Chas. Furlong was an Eight Mile farmer in the city on Saturday. Mr. Furlong is running the Vaughn place and reports the best crop outlook his section has had in years. Mrs. Furlong is not so optimistic over her part of the game, however. She has been trying to bring along the hatching and brooding of several hundred chicks, and the cool weather has worked to a disadvantage. She is making progress, however, and will have a fine lot of chickens.

D. A. Wilson and sister, Mrs. Alva Jones, went to Hot Lake the end of the week where they were called on account of the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. William Wilson, who is a patient in the sanitarium there. Mrs. Wilson had undergone a minor operation and her condition became somewhat alarming for a time. David returned home on Sunday but Mrs. Jones remained with her mother, who is reported to be much better.

Rev. I. V. Parker closed his pastorate with the Methodist church here on Sunday, preaching his farewell sermon to his congregation at the morning service. He departed for Baker on Monday and will canvass that section as a solicitor for a Chicago tailoring establishment for which he has taken the agency. We understand that the church here will be without a pastor for the remainder of the conference year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Pearson of Lena were in the city over Sunday night. Mr. Pearson states that his part of the county is experiencing a backward spring season—in fact just about the most backward season in his experience, and he settled in that part of the country some 44 years ago. He is hoping for warmer weather conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Bayless will depart early the coming week on a journey by auto to Mr. Bayless' old home in Virginia. They will take enough time in making the trip to visit different points of interest on the way, and their destination will be Rose Hill, Virginia. It has been about eight years since Mr. Bayless visited the old home state last.

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, MAY 26 AND 27:

Gilda Gray in "ALOMA OF THE SOUTH SEAS"

A fiery romance of the tropics in which Gilda, as a native dancing girl, vies with a lovely woman of fashion for the love of a derring-do young white man. DRAMA, BEAUTY, THRILLS. Also the McDougall Alley Gang in PRESENT ARMS, two reel comedy, and the third episode of THE SCARLET STREAK.

SATURDAY, MAY 28:

Jack Hoxie in "THE WHITE OUTLAW"

with "Scout," a marvelous horse, and "Bunk," a wonder dog. Clever, cunning, fearless, "The White Outlaw" roamed the limitless plains, the lord of all he surveyed. Defying man made traps, savagely defending himself against beasts of prey. A fresh, original theme that will delight and exhilarate you. Also LONE PRAIRIE, two reel comedy-western.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY, MAY 29 AND 30:

Rudolph Schildkraut in "HIS PEOPLE"

A sensational drama of the modern generation that has set the whole country talking. The old, old story of the prodigal son with an entirely new twist that will give you a new slant on the bulwark of our country—the so-called common people. It's a story for everybody, everywhere, without propaganda, with no ax to grind, no message to put over except the wonderful, heartwarming message of deep family affection and home. A tender, throbbing, pulsing human document that will live forever. The N. Y. "Morning Telegraph" says "One of the outstanding pictures of the year."

Also GEORGE IN LOVE, two reel comedy.

Tuesday—Larry Semon in "SPUDS"

American Mississippi Benefit Show. See ad. elsewhere

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1:

Jacqueline Logan and Cullen Landis in "PEACOCK FEATHERS"

from Temple Bailey's popular novel. A picture that will appeal to everybody—real drama for real people. The absorbing problems of a young couple in the first tragic-comic year of married life. A comeback at the morallist who sniffs at the modern girl. Also comedy WANTED A BRIDE.

All those attending the benefit show Tuesday will be given coupons which will entitle them to see Wednesday's show for half price.

NEXT WEEK:

Rin-Tin-Tin in THE CLASH OF THE WOLVES. Clara Bow and Percy Marmont in MANTRAP. May McAvoy and Pat O'Malley in MY OLD DUTCH.

Norman Kerry and Patsy Ruth Miller in LORRAINE OF THE LIONS.
