

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HREIM, Correspondent.

The members of the fair board from Boardman were taken to Irrigon Wednesday of last week by Chas. Smith, county agent and met with the Irrigon members. Plans were formulated for the coming fair which will be held in Boardman again instead of at Irrigon as was first planned. Since the fair is to be held at Boardman it was thought advisable for the officers to be elected from here. Lee Mead was reelected treasurer, Chas. H. Dillabough was reelected secretary and Mrs. A. T. Hreim was elected president. A number of changes were made in the premium list. Since the frost damaged fruits so badly in the Irrigon section, fresh fruits were eliminated from the list—peaches, pears, apricots, quinces, apples, crab-apples, prunes and plums. A prize of $10 and $5 will be given for the best general exhibit. Live stock was added to the list this year with first and second prizes for the two breeds of registered dairy cows and prizes also for the best grade cow. Sheep were also placed on the list and a prize will be given for the largest watermelon, pumpkin, squash and Persian melon. A few changes were made in the personnel of the division superintendents. Everyone is urged to keep the fair in mind and all cooperate to make it the most successful we have yet had. About $600 is available for prize money. The premium lists will be published in June and everyone is urged to keep a copy and make plans for the articles they wish to exhibit.

The Legion and Auxiliary will have another good movie May 28, Saturday night. The last one "Rocking Moon" was exceptionally good.

F. F. Klitz returned Friday from a pleasant trip to Astoria where he went as delegate of the local lodge of I. O. O. F., attending the three-day session. Mrs. Leslie Packard was appointed delegate of the Rebekahs but was unable to attend.

Ladies Aid met Wednesday of last week at the church. Mrs. Boardman and Mrs. Johnson had charge of the missionary topic and Mrs. Boardman gave a report of the "Report Dinners" which she attended at Portland recently. Some sewing for one of the Indian mission schools was allotted to the aid and a quilt will be pieced at the next meeting as part of the work. Mrs. E. T. Messenger and her committee will entertain at the next silver tea at the Messenger home. This will be held Wednesday, June 1. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Price and son Billy and Mrs. Allegra Fees and daughter Ruth were guests at a smart dinner at the J. R. Johnson home last Friday. Mrs. Fees has been one of the most successful and popular teachers in the Boardman schools.

The weather man seems to have his "wires crossed" this spring and we are getting an abundance of March wind in May. On Tuesday we experienced one of the most disagreeable windstorms in our history. The devastated gardens which were not protected by a good wind break as they were whipped and cut by fine particles of sand, and by the time the storm ended vegetation looked as the it had been frosted.

Mrs. Lee Mead asked a few friends in Friday afternoon to meet her aunt, Mrs. C. W. Mead of Portland who visited two weeks at the Mead home. The afternoon was spent in visiting and later a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess.

Chas. Smith, county agent of Heppner, was a Boardman visitor last Wednesday and Thursday. He is a personable young man who will no doubt be able to fill the position very capably. He was a Smith-Hughes teacher at Dufur for the past four years.

Blanche Imus came home Saturday from Pullman, Wash., where she has been teaching the past year in a rural school near there, and will visit for a week with her parents, leaving shortly for Cheney, Wash., where she will attend normal. She has been reelected to her position for another year at an increase in salary.

Dallas Mallory and wife of Portland were guests last week at the John L. Jenkins home. Mr. Mallory is a nephew of Mr. Jenkins.

June 4 is the date set for the Stunt Night program and from present indications it will be a splendid evening's entertainment. Each organization is allotted 30 minutes and some clever things are planned. The various organizations which use Root's hall are putting on this program and the proceeds are to be used for the purchase of knives, forks and spoons for the hall. An admission of 15c and 25c will be charged. This includes both the entertainment and lunch which consists of coffee, sandwiches and pickles.

John Jenkins was on the sick list a few days last week.

Mrs. W. H. Mefford left Thursday for Everett, Wash., to see her father who is quite ill. We reported this last week as she made all preparations to leave and a later wire informed her of his improvement, but a wire this week stated that he was seriously ill. She went by way of Arlington and Yakima going to Wapato where she met her sister, Mrs. Johns, who accompanied her.

Ed Miles was a Boardman visitor again last week.

Baileys and Mrs. Alex Warren were Boardman visitors last Friday. Mrs. Warren left Saturday for Kimberly, Oregon, to visit her daughter for a time.

The Greenfield Grange had a fine meeting Saturday night. A good program and lunch were pleasing features of the evening. The men of the Grange are to serve at the next meeting and a fine feed is anticipated. Several Irrigon Grangers attended.

The members of the club which meets each Thursday, entertained their husbands Saturday night at the spacious home of Mrs. Leslie Packard.

Marie Messenger returned to her work at The Dalles hospital where she is taking nurses training, last Wednesday, after a week's visit with home folks. Marie likes her work very well.

Mrs. Fees and children were guests Sunday at the J. M. Allen home.

Rev. R. D. Swogger was entertained

ed Sunday at the M. K. Flickinger home.

Nellie Messenger will return Sunday from a pleasant visit in Portland. Uram Messenger and wife are expected to come with her for a short visit at the Messenger home.

Alec Wilson has been at Hot Lake with his mother, Mrs. Wm. Wilson of Heppner, who is a patient at the sanitarium, where she has been suffering with neuritis.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Myers and children and Geo. Gross and family were entertained Sunday at a sumptuous dinner at the J. H. Imus home.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Shane and Albert Shane of Arlington were recent visitors at the Robt. Wilson home. Mrs. Wilson returned with them to Arlington Thursday and spent the day. The Shane brothers are nephews of Mrs. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown and Mabel motored to Hermiston Monday for dental work. Mr. Brown had his teeth extracted some time ago and went up to have an impression made prior to getting his set of "store teeth."

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Farley were Heppner visitors last week.

Ether, Ona and Blanche Imus were overnight guests Monday at the Geo. Gross home. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Imus were guests Tuesday at the Gross home.

Mrs. Ray Brown, Mrs. A. B. Chaffee and Gladys Wilson spent several days last week at Blalock Island helping cut seed potatoes. They enjoyed their trip greatly.

W. A. Goodwin has been at The Dalles for some time under the doctor's care.

It is reported that Marion Van Meten, foreman of the coal chutes at Messner, is married to one of the graduates from the Moro high school, but details are lacking.

Deibert Johnson spent Sunday at the parental home. He is employed with the highway crew and is located at Umatilla for the present.

Claude Contes, employed with the oiling crew on the highway, was home over Sunday. Mrs. Contes and Ray Barlow took him back to work Monday morning.

They are oiling on the Filot Rock road at present but work was delayed because of rain and wind the past week.

Nellie Dillon and Catherine Berger entertained a group of young folks Thursday evening at the Berger home. All had a most delightful time with games and music. Scions from the following families attended: Berger, Boardman, Wilson, Dillon, Mefford and Erma Broyles.

A number of Boardman fans attended the game Sunday at Umatilla when a pick-up team from Boardman played the Umatilla nine. The game was exceedingly interesting and full of thrills even though Boardman lost by a small margin.

Casons plan to leave soon and are disposing of their household goods.

F. A. Edwards of Ridgfield was up looking after his place this week.

Mike Marshall, son Chas. and daughter Cathleen were in Heppner and Arlington several days last week. Tom Brady of Hay creek was on the project Sunday.

Boardman friends will be interested to hear of the marriage of Pete Slavin who went to Ireland to get a bride. He is expected to arrive this week and with his wife will visit at the M. K. Marshall home.
