innings. That, however, was long enough for Lexington to completely smother Hardman, the final score being 14-0.

Final examinations came to an end Monday noon, at the union high school. Many a sigh of relief could be distinctly heard. At two o'clock in the afternoon G. A. Bleakman, chairman of the board of education, addressed the student body. His subject was "The Value of a High School Education." At the close of his short talk he presented the diplomas to the graduating class. Those so honored were Ted Burnside and Thomas McCarty.

The high school and the upper grades enjoyed a joint picnic up Chapin creek last Tuesday.

The local Odd Fellows lodge at their last meeting decided to spend Sunday, May 29, improving their cemetery. All Odd Fellows, and all others who have dear ones buried there, should avail themselves of this opportunity to fix up the graves and to improve the appearance of the cemetery in general. But the order of the day is not all work. A fine picnic lunch is part of the program. Don't forget the date, May 29.

High School Picnic.

As a fitting climax for the final examinations, the Heppner high school is motoring to the Hamilton ranch today, for a picnic. Cars have been obtained by the seniors to convey the students to the scene of action. The parents have been invited to attend this outing if they care to do so. Refreshments will consist of salad, sandwiches and cake to be furnished by the junior and freshman classes. The sophomores are the guests of honor, for having won the point system that was initiated in the school this term. The students are planning to return about 5:30 in the evening.

Merle Becket: "What's the matter, Tom? You don't look very well."
 Tom Wells: "I've got insomnia. I woke up twice in arithmetic class the other day."

Dick Wightman has written a song and has entitled it, "She was only an electrician's daughter, but oh, what a shock she was to me."

Wednesday morning at nine o'clock parts of the concert given the night before at the Christian church were repeated in the high school assembly by Miss Charlene Endicott, pianist and Miss Esther Fredrickson, with solos by Miss Isabella Macy on the piano. The students were very appreciative and encored each musician. They are students at the McDonald Studio of Music in Pendleton.

Reta Crawford: "Does Audrey Beymer know anything about electricity?"
 Marjorie French: "No, she even wonders what kind of a nut belongs on a thunderbolt!"

this week.

Miss Hazel McDonald has been working at Floyd Adams' this spring. Mrs. E. L. Ayers and Mrs. Mary McDaniel left early Sunday morning for Astoria, where they will attend the sessions of the Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F. and Rebekahs of Oregon. They expect to return Friday or Saturday.

Typing Awards

Two more names have been added to the L. C. Smith honor roll chart at this week. Orrin Bisbee won a second gold pin, this time from the L. C. Smith and Corona Typewriter Co. for writing a speed test at the net rate of sixty words a minute, for fifteen consecutive minutes.
 John Conder, first year typist, won a bronze pin from the same company, for writing forty-two words a minute for fifteen minutes.

Election Returns.

Elections for next year's student body officers were held last Thursday at the high school. Those receiving majority votes were: Gerald Slocum, president; Kenneth Oviatt, vice-president; Margaret Notson, secretary; Stephen Thompson, treasurer; Ellis Thomson, sergeant-at-arms; Dorothy Herren and Jack Casteel, yell leaders.

New Manager Appointed For Lexington Warehouse

A change was made recently in the management of Lexington Farmers Warehouse company, the position being taken by S. S. Strotzman, formerly with the Tum-A-Lum Lumber company at Lexington. Mr. Strotzman succeeds W. L. Blakely who resigned to become local buyer for Kerr, Gifford & Co., extensive warehousemen and grain dealers of the Northwest.

Mr. Strotzman was with the Tum-A-Lum company for a period of nine years, and for the past several years has been manager of the yards at Lexington, in which capacity he served both company and public in an agreeable and satisfactory manner, and the officers of the Farmers Warehouse company consider that they have been quite fortunate in securing him as manager of their warehouse and business at Lexington. Mr. Strotzman is likewise quite pleased that he will have this opportunity of serving his community in a larger sphere of activity.

Alex Warren of Boardman, who is employed with the Frank Turner shearing crew, was in town for a short time on Saturday following the shearing of the L. V. Gentry bands. He would not have much of a lay off, however, as the crew was to begin work at the Pat Connell ranch in Spring Hollow on Sunday. Mr. Warren reports the wool exceptionally clean this season.

Tom Hughes is up from Portland and contemplates spending some time on the Hughes farm west of town with his brothers.

NOTICE OF STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.

Notice is hereby given that the Annual Meeting of the stockholders of Lexington Farmers' Warehouse Company will be held at the Leach Hall in Lexington, Oregon, on the first Wednesday in June, 1927, said date being the 1st day of June, 1927, at the hour of 1:30 in the afternoon. At said meeting will occur the election of directors, and such other business will be transacted as may legally come before the meeting.
